

CHEMISTS BEGIN SESSIONS TODAY

Will Attempt to Solve High Cost of Living by New Food Processes

SECRETARY BAKER TO SPEAK

Steps to strike off the chains in which foreign chemists have held some American industries...

While the meeting of the society will be held at the Bellevue-Stratford, a subheadquarters will be established at the University of Pennsylvania Museum.

Tomorrow afternoon the general meeting will be continued and five papers of wide scientific interest will be read.

Dr. Nichols to Speak. Dr. William H. Nichols will deliver his presidential address on the subject, "Research and Application," on Thursday evening at the Museum of the University of Pennsylvania.

Excursions will occupy Saturday, the last day of the meeting. There will be an all-day trip on the Delaware River, during which the members will view the huge industrial plants.

In the committees having charge of the arrangements are George D. Rosenberger, chairman; William H. Bower, treasurer; J. Howard Graham, chairman of the publicity committee; Owen L. Shinn, chairman of the excursions committee; James A. Brannigan, chairman of the hotel committee; William C. Cornell, chairman of the registration and information committee; C. C. Tutwiler, chairman of the transportation committee; Arthur H. Thomas, chairman of the entertainment committee; Harry F. Keller, chairman of the banquet committee; W. A. Pearson, chairman of the smoker committee, and Mrs. Harry F. Keller, chairman of the entertainment of ladies committee.

Assisting are Dr. Edgar F. Smith, Dr. Charles L. Reese, Dr. Harlan S. Miner, chairman of the Philadelphia section; Samuel P. Sadtler, William M. Kerr, Herman Dannebaum, Gellert Allemann, A. M. Coney, C. S. Brinton, Prof. Walter T. Taggart, Dr. Charles H. La Wall, of the College of Pharmacy; James G. Yall, G. H. Clamer, George E. Barton, J. S. Goldbaum, R. B. Owens, Abraham Henwood, Elmer C. Bertolet, H. S. Lukens, Leon W. Hoffman, S. S. Sadtler, Edwin F. Hicks, Dr. Sydney Davis, Robert P. Fischel, James K. Coyne, William D. Edmonds and R. P. Dugliss; J. F. Garrett and E. G. Robinson, of the Delaware Section, and William H. Fisher, Jr., representing the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce.

Policeman Returns From Russia. John Grier, a former policeman of Haverford township, who went overseas with the Ninth Engineers and obtained the rank of master engineer, has returned to his home at Okmont from Russia, where he served five months after the armistice was signed.

If You Fail to Register You Lose Your Vote—Register!

Don't delay. Today you should register. If your name is not on the assessors' lists you may have it placed there today.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Revenue From Vendors' Licenses Increased $100 a Week

Advertising pays, in the opinion of Director Datesman, of the Department of Public Works.

"Advertising of the city's curb and shed markets and its other marketing facilities for farm products will increase its revenue from a certain class of vendors' licenses to the extent of almost $100 a week this year," he said.

FINE SPEEDING AUTOISTS

Three Slightly Injured When Car Hits Trolley

Fines and costs aggregating more than $600 were imposed by Justice of the Peace Schuyler, of Darby, on two motorists on a charge of reckless driving.

TO HONOR WAR VETERANS

Engineers' Club Entertains American Legion Members Tonight

Members of the Engineers' Club will give a smoker tonight in the clubhouse, 1317 Spruce street, and will have as their guests the members of American Legion Post No. 130.

HELMETS FOR SALE

Government to Part With 50,000, One to Each Person

The District Salvage Board, 1710 Market street, put on sale today 50,000 army steel helmets, all finished except the riveting, and the copper rivets will be supplied.

VARE WOMEN TO MEET

Supporters of Patterson to Map Campaign

Women supporters of the Vore ticket will meet Mrs. Archibald R. Harmon, chairman of the woman's committee, today at headquarters in the Adelphi Hotel.

Details of the mayoralty campaign will be discussed and a woman's platform outlined. Committees in the various wards will be formed.

