

COLD STORAGE GAIN SHOWN IN U. S. REPORT

Figures Indicate That Supply Formerly Sent to Europe Is Being Stored

AMOUNTS ARE DOUBLED

Figures made public today by the Bureau of Markets of the United States Department of Agriculture show increased amounts of foodstuffs being placed in cold storage throughout the country.

The storage holdings August 1, 1917, showed 3,912,194 pounds of frozen lamb and beef in storage. A year later, with the war at its climax, the holdings were a little less, or 3,728,637 pounds.

July 1, 1919, there were 7,273,201 pounds in the cold storage warehouses of the country. August 1, 1919, the quantity was still going up, the total being 7,301,220 pounds, indicating that supplies that did not go abroad are going into cold storage.

Figures of August 1 show that storage holdings are at present easily in excess of what they were during the war.

In some of the food commodities storage figures showed a slight decrease on August 1, 1919, over July 1, 1919.

Thieves Good Range Finders

Thieves broke into the home of Mrs. A. C. Keffler, Ritzenhouse street near Twentieth, early today and stole a gun range valued at $40.

"PAT," WISE PARROT, HAS LEFT; HUSBAND ALSO GONE

Congenial Bird Missing After Argument With "Beckie," the Pug Dog, and "Tom," the Cat

If any one finds Pat, the peripatetic parrot, please send him home at once.

Pat lives at 138 South Eleventh street and has a green complexion and a long vocabulary.

In fact, he is as glib-tongued as an auctioneer and is in touch with the affairs of the day.

Pat was a good old pal of Howard Perkins, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Perkins, who died three years ago.

It is for this reason that Mrs. Perkins is so anxious to find the bird.

The bird disappeared a week ago following a triangular argument with Beckie, the pug dog, and Tom, the cat.

Pat was jealous, it is said, and it is possible he thought the dog and cat were receiving too much attention from members of the family.

While Pat was in the house Mrs. Perkins had no use for a maid.

If a peddler came to the door, Pat shouted from the cage: "Nothing doing!"

Pat lives at 138 South Eleventh street and has a green complexion and a long vocabulary.

In fact, he is as glib-tongued as an auctioneer and is in touch with the affairs of the day.

Pat was a good old pal of Howard Perkins, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Perkins, who died three years ago.

It is for this reason that Mrs. Perkins is so anxious to find the bird.

The bird disappeared a week ago following a triangular argument with Beckie, the pug dog, and Tom, the cat.

Pat was jealous, it is said, and it is possible he thought the dog and cat were receiving too much attention from members of the family.

While Pat was in the house Mrs. Perkins had no use for a maid.

If a peddler came to the door, Pat shouted from the cage: "Nothing doing!"

TWO DIE WHEN TUG FOUNDERS IN GALE

The Morris Sinks in Delaware. Engineer and Steward Lose Lives—Captain Saved

MUCH DAMAGE BY STORM

Two men drowned during the heavy rain and hail storm last night when the tug Morris, owned by the De Frain Land Company and the Hainesport Mining and Transportation Company foundered in the Delaware, above Horseshoe buoy.

The dead: George A. Hitchon, engineer, seventy-four years old, Millsboro, Del. A son survives him.

Harry Hudson, steward, thirty-seven years old, Frankford, Del. He leaves a widow and five children.

John Marsh, 245 North Sixty-second street, captain of the Morris, was thrown into the water when the tug sank.

The Morris, towing three empty sand lighters, sank in thirty-five feet of water during an unusually heavy wind and rain storm.

The steerage of the Lady of Victory Catholic Church, at Fifty-fourth and Vine streets, the edifice which was bombed by radicals, was struck by lightning.

In West Philadelphia, Torresdale, Oak Lane and upper Germantown, and in the suburban sections within a short distance of the city limits, the storm did much damage.

WOULD "VAMP" LIKE THEDA; EXIT BOLD ROBBERY YARN

Little Mildred Denitz Tells Police That Story of Men Who Bound and Gagged Her Was "Movie" Stunt

"I am going to be a vamp like Theda Bara, and we were just playing movies," said Mildred Denitz, twelve years old, 3633 North Randolph street, today to the police of the Germantown avenue and Lycoming street station.

And with those few words she explained the mystery of the amazing story she told the police on Monday about two masked men who, she said, entered the home on Monday and bound and gagged her and her little eight-year-old neighbor, Carmen Lomastro, and tied them to the bedposts and then ran away with $500 cash.

Police Suspicious The police say they had been marking time on the case because they suspected a "frame-up" or an "inside job" or something.

Mildred and her little friend came to the station house today and confessed.

Wanted to "Vamp" "I am going to be a vamp like Theda Bara, and we were just rehearsing," smiled pretty black-haired Mildred.

"And also I wanted to teach my uncle Charles a lesson. He lets too much money lie around the house loose."

