CHOSE DEATH WITH HIS WIFE AT R. R. CROSSING

And So They Were Married

the end of the journey, but only the beginning, and she had not counted at all on the way a long train ride has of "Every one loves Joy. She is going arrival in the little western town. She cried a little bit, and clung to Ruth when she said good by, and impulsive tears came to Ruth's eyes. There was so much of good in Jane and she was so much of good in Jane and state was so terribly interesting, if only she would abide by the advice Helen had given her and try not to grow slack and to let down bars which should be kept up after the ceremony as well as before. If only Bob loved her enough to have the stories she writed, you have the stories she writed, you have the stories she writed, you have the stories she writed, you all right for them. So attractive a young mother there was Jane's arrival, and, of course, Bob would meet her, and there would be the excitement of meeting the new relatives afterward. It was all very much like a story.

The interval was been one of his best friends.

"He's never made such a fool of himself before." Scott said to Ruthone evening. "I don't know what to make of it. I wish Elsie would leave make of it. I wish Elsie would leave the story.

said, Jane was as undependable as the into with Joe. vious things, which would tell very Elsic. little. As it was, Jane surprised them,

"how strange everyone thinks my hair too." is. No one out here wears it cut and Ruth wondered why she never some of them think it most improper thought of Elsie Carstairs as Joe Bard for a mother to adopt a style so un-dignified. Bob's mother is a dear, but Carstairs just as she had before her that I let it grow, but I explained that Joe Banning. He wasn't an attractive It grew so slowly and was so curly man, but he deserved some consideration from his wife. We are staying with Bob's people now, but later we shall have a little apartment of our own.

"The wedding isn't going to be nearly as quiet as I had thought, so I am glad

The Woman's Exchange

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-Will you be nough to tell me on what day, date and month in 1901 the Jewish holiday, 'urim, fell? ROSE.
The Jewish holiday, Purim, fell on Puesday, March 5, in 1901.

What a Federal Bank Is

Dear Madam-Kindly inform hrough your page what bank (or auks) in this city is backed by govrnment funds in case of bankruptcy - a trust company as safe as a national bank; does the Federal Reserve Bank does the Federal Reserve Bank deal with the private individual, small

The national banks are under national supervision but not backed by governnent funds. The stockholders and directors are responsible.

In answer to your second question.

trust companies are quite as safe as na-tional banks. The Federal Reserve Bank receives only the deposits of other banks. 4 only the deposits of other banks. It does not deal with any private individuals, business concerns or corporations.

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

What is the game of "Guessing Weights"? From what famous old song are these lines taken?

"I see thy face in every dream;
My waking thoughts are full of thee:
Thy glance is in the starry beam
That falls along the summer sea."
What adds a pungent fragrance

what adds a pungent fragrance to the potpourri made with flower petals?
Why should outergarments be hung in the dark?
How can a run in a stocking be stopped until there is time to mend it?
What will remove a scorch stain from white cotton of linen?

Yesterday's Answers In spending money on clothes al-low 70 per cent for outerclothing. 20 per cent for underclothing. 5 per cent for accessories and 5 per cent for accessories and 5 per cent for care and findings. This is a budget suggested by the soverment.

This is a budget suggested by the government.

The marriage announcements are not mailed until the day of the wedding, after it has taken place.

The lines

"Her brow is like the snowdrift:
Her throat is like the swan;
Her face it is the fairest

That e'er the sun shone on, are the first four in the second verse of "Annie Laurie."

A very high polish can be given to cutglass by sprinkling it with warmed sawdust immediately after washing and drying in the usual way. Use a very soft chamois, kept for this purpose only, to give the final polish.

To mend an unsightly hele in a lace curtain wash and starch a piece of similar net, place under the hole and press with a warm iron. smit BECAUSE WE KNOW, we'll verify their statements. Large assortments in a store devoted to selling at wholesale, where good service is a hobby, and daylight an asset.

Extra-heavy Cotton $5.10
Blankets, Per Pair
—practily colored plaids, with finished ends, (Not over 3 pairs to a customer).

Gray Cotton Blankets. $4.10 colored stripes: pair $4.10 Gray Cotton Blankets. $4.10 colored stripes; pair. 4.10 Seconds of same grade; pair sv.as wool-finish blankets, white and gray overplaids.—$4.50, $5, $5.50 & $6 pair.

Wool blankets (with small percentage of cotton to add strength)—very at $8.75
Some Samule Blankets, slightly mussed (worth $2 as a sightly
mussed (worth $2 as a sightly pair more), pair.

Extens Special!

warm iron.
To remove a stubborn medicine odor from a bottle use fresh powdered mustard. Shake vigorously, let stand and rinse thoroughly.

ARE AS GOOD AS CASH

TOTT REOS., 1115 Chestnut

Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co. START THIS STORY TODAY . I bought the pink georgette frock as TANE was taken to the train by Scott, Ruth and Helen. The two trunks had been sent on ahead and Jane carried in her traveling bag, which was spick and span and new, only the things she would need on the train for herself and Joy. Ruth had seen to it that there was sufficient change for both of them. As usual Jane's mind had not taken in the end of the journey, but only the robbing one of freshness. So in the bag to stay with Bob's married sister after were two frilly waists, fresh gloves. the ceremony while Bob and I go away plenty of clean things for Joy and, in for a few days. So I am going to have short, everything necessary to Jane's a real honeymoon after all."

"I think she'll be happy." said Ruth looking up from the letter. listening to bits that the girls read aloud. be tolerant, things surely ought to go know. She'il have to discover that by all right for them.

In the days that followed Ruth's im-

West. She could imagine the interest home. Elsic Carstairs was spending entirely too much time in Gene Mathews' studio. They were together all nd so darling a child as Joy would the while apparently and Scott was a certain to arouse interest. Then genuinly worried about Gene, who had always been one of his best friends.

Needless to say, both Ruth and Helen were eager for the first letter from the West. June had recovered to the first letter from the west. June had recovered to the first letter from the west. were eager for the first letter from the work and everything else for her, to and to tell them everything, but, as Helen say nothing of the trouble he may get

"Oh, Scott, do you think there's any sun, and would probably omit every-thing from her letters but the most ob, danger of that? I might speak to

"Don't get mixed up in this thing: for the first letter was full of interest. you don't want to figure in a It was written just before the marriage case, you know. But Joe Banning is eremony, in fact the day before, and cather keen about Elsie. I've heard, and he hasn't been married to her is very conventional. She suggested marriage. Ruth felt suddenly sorry for Tomorrow-Elsie Comes to Ruth.

White Filet Lace

White filet lace is still used a great deal, not only as an accessory of dress -for collars and cuffs and bands in frocks and blouses of musin or crepe de chine-but also for the main portion of some of the smart late summer after-

THE EVENING GOWN

The black-and-white evening gown is always one that men admire.

Here is one that has that fascinating bit of ostrich trimming

This is what our customers, and BECAUSE WE KNOW, we'll their statements. Large

Amoskeag 32c

W. H. Smith & Sons

914 Walnut Street

tuality considered, heaper even than 4rmy Blankets!

A READER. t depends on the trust company. Many have been working fast. These think Tanner should have found some way to to them. Of this mind is John F. Dowling, of "The account of the death of William F. Tanner and his wife on the tracks of the Chicago and Northwestern Railrond has been read by me with a deep sense

Rose-Petal

Complexion

a board at a crossing of the Chicago Northwestern Railroad, a few miles from Chicago, before an approaching train. After failing in frantic efforts to free her, he threw his arms about her and crying, "I'll stay with you, Mary!" was crushed under the train with her. Above are the two principals in the tragedy. They have three small children, pictured below, William, Helen and Lyman

OPINIONS OF TANNER'S ACT OF SELF-DESTRUCTION VARY

William Fitch Tanner, of Winnetka, Ill., preferred death with his wife to life and perished with her when her foot was caught between a rail and

IN BLACK AND WHITE Letters to Evening Public Ledger Discuss "Love and Duty" of Man Who Decided to Die Under Train With Wife are still debated in the city today.