SCOUTS REMIND CITIZENS OF DUTY

Boy Scouts and service men are displaying the Moore Republican campaign committee's banners about the city, urging citizens to register today, the second opportunity to enroll for participation in the coming primary.

VACCINATION RULE FOUGHT

Gloucester Parents Threaten to Keep Children From School

Vaccination has caused indignation in Gloucester. The Board of Health says all school children must be vaccinated.

Matters are so complicated there was little studying when the public schools opened today. An adjustment committee has been appointed by the Board of Education to straighten out the trouble.

HELD FOR AUTO THEFT

Man Said to Be Owner Was Killed in Accident

John Vosnic, giving an address in the central part of the city, was arrested at Willow Grove by Policeman Streper, of the Abington station, charged with the theft of an automobile from David Twining, a dealer, a few days before Twining was killed in an accident on North Fifteenth street.

DANIELS TO VISIT VICTORIA

Washington, Sept. 2.—(By A. P.)—Secretary Daniels has accepted the invitation of Canadian officials to visit Victoria, British Columbia, on September 11.

WILLS PROBATED TODAY

Two wills admitted to probate today were those of John J. Behan, 6833 Woodland avenue, and Charles S. Heine, 4252 North Sixteenth street.

FRANKFORD COMMANDANT TRANSFERRED

Despite Employees' Petition

Lieutenant Colonel Wallace L. Clay, commandant of the Frankford Arsenal, was succeeded today by Colonel W. A. Phillips, commandant of the army proving grounds at Aberdeen.

COL. CLAY LEAVES ARSENAL

Frankford Commandant Transferred Despite Employees' Petition

CAR HITS AGED SOLDIER

Driver, Trying to Avoid Child, Injures Civil War Veteran

The sidewise of a heavy touring car, attempting to avoid hitting a boy at Fifth and Mantion streets, badly injured an old man, too feeble to dodge the machine when it skidded up on the pavement of the narrow street.

PARISH SCHOOLS OPEN FALL TERM

69,000 Children Flock to Classrooms in 182 Institutions of Diocese

COURSES ARE NOT ALTERED

"Johnny, get up; you'll be late for school." "Ah, gee, mom—" "Hurry and put on those shoes. An get out that clean shirt and put on your brown stockings and shoes an—"

Few changes have been made in curriculum or administration. Geography and history classes will follow new outlines sent out by publishers, though no new text-books will be adopted until the world's map shall become "better adjusted."

At the Girls' High School the commercial course has been lengthened to three instead of two years, and a course in Spanish has been added.

PARISH SCHOOLS OPEN FALL TERM

69,000 Children Flock to Classrooms in 182 Institutions of Diocese

COURSES ARE NOT ALTERED

"Johnny, get up; you'll be late for school." "Ah, gee, mom—" "Hurry and put on those shoes. An get out that clean shirt and put on your brown stockings and shoes an—"

There were approximately 69,000 early calls today for Johnnies and Marys and Catharines.

The parochial schools were formally opened at 9 o'clock—108 of them throughout the city and seventy-four others outside this city, but in the Philadelphia diocese, all told, there are 1700 instructors.

At the Catholic High School for Girls, Nineteenth and Wood streets, nearly 600 new students enrolled today.

The upper class girls will be enrolled tomorrow. It is estimated there will be more than 600 upper class students in this one school.

Few changes have been made in curriculum or administration. Geography and history classes will follow new outlines sent out by publishers, though no new text-books will be adopted until the world's map shall become "better adjusted."

At the Girls' High School the commercial course has been lengthened to three instead of two years, and a course in Spanish has been added.

The Rev. John C. Flood announced today there is ample room for all the children who enroll.

Since the parochial schools closed in June, a twenty-room addition has been completed to St. Agatha's School, at Thirty-eighth and Spring Garden streets.

SUIT OVER CURB MARKETS

Fruit Dealers Charge Politics Lets Them Break Law

Political influence used on behalf of the Philadelphia Curb Market Men's Association allows them to display produce in a manner prohibited by law, according to Joseph Gross, counsel for the Philadelphia Fruit Dealers' Association.