"Monday Carmen and me were playing in our house when I had an idea. Last week, you know, my uncle left his coat hanging over a chair, and I found the key to the bureau drawer where he keeps his money. Well, I got the key and Carmen and me opened the

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

- David Sussin, 629 Jackson st., and Rosa Indictor, 2909 S. 8th st. James M. Kay, Brookline, Mass., and Florence Meade, 2310 Spruce st. Abraham M. Ornstein, 589 N. 6th st., and Elida Kadler, 413 Ritner st. Harry J. Kauffman, 617 W. Eleanor st., and Jennie C. McNulty, 2441 E. Clearfield st. Vincent J. O'Neill, 1528 S. Broad st., and Gertrude A. Murphy, Lynn, Mass. George Wilson, 1939 N. Howard st., and Anna Robinson, 1841 S. Hope st. John P. Innersart, 2021 Green st., and Theresa M. Kozum, 2818 Jackson st. George H. Koster, 6235 Haverford ave., and Sarah L. Dickson, 6235 Haverford ave. Stefan Gardner, 3125 Richmond st., and Joseph Haas, 2837 Madison st. Lyburn C. Downing, Honesdale, Pa., and Helene L. King, 925 Pine st. Edwin J. Watkins, 5984 N. 18th st., and Louise E. McDougal, 5247 Lanshin place. Jack Peinberg, 1934 E. Monmouth st., and Ray Welsh, 2516 W. Norris st. Alvin Eberhardt, Salvia, S. C., and Helen A. Ball, Worcester, Mass. George M. Cumber, 4433 Paul st., and Theresa G. Ryan, 4147 N. 6th st. James A. Judan, 1711 S. 9th st., and May M. Ryan, 5485 De Lancy st. Benjamin S. Wallace, Jr., 410 Buckley st., and Janet M. Steele, 210 W. Ontario st. Clara L. Lewis, Sunbury, Pa., and Paulie L. Doh, Sunbury, Pa. James S. Plant, 46th and Market sts., and Mildred H. Heller, Brooklyn, N. Y. Charles L. McCormick, 1508 E. Susquehanna ave., and Esther E. Gossen, 2111 E. Norris st. Harry H. Turner, 121 N. 33d st., and Aeneas S. MacCallan, 1936 W. Somerset st. Francis A. Moore, 4910 Carlisle st., and Frederick W. Mikowicz, 3908 Reno st. William L. Smith, 2621 S. Broad st. and William J. Kelly, 402 Girard ave., and Jean D. Mathers, 5602 Wayne ave. George P. Marston, 2044 E. Heston st., and Marie Lippincott, 2738 Frankford ave. Adam A. Butterfield, 2165 N. 12th st., and Gertrude Fluro, 2165 N. 12th st. Robert H. Johnson, 4400 Pine st., and Anna M. Grace, 5200 S. Broad st. Edward Zelski, 4749 Troncy st., and Eleanor Stachowski, 4402 E. Thompson st. Paul N. Menard, Leagan Island, and Browne S. Greenberg, 238 Ritter street. Joseph P. Fish, 2630 Beulah st., and Katie Minocier, 2284 F. Mitchell st. Edna Ervin, 2221 S. 8th st. Morris S. Stecker, 505 N. 21st st., and Francis Zonolony, 1850 N. Franklin st. Evelyn Thayer, 2803 Pomeroy st., and Elsie A. Shoro, 3010 Pomeroy st. Edward C. Melowinkel, 5046 Chestnut st., and Margaret C. Hunter, 2025 S. 28th st.

FOUR HURT IN UPSET AUTO

Exploding Tire Causes Injury to Ardmore Young Woman

Explosion of the tire on the front wheel of an automobile in which Miss Marie Jones, of Ardmore, Pa., Miss Julia Fallo, of Diverse, Miss Esther Duggett, of Wilmington, Del., and Edgar G. White, of Syracuse, were riding, threw the car down an embankment near Watkins X Y, turning over twice before landing in a ditch.

Miss Jones was pinned beneath the car, and when finally extricated it was found her collarbone was fractured and she had a severe injury at the base of the leg.

She was removed to the Hahn Hospital, and her brother, John Jones, and her sister, Mrs. Thomas Dando, both of this city, were summoned.

FINDS ABANDONED BABY

Shipyard Worker, Attracted by Cries, Discovers It Near Convent

Cries of a baby attracted the attention early today of William H. Ward, an electrician, while he was on his way from the Pusey & Jones shipyard, Gloucester, to his home.

After a search, he found a three-months-old girl lying upon the steps of the convent adjoining St. Mary's parochial school, Ridgeway and Sussex streets. The infant was neatly dressed. Fanned to the baby's dress was this note:

"Please put my baby in a Catholic home, as I am unable to take care of her. Heartbroken Mother." Ward took the baby to his home.

Falls on Curb, Fractures Skull

Falling while at play, fourteen-year-old John O. Callahan is at the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital with a fractured skull. He struck his head on the curbing in front of his house, 1516 North Allison street.

Freight Trains Collide

A freight engine crashed into the rear end of a coal train on the Port Richmond branch of the Reading Railway. Two or three cars caught fire. The flames were extinguished by local fire companies.

Mawson & DeMany 1215 Chestnut Street Annual Fur Sale

Emphasizing the most remarkable values on record Savings of 20 to 45 Per Cent! PHILADELPHIA Fur History can show no such glorious facts as are evident in this Annual Event for 1919.

Table with 3 columns: Fur Coats, Stoles, Scarfs, Coatees, Sets. Lists various fur items and their sale prices.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Good Clothes Makers Your money What will it buy in fall clothes? YOU'RE pretty certain that you'll pay a good price for whatever clothes you buy; you're not so certain the clothes will be as good as the price You can be 100 percent sure Our clothes will be worth every cent you pay for them. It's our business to see that you get all-wool fabrics, good style and tailoring; good value. If the clothes dont satisfy you—you get your money back Strawbridge & Clothier Are the Exclusive Philadelphia Distributors of the Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothing