

CONNIE MACK HAS MORE FAITHFUL PATIENTS AT SHIBE PARK THAN PHYSICIAN IN AN EPIDEMIC

UNKNOWN YOUTH STAR OF CAMP DIX OLYMPICS

Earl Dudley, Jr., Former Boston High School Runner, Wins Three First Places; to Compete in National A. A. U. Games at Franklin Field

By ROBERT T. PAUL

IT WAS a tired and weary gathering of track and field athletes and officials that wandered into this city last evening on the local from Camp Dix, where the American enlisted men's Olympic games had held sway on Saturday and Sunday, under the direction of the army officials and the Knights of Columbus.

But there was one among the group, who, while willing to admit that he was fatigued, had plenty of snap in his steps, and wore a smile that refused to come off. This was Earl S. Dudley, Jr., of the Boston Athletic Club, who competed for the army. Dudley had reason to be happy, for he had sprung into the limelight overnight, upset the "dope," and was the proud possessor of three gold medals, signifying three victories.

Will Fill Caldwell's Shoes

Dave Caldwell, the former Cornell middle distance runner, who so ably represented the Boston A. A. in the quarter and half-mile races throughout the East for so many seasons, has hung up his spikes, but it seems that the organization from "Down East" will not be without a star in the middle distance events.

Dudley showed in the Camp Dix meet that he is bound to be one of the best middle-distance runners developed in the East for some time. He is a well-built lad who can stand plenty of hard going and still have enough to make his final sprint. He came to Camp Dix unheralded, but left as one of the real stars of the games.

Defeats Curtiss

His greatest feat was in the quarter-mile dash from scratch yesterday. Competing against such stars as H. Curtiss, of the Chicago A. A. and regarded as the favorite by many for the senior National A. A. U. quarter-mile run

PENN GRID DRILL FORMALLY STARTED

First Real Practice for 1919 Football Season Held on Frazier's Farm

BIG SQUAD IN TRAINING

"Come on, fellows, let's go!" With this short but inspiring speech, Capt. Bert Bell led his Penn varsity football candidates out onto the farm land of George H. Frazier, near Willow Grove Park, this afternoon, for the first formal practice of the year.

More than twenty men were in the squad, and the manner in which they dashed after Capt. Bell, showed they realized that they had their work cut out for them, if Penn is to be represented by a fast team this fall. They quickly separated into squads, some throwing the pigskin, others falling on the ball, a few began to punt, while the others took turns catching the punts.

The Penn perspiring aspirants will train on Frazier's estate for the next two weeks. Then they will be back to Franklin Field, all set for the annual battles between the varsity and scrubs. All practices will be used to prepare the fortunate men for the first game of the year with Pennsylvania Military College at Franklin Field, Saturday, October 4.

Those who were on hand today included Hopper, Heine Miller and Akahoski, a Jap, ends; Joe Silverstein, Carl Thomas, Alex and Lud Wray, Bill Graves, Bloddy Worthington, Herb Dier, Johnny Titus, Dick Supple, Sam Bradley, Ertrevaag and Lou Little, line-men; Ray Miller, Sam Ellis, Norman Gotwals, Danny McNichol, Hobey Light, Bert Bell, Leonard Brunner and Reds Henzieman, backfield men.

Head Coach Folsell was expected to arrive sometime today to take charge of the squad. Until he checks in Lawson Robertson, the track coach, will have informal charge. Robertson will look after the conditioning of the men this season. Other players who will arrive this week are Herman Harry, Joe Straus, Miffin and Roger Armstrong and Ben Derr.

Hagen Defeats Brady New York, Sept. 8.—As if to demonstrate that his victory over Miss Brady, in the play-off of the tie for the national open title at Hraz Burn, last June was not in the nature of a fluke, Walter Hagen, of Detroit, professional, met and defeated his Massachusetts rival today and 1 to play in a thirty-six hole match at the 18-hole Hagen captured the $500 purse offered by the entertaining organization.

Optimism Long Since Gone From Customers at Home of Downtrodden and Pathetic Mackmen

FAITH IN ATLANTA

By EDWIN J. POLLOCK

FOR the sake of the prestige of Philadelphia, let it be sincerely hoped that there are some big league ball players on the Atlanta Club. When the home fans boo and jeer and hoot their own players, time for new faces is long overdue.

Shibe Park customers have been patient. They have waited through five long years for the light that failed to shine. Ever have they been hopeful, optimistic and lenient, but Philadelphia is not made up of 2,000,000 Jobs. There's an end to every road.

No news in the fact that the A's have an off day today. They're 'way, 'way off every day.

Mack said "fine" and Dugan quit. Dugan came back and Mack said "fine." It's all in the way you say it.