On behalf of the members of his association, who, he says, are forbidden the privilege enjoyed by the curb market men, Mr. Gross has filed a bill of equity to discover legally why the curb men are not punished for alleged violations of the health rules.

Mr. Gross says William L. Walsh, president of the curb market men, is a "political power" in the Twenty-eighth ward, the home ward of Joseph C. Smith, Mayor Smith's brother and secretary.

BABIES WIN PARADE PRIZES

Awards Made After Juvenile Pageant at Plaza Park

Baby parade winners at the community service yesterday in Plaza Park, South Broad street, were announced today as follows:

First honors to Margaret Kuter, 2729 South Seventeenth street; second, to Helen Marie Dean, 2728 Smedley street; third, to Richard Huebner, 2748 Smedley street; fourth, to Marie Sammon, 2746 Smedley street, and fifth, to the McGuinty twins, Catherine and Rita, 2707 South Sixteenth street.

AMERICANS WHO PLAN TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PERMISSION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR TOURISTS TO VISIT FRANCE AFTER OCTOBER 1, WILL FIND THAT THEY CAN TRAVEL IN AS GREAT COMFORT AS BEFORE THE WAR, EXCEPT IN THE WAR ZONE ITSELF.

Latest advices from Paris give the assurance that tourists will be immediately welcome and that no trouble need be anticipated regarding hotel or food.

On the other hand, prospective travelers will do well to avail themselves of the service of an established tourist organization that is more familiar with the bewilderingly new and constantly changing conditions than the individual traveler can expect to be.

The first tour to Europe since 1914, announced by Raymond & Whitcomb Co., for 40 years the leading American tourist agency, will sail from New York October 4.

This party and others in October, November will visit France, Belgium and Italy and all the most important battlefields, including Chateau-Thierry, St. Mihiel, the Argonne, Verdun, Rheims, Ypres, the Marne and the Hindenburg Line. This fall will be the last opportunity to visit these battlefields just as they were.

Parties strictly limited by the steamship space available, and persons interested should write at once for the company's booklet, containing full information. Address Raymond & Whitcomb Company, 1005 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

PARISH SCHOOLS OPEN FALL TERM

69,000 Children Flock to Classrooms in 182 Institutions of Diocese

COURSES ARE NOT ALTERED

"Johnny, get up; you'll be late for school." "Ah, gee, mom—" "Hurry and put on those shoes. An get out that clean shirt and put on your brown stockings and shoes an—"

There were approximately 69,000 early calls today for Johnnies and Marys and Catharines.

The parochial schools were formally opened at 9 o'clock—108 of them throughout the city and seventy-four others outside this city, but in the Philadelphia diocese, all told, there are 1700 instructors.

At the Catholic High School for Girls, Nineteenth and Wood streets, nearly 600 new students enrolled today.

The upper class girls will be enrolled tomorrow. It is estimated there will be more than 600 upper class students in this one school.

Few changes have been made in curriculum or administration. Geography and history classes will follow new outlines sent out by publishers, though no new text-books will be adopted until the world's map shall become "better adjusted."

At the Girls' High School the commercial course has been lengthened to three instead of two years, and a course in Spanish has been added.

The Rev. John C. Flood announced today there is ample room for all the children who enroll.

Since the parochial schools closed in June, a twenty-room addition has been completed to St. Agatha's School, at Thirty-eighth and Spring Garden streets.

SUIT OVER CURB MARKETS

Fruit Dealers Charge Politics Lets Them Break Law

Political influence used on behalf of the Philadelphia Curb Market Men's Association allows them to display produce in a manner prohibited by law, according to Joseph Gross, counsel for the Philadelphia Fruit Dealers' Association.

On behalf of the members of his association, who, he says, are forbidden the privilege enjoyed by the curb market men, Mr. Gross has filed a bill of equity to discover legally why the curb men are not punished for alleged violations of the health rules.