PUBLIC LEDGER from readers give whether I consider Tanner's act one widely varying opinious of Tanner's of folly or not I will relate my experiact. Some land his self-destruction, ence, seeing in it proof of his devotion to his of sterner minds, see a neglect of duty. These think Tunner should have remembered his three children and lived to care for them.

Some questioned his resourcefulness in that moment when his brain should rescue his wife and, in this combination of courage and good sense avoid the loss of his own life and give to his children the mother who is now lost

307 North Sixty-third street. In a letter to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER Mr. Dowling says:

Complex questions of love and duty of admiration of his heroic sacrifice presented in the sacrifice of William but when the Evening Public Ledger usks me what I would have done under similar circumstances I am reminded of died with his wife rather than stand by an incident which accurred at a crossing and see her crushed to death by a train, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, near are still debated in the city today.

Twenty-fifth street and Washington Letters received by the EVENING Without expressing an opinion as to food value.

Go buy it today.

No more itching now that I use

Wherever the trouble, and whatever the cause, Resinol Ointment will usually stop it at once. And if the trouble which causes the irritation is not due to some serious internal disorder, this soothing, healing application seldom fails to clear it away. Try it marked and see. it away. Try it yourself and see. Resinal Cintment is said by all Longeists. For free sample, write Dept. 11-N. Resinal, Haltimore.

WELL-KNOWN ARCHITECT SELECTS

A "LOVEKIN" FOR HIS OWN HOME

LOVEKIN AVATER HEATER COMPANY

MH SHOW

now why the Lovekin Heater meets every hot-nickly, dependably and economically, Approved duty. That would not have been standing by and seeing his wife killed. He PATE could have honorably lived to care for his three children. W. I. L. Oh, what a puzzling question.

Philadelphia, Pa.

For any oage to sek,
How do we know what we would do?
When we larew off the final mask? LEDGER:

If I close my eyes and imagine a train.
With a trainful glare coming un.
And I have a fancy some one I love.
Will just in an instant be gone:
I can feel the shaver and awful thrill?
That comes when a cold pale face.
Of a near and days one, dees not respot
To the clasp of a wild embrace.

the sacrifice.

-ANNA GRAVES HENRY.

LEDGER: "About Mr. Tanner. If the man had courage, he would be alive to-day to care for his children. His act was folly or showed that he lacked sound sense,

Other letters received follow:

"Editor of the Eventso Public

"Few men, called upon to make a hurried decision, even when not in the very ordinary affairs often say: 'If I had been able to think over that thing. I would have acted differently.' We say that when the question decided related only to a few dollars. How much harder are the questions of love, loyalty and duty. What is duty is not the same in every mind. Tanner made his decision to die with his wife while a train came rushing down the track. He saw his wife's patient, heroic face. He have we shall share with Will's chilthe rail and the planking in such a manner that it was impossible for either of us to pry it loose. My mother stooped down, and in a few seconds had unlaced my sloce, and it was then an easy matter for me to slip my foot out. The world was far, far away from that man at that moment. His son." The while an election to die left no doubt of the fullness of his love. And, loving his wife with wife are not wealthy, but such as we shall share with Will's chillness of his wife was shall share with Will's chillness of his love. And, loving his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his love. And, loving his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his love. And, loving his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his love. And, loving his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his love. And, loving his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his wife we shall share with Will's chillness of his wife we shall share with Will's chillness we shall share with Will's chillness of his wife we shall share with will such as we shall share with will share with will's chillness of his wife we shall share with will such as we shall share with will share we shall share we shall share with will share we shall share we shall share with will share we shall share we shal the shoe,
"The train on the Northwestern must and, if he had time to think of them, have been some distance away when must have thought that in dying he was Mrs. Tanner's foot became caught in doing his duty to them, in giving them the freg, else the flagman would not the heritage of such a chivalric end. have permitted them to start across the tracks, and it seems to me there would

"Editor of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER:

and enable her to withdraw her foot be-fore the engine bore down upon them, "If Mr. Tanner had exerted himself have been ample time to unlace her shoe and that is what I would have done

More inimitable stories of Eng-

CHARLES SCRIBNERS SONS FIFTH AVE AT 48°ST NEW YORK

Resinol

lish sea-faring folk.

