

TWO DAYS REMAIN FOR REGISTRATION

Law Orders Accommodation of Voters Tomorrow and Thursday at City Hall

NEED NOT EXPLAIN DELAY

If you haven't registered for the primary election next Tuesday, get on the rolls tomorrow or Thursday.

Registration commissioners will sit at City Hall to add to the voting lists any person who failed to register on the three registration days already passed.

No "valid excuse" is necessary. There is no red tape attached to the proceedings.

The new registration law obviates the necessity of any "swearing" that you were ill on registration days or out of the city.

It is feared that about one-sixteenth of the voting strength of Philadelphia has not yet registered.

The Moore campaign committee has issued this statement covering the latest registration.

"Notice is given to the unregistered citizens of Philadelphia that the board of registration commissioners will sit in Room 630, City Hall, tomorrow, Wednesday, September 10, and Thursday, September 11, to afford opportunity to all citizens to register who have failed to do so on any of the three registration days.

New Law Accommodates "Heretofore, if a registrant failed to register on any of the three days designated he was compelled to swear that he was ill or out of the city. Under the new law he is called upon to make no such sworn declaration, and it is of no concern as to whether he was in or out of the city on the three registration days.

"The new law is designed to accommodate rather than to penalize our citizens. Representatives of the Moore Republican campaign committee will be present to render assistance.

"The board of registration commissioners has arranged for ample accommodation so that citizens will be able to register quickly and go about their business. It is hoped that all voters who have not registered will do so either Wednesday or Thursday, September 10 or 11. This will be their last opportunity. The registration commissioners will sit between the hours of 9 a. m. and 12 noon, and 1 p. m. and 4 p. m.

Enroll as Republican "Attention is called to the importance of enrolling as a Republican at the time of registration. If a voter enrolls as a nonpartisan, he will not be permitted to vote the party ticket at the primaries. A nonpartisan may vote only for the candidates for the office of judge, and there is no contest over judicial offices in this election.

"By enrolling as a Republican a voter is privileged to cast his ballot not only for the judicial candidates, but also for the candidates for the nomination for Mayor, councilmen and other important offices.

"A voter who registers as a nonpartisan in this campaign is disfranchised in respect to the most important offices. It is vital that every possible voter shall be qualified to voice his approval of the Vane-Smith brand of politics, which can be done by voting for J. Hampton Moore for the Republican majority nomination."

VARE "AT HOME" IN BROAD ST. HOUSE; DOOR BELL MISSING

"You See, This Is a Knocking House," Senator's Wife Explains. "But the Knockers Are on the Outside," She Adds

The Vares were "at home" last night at 2000 North Broad street. This is Senator Vane's alleged "town house," from which he registered as a voter.

His right to register there was disputed today before the Registration Commission.

Mrs. Edwin H. Vane, accompanied by a young woman friend, whose identity she declined to reveal, reached "home" shortly before 8 o'clock after a strenuous day at golf at the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club.

Senator Vane owns "home" several hours later.

There are at least eight reasons, as Mrs. Vane explained, why 2000 North Broad at this time of year doesn't show the signs of hospitality that might be expected of the home of a political leader during a strenuous campaign.

Mr. Vane Just "Drops In" In the first place, Mrs. Vane spends a large part of the day playing golf on one of the country clubs. Mr. Vane just "drops in" for the night's sleep between busy days. The six other reasons are the Vane children who are on vacation and find no sufficient excuse for coming to a town house in hot weather when the home at Ambler offers more pleasant opportunities.

Early in the evening the raised second floor windows were the only signs that the South Broad street house was being occupied. The first floor still had the shutters tightly closed.

A careful search of the front porch showed there was no doornell, and a vigorous knock on the door reverberated through the house, but brought no response.

But the lack of hospitality is only in appearance, as Mrs. Vane explained. "No, there is no doornell," explained Mrs. Vane, who returned a few minutes later.

"This is a knocking house," added the senator's wife, with a cheerful smile, but the knockers are on the outside.

"We have had this home for three years. That can be verified by the record at City Hall. And we have been living in it during the winter.

Ambler House Open All Year "The house at Ambler is open all year because of the conservatory, and we go there from time to time during the winter and live there from early spring to fall."

"We don't usually come in to this house so early as this year."

