And So They Were Married

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR

ELSIE came in and stood transfixed before the two men. Ruth closed the door and stood with her back against it, waiting for she knew not what. It was a thoroughly dramatic

Into Elsie's eyes had come a look of terror. She was like a bird caught in a net. It was Joe who spoke first, who seemed to have a clear head and the knowledge of what had to be done.

"Shall we all sit down and talk things over?" he suggested evenly. Ruth looked around, hoping that in some way she could escape, and Joe, who seemed to see everything, smiled at her and placed a chair. There was nothing for her to do but drop into it.

Unconsciously perhaps, by taking the lead and making the first remark, Joe had placed Gene Mathews in a difficult osition. After all, Joe was the hus band in the case; Elsie merely pawn, and Gene the other man. brought face to face with the man who has every right to the woman one loves, the lover is always placed on the defensive. Autumn Fashions Are Brightening Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

Delightful Autumn Hats at $4.85

Considering that this is the beginning of the season and that these are good velvet hats, this price is quite unusual.

Brims that turn down, brims that are straight, brims that turn up, and hats that haven't any brims at all, in short all the fashionable shapes of the season are here covered with good velvet.

Most of the hats are black, and all of them are charmingly trimmed. One little hat of medium size, with a mushroom brim, shows a bouquet of flat flowers, another has a perky bit of feather, and some are trimmed with ribbon.

Serge Most Practical of Autumn's Dresses, $15 to $23.50 So many women want a good looking serge dress for Autumn (nothing seems to take its place for useful, all-around wear) and they will be pleased with this fine collection at $23.50 and less.

A pretty model has braid and buttons for trimming and a brings several smart dresses that women will like. There are plenty of navy blues creamy Georgette and lace collar in styles for young women and