$1.60

titled "Fate," she says:

Mannish simplicity and graceful lines that lend charm to the figure and, above all, the outdoor Fashion.

29.75 and upwards New Fall tailored and sport hats are ready this week.

the English Shop 1338 So. Penn Square LINCOLN BUILDING matter as I do. There is a destiny manfully to the last minute in the effort that shapes our ends' to my mind.

The verses follow:

The would not have been stand duty. That would not have been stand-

"Editor of the EVENING PUBLIC

"Practical persons" are not the best udges of what is heroic life. To let what is poetry, art or music. Tanner's sacrifice was too fine for prosy judgments. The children of such a man will never be left to suffer want in this

THRONG AT FUNERAL OF TANNER AND WIFE

Aunt Decides to Adopt Orphans, Declining Offers of Wealthy Women hurried decision, even when not in the presence of danger, net with full judg- Mr. and Mrs. William Fitch Tanner. ment. Most of us, when thinking over of Hubbard Woods, was attended by recy ordinary affairs often say: 'If I great throng in the Evanston Memoria no mention of the circumstances of the Tanners' death. But the neighbors from Hubbard Woods made up for the minister's reticence

Nothing else was talked about. How Tanner and his wife started for the ing the unilcond tracks at Hubbard Woods, Mrs. Tanner's foot became them establish standards for us would be eaught, how they tried to liberate her like letting an illiterate man tell us and how the husband, seeing his wife Mr. was doomed in the path of an ap-prosy proaching train, put his arms around her and died with her

Striking actors will give a big bene-fit for the Tanner children in the Auditorium Sunday afternoon, Workman Falls Two Stories While working on the roof of the home of H. C. Cornell, at 1845 North Sixth street, Morris Madley, 2224 North Seventh street, slipped and fell two stories to the ground. He was taken to the Jefferson Hospital, where it was ascertained he had suffered probable internal injuries.

A Nutritious Diet for All Ages, Quick Lunch; Home or Office. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes

A Word to the Wise Parent about School Shoes

HE Summer with all its out-of-door hours is the time when your children develop foot strength. After this long period of freedom, don't force their feet now into stiff, restrictive, ill-fitting Shoes that will break down all the foot-power developed during the

Send them back to school in Geuting Double-wear Shoes—especially designed for growing feet and fitted by experts. Foot health and foot comfort are essential to the best school no matter what the grade.

The biggest and best stocks of Shoes.for young people we have ever gathered now ready—marked at less than they would cost us to duplicate today. You benefit through our advance buying. Bring the kiddles in this

Let Us Make a Foot Chart

that not only insures perfect fitting, but enables you to telephone your orders for the balance of the season as we keep complete and accurate records of their feet. Often slight pronation in children's feet can be easily remedied

STOCKINGS

A Geuting Idea-The "SURE-TREAD" Shoe

The ideal combination of complete protection and the muscle-developing freedom of the mocassin. Based upon the principle of natural body poise, they produce a correct, graceful stride, avoid fatigue and give double wear.

Sizes from Infants' to Grown-Ups'

Complete the efficient Market foot dress for school by fitting out the "Kiddies" in Geuting's Famous Family TRIPLE-KNEE

Also a Quick-Service Men's Shop at 19 South 11th Every Foot Professionally Fitted-Three Genting Brothers Supervising

Chestnut

Family

Broad and Arch and District Offices THE UNITED GAS IMPROVEMENT COMPANY

Smooth and velvety as the petals of a rose is the complexion aided by Nadine Face Powder This delicats beautifur imparts an indefinable charm-a charm which lingers in the memory. The smooth texture of Nadine a dheres until washed off. It prevents sunburn or the return of discolorations. sundern of the return of discolorations.

Its coolness is refreshing, and it cannot harm the tenderest skin.

Nadine Face Powder beautifies millions of complexions today. Why not yours? yours? field in Green Boxes Only. At leading toilet counters. If they haven't it, by muil to. NATIONAL TOILET COMPANY,