From the outside the house appears to be unoccupied, but Mrs. Vane assures those interested that it is comfortably furnished and her "friend" confidentially says that her "friend" said, "Our rugs are not here."

"They are still out at Ambler. We don't leave them here during the summer when the house is unoccupied."

For further details Mrs. Vane refers inquiries to "the senator." Just at present she is much more concerned about the tournament at Whitmarsh than the technicalities that must be observed to establish a legal residence.

And then Mrs. Vane fitted a key to the front door and, with her friend, went inside.

VARE FORCES 'CORNER' HALL Germantown Meeting Place Held Up by Contractor Combine. Says Porter

How the Vane organization has "swayed up" the Town Hall, in Germantown, for political meetings during the primary campaign, was explained today by George D. Porter, former director of public safety, who is supporting Congressman Moore.

"We tried to get Town Hall at Germantown avenue and Haines street," explained Mr. Porter. "We found that the hall had been engaged for the entire week by the contractor organization. The Patterson people intended to use it for one night, but put up the money to keep it out of it during the entire week."

"This proceeding so aroused the free people of Germantown that we were able to secure the Y. M. C. A. for a Moore rally Friday night. The Y. M. C. A. is not ordinarily used for political meetings, but the effort to block us was so flagrant that Bayard Henry was able to get the use of the building. The Y. M. C. A. is exceptionally well adapted for the purposes of holding our meeting. The incident merely shows to what lengths the Vane forces are going to hamper the Independents in the Twenty-second ward."

Enroll as Republican "Attention is called to the importance of enrolling as a Republican at the time of registration. If a voter enrolls as a nonpartisan, he will not be permitted to vote the party ticket at the primaries. A nonpartisan may vote only for the candidates for the office of judge, and there is no contest over judicial offices in this election.

2 MORE WARRANTS IN REGISTRY FRAUD

Vare Workers in Wilson's Ward to Be Arrested—Action Is Taken Against Policemen

LIEUT. IS UNDER CHARGES

Independents moved again today to check alleged election irregularities and police interference in politics. Action was taken against two Vane division workers and two police officials.

The division workers for whom warrants were obtained were Harry Logan and Frank Farrell, registrar and deputy poll tax collector, respectively, in the twelfth division of the Forty-eighth ward. Director Wilson is Vane leader of that ward.

Farrell and Logan are accused of fraudulently registering persons not entitled to registration and of issuing tax receipts not paid for by the recipients.

The warrants were issued by Magistrate Roshane on affidavits obtained by the committee of seven.

The police officials against whom action was taken were Lieutenant Frank Huster, in charge of the Frankford district, and Sergeant Harry Maguire, of the Twentieth and Federal streets station.

In Lieutenant Huster's case a petition has been prepared asking the Board of Registration Commissioners to strike the lieutenant's name from the registration list of the first division, Twenty-third ward.

On Saturday, it is charged, Huster registered, giving his residence as 1948 Church street. Three hours later he returned to the polling place and had his residence changed to 1942 Bockshire street, explaining he had just moved.

Lieutenant Huster is accused by David T. Hart, Republican Alliance leader, of "trying to introduce Vane methods in Frankford." An investigation of the lieutenant's alleged political activity is under way.

Sergeant Maguire is charged by John I. Dougherty, 1238 South Spangler street, with having put the question of releasing two prisoners up to the Vane committee of the twentieth division. Thirty-sixth ward. Mr. Dougherty said he had gone to the police station with a copy of the charge for the release of the two men. The sergeant, Dougherty alleges, said he would "let them out for the Vane committee, but for no one else."

Dougherty made his charge in an affidavit obtained by the committee of seven.

Italians Favor Moore Form Committee to Boost Candidacy of Congressman

Sentiment of Italians throughout the city has been so pronounced in favor of the candidacy of Congressman Moore that it has crystallized into the formation of a committee which will take charge of carrying on the work of the Moore campaign.

The committee has been active for the last few days at the Moore campaign headquarters arranging many meetings in the various wards throughout the city. It is now forming a committee of one hundred Italians native in local politics.

The committee is acting under the leadership of John Di Silvestro, chairman; Americus G. Rosa, manager, and Charles A. Nardello, secretary.

Advertising Failures About 33% of the total number of advertisers in the national field in the past ten years are no longer in evidence.