Atlanta Plays Tomorrow THE Atlanta club will exhibit at Shibe Park tomorrow against Mr. Jennings's Tigers. There should be a different spirit at the stadium then, for the boys from the South are used to picked the stars of the minor leagues when he got the option on the Atlanta players. He gets five good pitchers in Thornton, Roberts, Sheehan, Suggs and Boone and several promising infielders and outfielders. Galloway, the shortstop, is said to be a marvel.

Mack denies that he is attempting to buy the 1918 pennant in purchasing the Atlanta players.

Hope is expressed that the Atlanta boys live up to their reputations and not to their names. There've been enough Crackers on the A's this season.

"Looks to me," said the guy with the brown derby, "as if Crackers were going to take the places of a lot of crumbs."

Buck Freeman Speaks BUCK FREEMAN, whose home-run record of twenty-five in one season, was equaled by Babe Ruth Friday, has written a letter to the Boston slugger offering congratulations. Freeman is an umpire in the American Association.

Ruth was treated ruthlessly by Mack moundmen Saturday. He got only one hit, an infield single, during the entire entertainment.

Charles High apparently is no relation to High Fly. He dropped Hooper's easy lift and the muff resulted in Kinney's defeat.

Every time Ruth hits a homer, he's a hero, and every time he fans he's a bum. 'Twas ever thus.

CIRCUIT ON AT SYRACUSE

Five Events on Program at New York State Fair Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 8.—The Grand Circuit races open here today in connection with the New York State Fair, five events being carded for the day. These include the Matron stake for three-year-old trotters with a purse of $6825; the Chamber of Commerce stake for 2:06 pacers, with a purse of $2000; the 2:00 and 2:16 trot for purses of $1000 each, and a 2:12 trot for amateur drivers, with a silver loving cup as the prize.

BEN BOYNTON RETURNS

Former All-American Quarterback Starts Practice at Williams Williamstown, Mass., Sept. 8.—Benny Boynton has arrived here ready to resume his course at Williams, and, incidentally, to hold down his old place with the Purple eleven. He was all-American quarterback two years ago. Boynton is fit as a fiddle. Practice starts today. Accompanying Boynton is his younger brother Charlie, who enters the freshman class and who ought to be a big help to future Williams eleven.

Bacharach Giants and Hilldale Team Meet Today for Colored Baseball Championship

HAVE PLAYED EIGHT GAMES

The game between the Hilldale team and the Bacharach Giants, of Atlantic City, will be played at Shibe Park this afternoon. It is a rare tribute to the contesting teams that it is the first time since Shibe Park was opened in 1909 that colored teams will play on its diamond.

Hilldale and the Bacharachs have met eight times this season, each team winning four games, so the battle today will decide the colored baseball supremacy of the country.

Hilldale recently has returned to Philadelphia after a successful tour to the middle west, where it beat every body it met. It has won the reputation of being one of the greatest colored teams ever organized.

On its own grounds in Darby it has played to large crowds of white and colored fans every Saturday.

The Bacharachs will bring a large delegation of supporters from Atlantic City.

The two teams not only play fast baseball, but also afford boundless comedy by reason of their grotesque coaching.

EATON BIKE CHAMPION

Defeats Frank Kramer in Deciding Race at Newark Track Newark, Sept. 8.—Raymond Eaton, a Newark boy, won the bicycle championship of America at the Velodrome in Newark before 16,000 fans yesterday by eliminating Frank L. Kramer in a semifinal heat of the championship and finishing second to Eddie Madden in the final heat of the two-mile titular affair. Alf Goulet took third place and Harry Kaiser was fourth.

Eaton is but a youngster, being twenty-four years only. He has been riding about five years, but his first season he has been at all prominent, and his race has been nothing short of sensational.

Poinsette Golf Winner

New York, Sept. 8.—Allan P. Poinsette, the Manhattan borough vice limits champion, won the Brooklyn borough title yesterday when he defeated Arthur Weaver, of the same club, over the Forest Park course in Brooklyn by 1 up on the nineteenth hole. Both played a remarkable round of golf, they turned in a card of 77 for eighteen holes.

Mrs. Weaver and Mahan Win

Mrs. S. Fullerton Weaver and Lyle E. Mahan, of the West Side Tennis Club, won the mixed doubles championship of Long Island yesterday afternoon at the West Side Club, defeating Miss Marie Wagner and Albert O'Quinn.

Football Team Filling Schedule

Under the new management of the Drake Club, of Pitman, N. J., the old Drake football team has been reorganized. Frank Kelly, former star center of Lafayette College, will coach the team. The management is now preparing a schedule, which includes Vincoona of Philadelphia, and would be glad to hear from any first-class teams desiring games away from home. E. R. Newkirk, Drake Football Association, Pitman, N. J.