Mr. Gross says William L. Walsh, president of the curb market men, is a "political power" in the Twenty-eighth ward, the home ward of Joseph C. Smith, Mayor Smith's brother and secretary.

BABIES WIN PARADE PRIZES

Awards Made After Juvenile Pageant at Plaza Park

Baby parade winners at the community service yesterday in Plaza Park, South Broad street, were announced today as follows:

First honors to Margaret Kuter, 2729 South Seventeenth street; second, to Helen Marie Dean, 2728 Smedley street; third, to Richard Huebner, 2748 Smedley street; fourth, to Marie Sammon, 2746 Smedley street, and fifth, to the McGuinty twins, Catherine and Rita, 2707 South Sixteenth street.

AMERICANS WHO PLAN TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PERMISSION OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT FOR TOURISTS TO VISIT FRANCE AFTER OCTOBER 1, WILL FIND THAT THEY CAN TRAVEL IN AS GREAT COMFORT AS BEFORE THE WAR, EXCEPT IN THE WAR ZONE ITSELF.

Latest advices from Paris give the assurance that tourists will be immediately welcome and that no trouble need be anticipated regarding hotel or food.

On the other hand, prospective travelers will do well to avail themselves of the service of an established tourist organization that is more familiar with the bewilderingly new and constantly changing conditions than the individual traveler can expect to be.

The first tour to Europe since 1914, announced by Raymond & Whitcomb Co., for 40 years the leading American tourist agency, will sail from New York October 4.

This party and others in October, November will visit France, Belgium and Italy and all the most important battlefields, including Chateau-Thierry, St. Mihiel, the Argonne, Verdun, Rheims, Ypres, the Marne and the Hindenburg Line. This fall will be the last opportunity to visit these battlefields just as they were.

Parties strictly limited by the steamship space available, and persons interested should write at once for the company's booklet, containing full information. Address Raymond & Whitcomb Company, 1005 Chestnut Street Philadelphia.

Big Round-Up Clearance Sale of Perry Suits Light-Weight Topcoats and a sprinkling of Winter Overcoats formerly $30, $35, $38 and $40 to be closed out at One Uniform Price $25

Here's your opportunity for a Clean-up! You can get a good Suit and a good Overcoat or Fall Topcoat for little more than you ought to pay for only one of them!

Just the Sale that is an Event for High School and Prep School Boys wearing long trousers! They can get a couple of Suits and an Overcoat that will see them through all the Fall and some of the Winter, for many of the Suits are of a weight that can be worn the best part of the year round!

We cannot produce as good values today to sell at their original prices—you know that! They are all remainders from our own stocks that we sold at $30, $35, $38 and $40, but because there are only two, three, four of a lot—but scores of lots—we are chasing them out at the

One Uniform Price $25 Your size and style may be the finest in the Sale—if you come in time!

Open till 5.30 P. M. PERRY & CO. "N. B. T." 16th and Chestnut Sts.

Europe Ready to Welcome American Tourists VISITORS WILL ENJOY PRE-WAR COMFORTS SAYS PARIS Raymond-Whitcomb Announce First Tour to Europe Since War Began—Sailing October 4

Prepare for Long Winter Evenings by installing modern Lighting Fixtures. They help to make your home cozy and cheerful.

J.B. Sheppard & Sons The New Neckwear is more delicate and delightful than ever. Its finishing touch will make almost any costume a creation.

Do you know Kansas City is passing New York as the second largest mail order center in the world?

FEDERAL MOTOR TRUCKS Have Not Changed in Price During the Past Eighteen Months 1 1/2-Ton Chassis, $2350—F. O. B. Detroit 2-Ton Chassis, $2600—F. O. B. Detroit 3 1/2-Ton Chassis, $3350—F. O. B. Detroit 5-Ton Chassis, $4400—F. O. B. Detroit FEDERAL SALES CO. OF PHILA. 1830 Market Street

BAILEY BANKS & BIDDLE CO. Jewelers Silversmiths Stationers The Plain or Jeweled Engagement Ring containing a Polished Girdle Diamond is superb Exclusive with this House.