These are termed "advertising failures." According to Bradstreet two of the chief causes of general business failures are inexperience and insufficient capital.

With failures in advertising nationally the same reasons as a rule hold true. On the other hand, granting that the product is right, it is possible today to count with reasonable assurance on success if the advertising agency is competent and the appropriation adequate.

Publishers with revenues annually in the millions have at stake a ponderable interest in the success of the new advertiser.

LABOR UNION SIDESTEPS

President Says It Will Keep Out of Majority Campaign

The Central Labor Union will keep aloof from the Moore-Patterson campaign for the Republican majority nomination and will endorse neither candidate, according to Edward Keenan, its president.

In a statement made public today Mr. Keenan said he had ruled out of order all endorsements of candidates of political parties, except members of trades unions.

Some comments in the statement follow: "The contest for Mayor going on at the present time is no different from any other. The political leaders are losing much sleep worrying about the welfare of the working man, but they will take a long and peaceful rest after election."

"Reform is a disease that visits Philadelphia at different periods. The Fifth ward is another favorite subject for discussion during political campaigns. The people of Philadelphia only hear of the 'Bloody Fifth' when the leaders of the dominant political party have a scrap, but this ward has had the title of 'Bloody Fifth' for years."

Trainmen's Leaders for Patterson A resolution bearing the signatures of seven members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen's general grievance committee was made public from the Patterson campaign headquarters. It endorses the candidacy of Judge Patterson.

Other Men's Ideas

What price is it best for you to charge?—perhaps A. E. Simmons' experience will help you.

Why are you losing sales?—E. R. Miner may have found the answer for you.

How can you deal more skillfully with men?—possibly C. O. Frisbie has hit upon the secret.

Personal Efficiency?—Charles H. Sabin's experience may point the way to greater progress.

Every day other business men face similar problems to yours. Their answers—their experiences—will save you time, worry, experiment.

It's the job of SYSTEM, the Magazine of Business, to get for you the proven ideas of other men. In September SYSTEM you will find the ideas of Simmons, Miner, Frisbie, Sabin and 127 other successful business men. You simply add their ideas to your own:—

A Cure for Strikes EIGHT thousand men were quitting their jobs every month when General Brice P. Disque was sent to the Northwest to increase spruce production. He found the entire lumber industry infected with the strike fever: virus. But he turned undependable lumberjacks into enthusiastic workers, increased production 2,700%—and absolutely cured the strike fever. September SYSTEM tells of the plan under which, during the armistice period, workers accepted several reductions in pay!

Why Pay Men when They're not Working? WOULD you keep a full force on your payroll during business depression? James C. Boyd, first vice-president of Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., Inc., tells in September SYSTEM why his company willingly sustains big losses during slack seasons. How this policy develops loyalty and better workmanship—how it keeps a smoothly-working organization, is good news to any employer with large labor turnover.

Doesn't Charge Enough? YOU don't charge enough," said other retailers. Your policy would ruin any store." But the M. L. Parker Company increased profits by leaps and bounds. When so many concerns are accused of profiteering these days, it's refreshing to read the successful experience of a firm which bases prices on actual costs. In September SYSTEM A. E. Simmons tells all about this unusual policy.

Stop Losing Sales! WHY are sales lost? ... R. Miner, of the Baird Machine Company, says there are eight reasons. He has worked out a plan that makes them surprisingly apparent. Five years' test has proved his important answer to many important problems of sales, advertising and competition. In September SYSTEM.

Cured a Sick Business OVERTNIGHT C. O. Frisbie became president of a business he knew nothing whatever about. It was "ou its last legs." A pair of blue overalls taught him the cause of the disease and its cure. Then he took to the road with his salesmen and learned how to develop his market. Result? Ask Dun's for the standing of the Cornell Wood Products Company. Read this inspiring experience in September SYSTEM.

Getting the Men to Suggest Ideas BILL or "Jim" often know more about everyday cost-absorbing routine than the man in the front office. Why, then, are so many suggestion systems failures? Success and failure of getting ideas from men are discussed in September SYSTEM with surprising frankness.

How Much Work? How Much Play? THERE is a limit to the amount of good work anyone can do," says Charles H. Sabin, President of The Guaranty Trust Company, in September SYSTEM. The story of his success gives a rare insight into the personal efficiency methods of the man who heads the largest institution of its kind in the world.
