

Royal Heir in Nova Scotia : Parade of East Indians : Candidates for Hog Island Sponsor

SOLDIER WITH fixed bayonet guarding a looted shop in Liverpool. Taking advantage of the reduced police supervision, owing to the walk-out of the city's guardians, thieves broke in and plundered many stores in the business section.

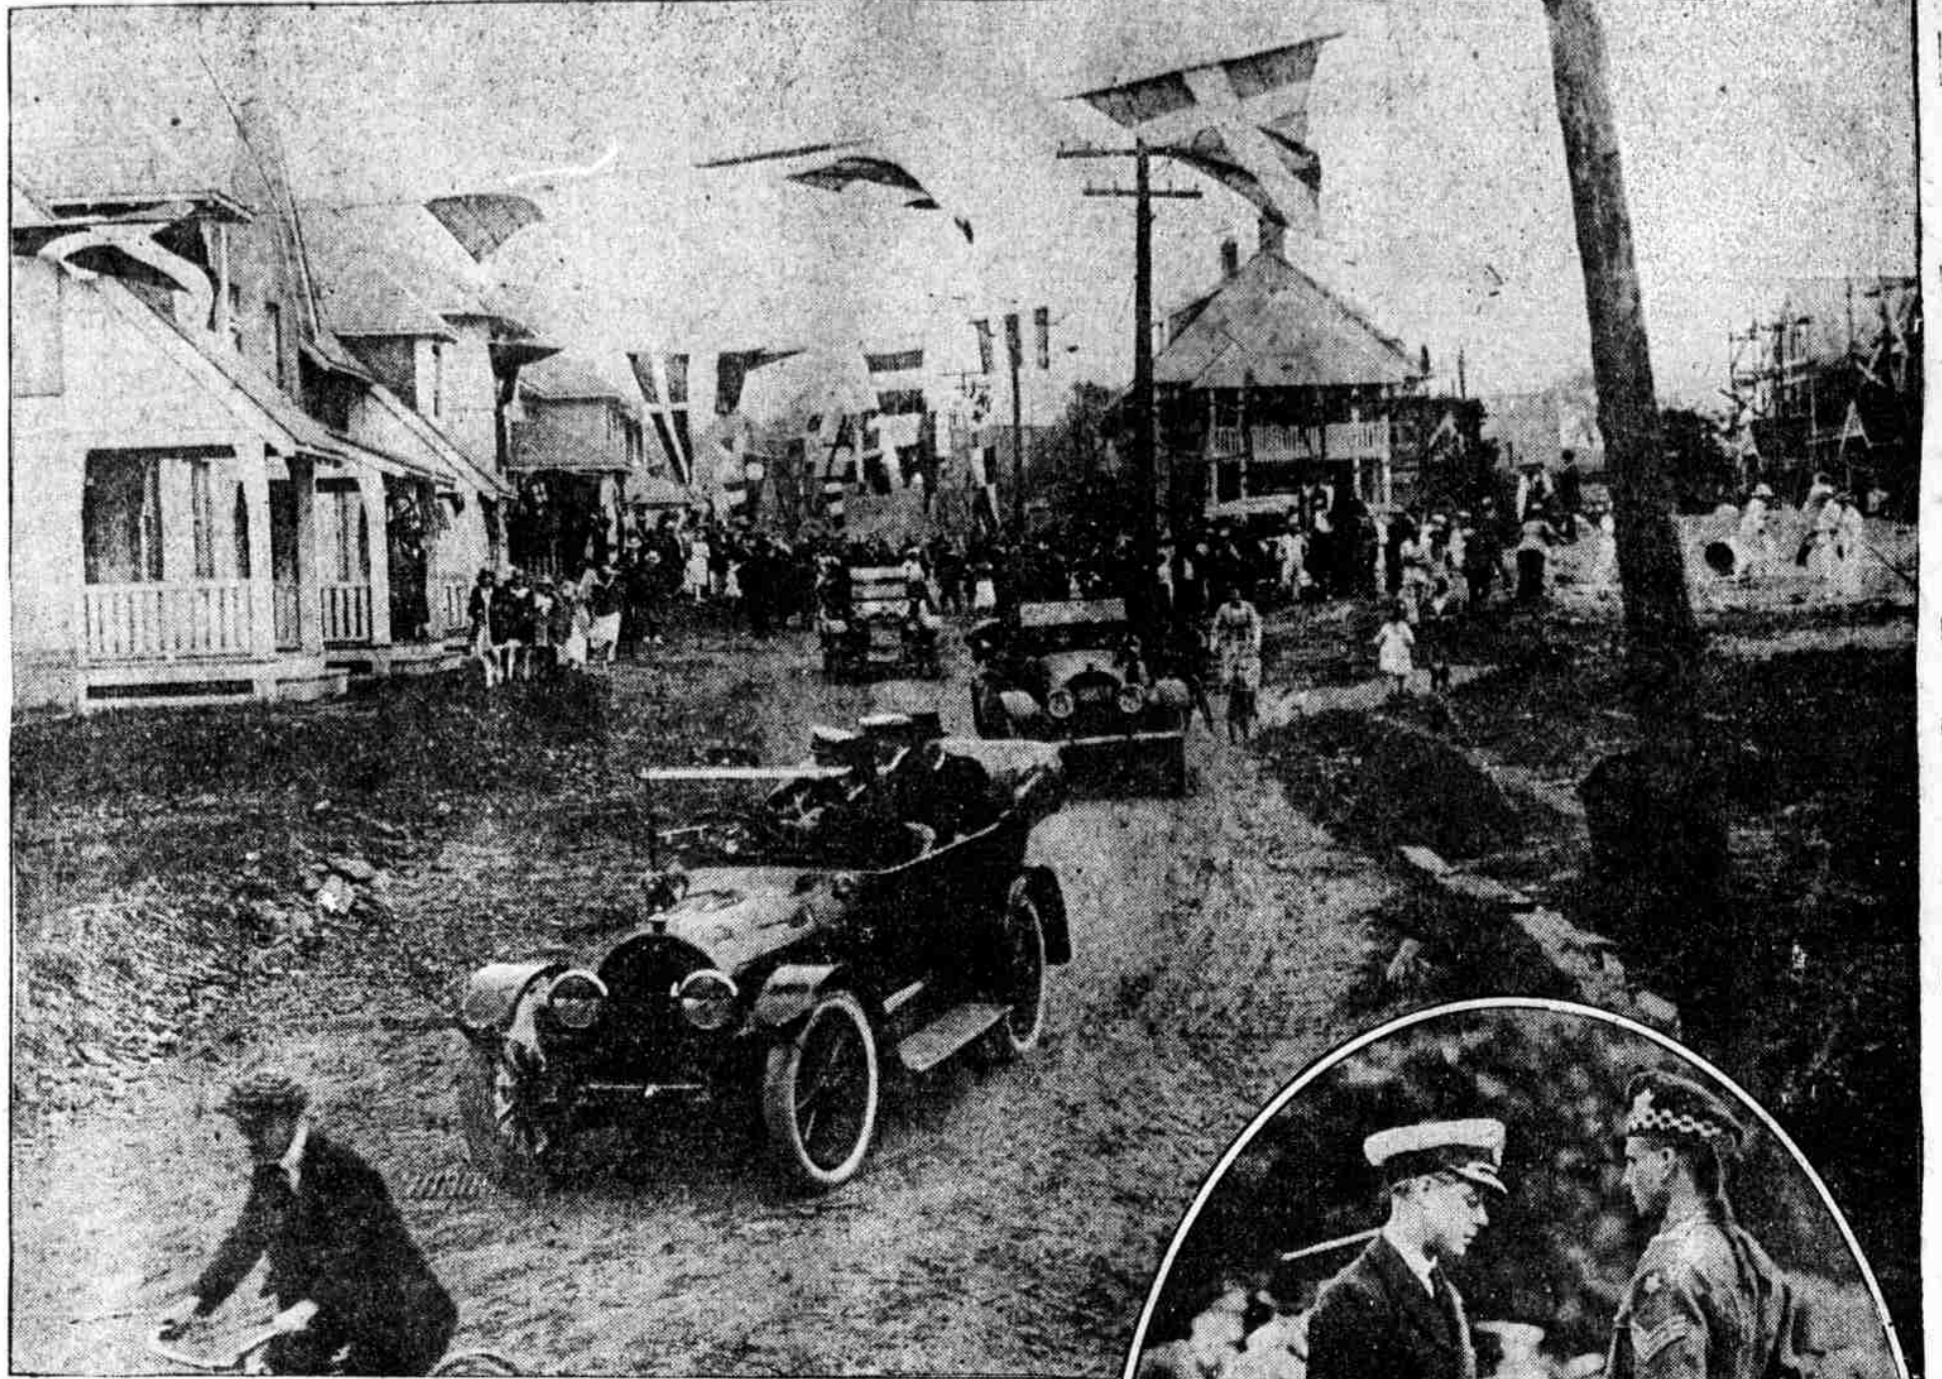

Photo J.F.S.

AT RIGHT—Prince of Wales and staff in the devastated section of Halifax, N. S., laid in ruins in December, 1917, the result of the explosion of a munition ship in the harbor.

THIS KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS flower girl, Miss Kitty Dalton, of New York, has received at least 200 marriage proposals from soldiers, marines and sailors. She is a popular singer at K. of C. huts at camps, and has distributed countless flowers to overseas veterans in New York's many parades.

BRITAIN'S WARRIORS from the Far East, Hindu fighters marching through the streets of London in the recent victory celebration of the East Indian veterans and colonial soldiers of England.

