

Candidates for Mayoralty Nomination Announce Platforms and Seek Citizens' Support

"I WAS born in this city and am vitally interested in its advancement and progress."—Judge Patterson.

MR. MOORE would like to know, "If the contractor bosses have been in control of the city for the last four years and have in mind these excellent reforms, why did they not take some steps to put them into effect?"

JUDGE PATTERSON was an active worker in all the Liberty Loan campaigns and headed the South Philadelphia committee in the Victory Loan campaign.

REPRESENTATIVE J. Hampton Moore, of the Third Congressional District of Pennsylvania, granted "leave for important public business."

"THE FIGHT" in Philadelphia is serious. A battle is to be waged from now until the Primary polls are closed."

"NO MAN or men will control me as Mayor."—John M. Patterson, Associate Judge, Court of Common Pleas, No. 1.

CONGRESSMAN MOORE is "looking to the future" and believes "the people also are looking forward hopefully to a new deal and a square deal in the administration of the city's affairs."

IN ADDITION to being a dilettante in art, Judge Patterson is a collector of rare books. He has most of the Dickens first editions and is president of The Dickens Fellowship.

THE JUDGE was often called to address Liberty Loan rallies. Here the camera man has clicked him just before his introduction to the audience by the presiding officer.

"I WILL go into office as free of pledges to Penrose as to Vane. My only boss will be my wife."
