

HAPSBURG IN HUNGARY SETS BALKANS AFLAME

Democratic Element in Budapest Seethes Against Rule of Archduke Joseph

CZECHS THREATEN OUSTER

By the Associated Press
Prague, Aug. 12.—Large, but orderly, demonstrations occurred here yesterday, being led generally by the Social Democratic element in protest against the coup d'état by which Archduke Joseph became the head of the Hungarian Government.

At the beginning of the Rumanian invasion of Hungary the more conservative elements of Czechoslovakia were insistent that a Czech army advance immediately into Hungary to protect Czechoslovakian interests here. Professor T. G. Masaryk, president of Czechoslovakia, and members of his ministry, opposed such a movement, desiring that they desired to act entirely in co-operation with the great powers and did not wish to embarrass them further in the situation which has arisen because of the Rumanian invasion, which was in violation of the armistice.

Fears are expressed that the reactionary element in Vienna will soon join force with those back of the ascendency of Archduke Joseph and will amalgamate the Austrian and Hungarian states into an intensely autocratic government, which will become the center of automatic responsibility in Central Europe. As Archduke Joseph is a Hapsburg, it is hoped by Czechoslovakia, officials that the United States will use its influence in preventing the new regime from succeeding. It is significant that as a result of yesterday's demonstration the Social Democrats now seem to be inclined to a considerable degree to support an invasion of Hungary at once with a view to placing Czechoslovakia in such a position that she could demand the withdrawal of the government headed by Archduke Joseph as the price of her aid to the Allies.

Berlin, Monday, Aug. 11.—Governmental discussion in Vienna is centering about the problem as to whether Ben Kux, the erstwhile Bolshevik dictator of Hungary, should be accorded asylum in Austria or be delivered to the first country demanding him for trial, according to advice received here from the Austrian capital. It is said that sentiment is decidedly against granting him asylum.

Plans for a coalition cabinet at Budapest appear further from solution than ever since the declaration of Paul Graf, Socialist leader, to participate in a government having a Hapsburg at its head. Premier Friedrich has announced that the National Assembly will convene within eight weeks. He says that it will meet on a basis of a coalition state, but M. Lovassy, who has been named for a post in the department of instruction, has declared that the form of the Hungarian Government will be decided upon only after his arrival in Budapest from Switzerland. He is said to agree thoroughly with Dr. Wilhelm Vassonyi, a Hungarian Socialist leader, who is also on his way home from Switzerland, and who is urging the formation of a democratic liberal cabinet, in which the whole national strength could be concentrated.

Paris, Aug. 12.—(By A. P.)—The Peace Conference, it was apparent today, will take no further action in the Hungarian situation until the inter-Allied military mission which has been sent to Budapest makes its report.

Brigadier General Harry H. Bandholtz, the American representative on the mission, reached the Hungarian capital Monday. The American peace delegation was advised today. The general has not yet been able to send a report on the situation in Budapest.

DEMobilized BY NOV. 1

Last of Combatant Troops Will Be Free Then, Says Baker
Washington, Aug. 12.—(By A. P.)—Demobilization of the army, "so far as combatant troops are concerned," will be completed the last of October, Secretary Baker announced today. Many men now in the army, it was explained, will be retained to care for large stores of equipment remaining on hand.

Mr. Baker announced some time ago that the army would be reduced to the peace-time strength provided in the national defense act by September 30. At that time, however, there still will remain in the army a number of men slated for the emergency. These will be released as rapidly as they can be released by volunteers.

Enlistments for the regular army, Mr. Baker said, now total 100,000 and continue to be recorded at the rate of 5,000 a week.

CHORUS GIRLS UPHELD BY STRIKING ACTORS

Pay for Costumes and Lengthy Rehearsals Demanded—Association Sued for $50,000

By the Associated Press
New York, Aug. 12.—Employment conditions for chorus girls were formally incorporated in the demands of the striking actors today in an announcement by Frank Gilmore, executive secretary of the Actors' Equity Association, explaining the organization of a branch for "chorus people." The announcement said that "we are particularly interested in seeing that the chorus people get their just dues."

The demands for the chorus girls include a requirement that they shall not be compelled to rehearse more than four weeks without pay, after which they must be paid half salary. The managers also would be required to pay for all costumes, shoes and stockings. The chorus girls held a meeting of their own this afternoon to consider the situation. Former actors, now managers, are being forced by the strike to appear behind the footlights. William A. Brady, following the lead of George M. Cohan, announced today that he would play the role of a butler in his production of "At 11:15" when the play resumes this week.