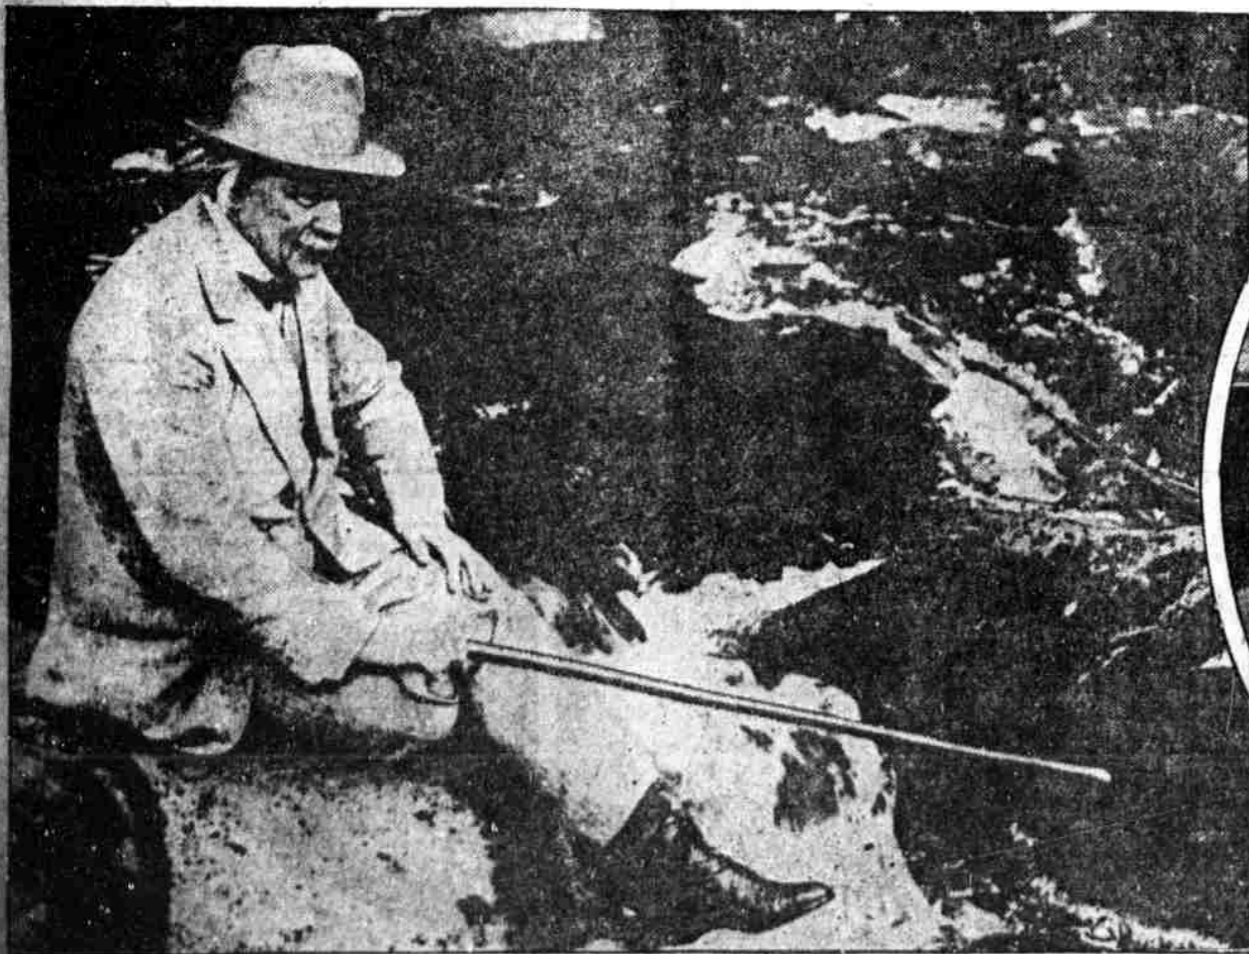

ENGLAND'S HEIR decorating a Nova Scotia hero of the world war.

AT RIGHT—Miss Elizabeth O'Brien, of Division No. 1, Hog Island, candidate for sponsor.

LEDGER PHOTO SERVICE.

ENGLAND'S PREMIER, Lloyd George, slips away to Criccieth, a small watering place of Wales, for a few days' vacation. He is adept with rod and reel and fond of the sea and woodland fastnesses.

MISS NELLIE M. DEVENNEY, candidate for sponsor of the Hog Island. The primaries closed yesterday. The final election will take place on Wednesday of next week.

VOTE FOR Miss
ARCHIBOLD
Yard Division Candidate
October 3rd 1917

MISS MIRIAM ARCHIBOLD seeking the support of Hog Island employes in her campaign for "godmother" for the yard's latest ship.