

LANSING SEEKING ADDED PRESTIGE

Secretary of State Will Ask Congress for Funds to Rebuild Department

MADE POOR SHOW IN PARIS

By CLINTON W. GILBERT... Lansing is going to ask Congress soon for a considerable sum to enlarge the State Department.

State Department Inadequate

The inadequacy of the State Department is obvious. It has been during the present administration the most maltreated department in Washington.

House's Organization

And perhaps some of the ludicrous errors of Paris might have been avoided. The House organization there was a joke.

Lansing Never Had a Chance

The fault is not Mr. Lansing's. He might have been the greatest secretary of state in history; he might have been the worst.

BABIES PLAY DICE IN N. Y.

Magistrate is Indignant at Prevalence of "African Golf" New York, Sept. 8.—"Babies now, instead of being given rattles and teaching rings, are given dice to play with."

MINERS' "ARMY" RETURNS

Footnote Strikers March Back to Work in West Virginia Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 8.—(By A. P.)—Peace and quiet again reigned throughout the coal district in this section of the state.

A Man's Watch

Men are pardonably proud of their watches—as to appearance as well as accuracy. For the ultra-particular man: an adjusted fully jeweled movement, in an octagonal case of green gold—$130.

Rooms at Adelphia

Visiting Commandery is willing to release a few rooms for the Triennial, Sept. 8, 9, 10 and 11. For further information call Spruce 358—Old Colony Club