New York, Aug. 12.—Suits for $500,000 for damages alleged to have resulted from the strike called by the Actors' Equity Association were filed by the Winter Garden Company (the Shuberts) in the United States district court here late yesterday against nearly thirty of the country's most prominent stage and screen stars.

The complaint, which charges the actors with conspiracy, as was charged in the Danbury Hatters' case, in which the latter, members of a labor union, were sued successfully for $220,000. In their case attachments were issued against their homes to satisfy the judgment.

The Producing Managers' Protective Association, in announcing the filing of the suits, said efforts would be made to get a lien on the bank accounts and property of the defendants, unless bonds were posted to cover the amount of damages sought. No statement was forthcoming as to whether other managers affected by the strike would file similar suits. The Winter Garden Company, until the strike began, was presenting "Shubert Galles of 1919" and "Monte Cristo, Jr."

The screen stars were named as defendants, it was explained, on precedent set in the hatters' case, where it was held by the court that individual members of a labor organization are responsible for the acts of all, although the members may have no connection with the case at issue.

CARNEGIE WILL REST IN SLEEPY HOLLOW

Private Funeral Services Will Be Held Thursday Morning at Shadow Brook

ASSOCIATES PAY TRIBUTE

Lenox, Mass., Aug. 12.—The body of Andrew Carnegie, shot yesterday, who died here yesterday, will be taken to Sleepy Hollow, Tarrytown, N. Y., for burial, it was announced at the Carnegie home here today.

The Rev. Benson N. Wynne, pastor of the Lenox Congregational Church, and the Rev. Dr. William Pierson Merrill, pastor of the Brick Presbyterian Church, New York, will officiate at a private funeral service Thursday morning at Shadow Brook.

After the services Thursday the body will be taken by special train to Tarrytown for burial in a plot Carnegie bought there a few years ago.

Relieved in World League

New York, Aug. 12.—What is believed to have been one of the last letters written by Mr. Carnegie, in which he expressed his gratification at the proposed league of nations, was made public here today by Charles C. James, a brother, to whom the communication was addressed. The letter, which was written in response to one sent to Mr. Carnegie by Mr. James calling attention to a statement of the iron master made in 1914, that no hereditary monarch, war, emperor or king should have the right to declare war, was dated August 9.

"I rejoice in having lived to see the day," said Mr. Carnegie's letter, "when the world shall be brothers and not enemies. Nations and that civilization will now march steadily onward, with no more great wars to mar its progress."

Tributes From Associates

Tributes to Mr. Carnegie's spirit of philanthropy and his energy came from many of his former associates upon the receipt of news of his death. George W. Perkins, chairman of the finance committee of the Carnegie Foundation, said: "I am deeply grieved to hear of Mr. Carnegie's death. He was a great American, belonging to that class which after the war of 1865 was quick to appreciate that we had a united country and a great opportunity."

He grieved the new machinery which inventors placed in our hands at that time and with them threw all his great mental energy into developing our country. When his active business career closed, with the same energy he gave a large percentage of his wealth to movements that he believed would help the people.

"One of the last talks I had with him was about profit-sharing. He was most enthusiastic in his commendation of the steel corporation's profit-sharing plans and expressed the belief that the principle of profit-sharing was destined to be a great factor in solving the existing problems between capital and labor."

Elihu Root, Jr., said Mr. Carnegie was a citizen of New York and that his will doubtless would be probated here. He intimated that Mr. Carnegie's death would have no effect upon the Carnegie Foundation's future or upon similar philanthropies established by him.

BURGLARS INVADE NORRISTOWN HOMES

Get Several Hundred in Cash. Woman Wakens to Find Intruder in Bedroom

Norristown, Pa., Aug. 12.—Burglars, who used a gimlet to force window catches, stole several hundred dollars from houses on Curran Terrace in the eastern suburb of this town early today. It was 3:30 when Mrs. Gerald Swallow awoke to find a man in her bedroom. She screamed and her husband, lately returned from the war, attempted to jump out of bed, but his feet tangled in the bedclothing and he fell to the floor. By the time he got his revolver the intruder ran down stairs and escaped, but carried along Swallow's trousers, from which he took a wallet containing $25.

At the home of John Hyatt Naylor, an attorney, $50 were taken from the trousers of Mrs. Hyatt's father, Wilfred Stauffer, manufacturer, who was visiting there, because of recent fire damage to his home in Norristown.
