Autumn Frocks Are at Their Best —In Silk and Serge

Most women are much interested in darker clothes just about this time and plans are going ahead for busy days in the Dress Salon.

Serge Frocks

are taking the lead, for they are the practical things that most women want to start the season

The styles are many and varied-most of them the straight, chemise models-in navy blue and some black. Braid, buttons, narrow belts, silk vests and such adorn them. Prices are $15 to $25.

Attractive Silk Frocks

Taffetas and satins are in many charming models, beginning at $16.75 and going up to $57.50, with many stop-offs between these two paces. There is a variety of soft brown and plenty of blue and black.

The Beautiful Hats of Autumn

All the browns of Autumn (and how lovely they are) are to be seen in the newest hats. Altogether, brown seems quite the favorite color. Lovely, silvery taupe, warm golden brown, deep wood brown and glowing red brown-all of them are here in luxurious velvets.

Then, black is more interesting than ever, especially in the very becoming large hats, one of which is sketched.

Lyons and Paon velvets, simple trimmings and clean-cut lines of unusual grace-these mark the newest hats, whether large or small. Prices begin at $9.50.

Two Groups of Fine Winter Coats Bear Special Prices

There are a great many things for a woman's choice at special value—in many cases there is practically no advance over last year's

$22.50 to $39.50

is the first group, and included are velours, silvertones, vicunas, tweeds and poplins. The styles are pleasing and varied, many are plain, others are trimmed with sealene fur, coney or seal plush. $42.50 to $89.50 is the second group, and there are tinseltones, Bolivias, silvertips, silvertones and camel's hair coats. They are made plain or luxuriously trimmed with Australian opossum, skunk opossum, raccoon, nutria or scalene and styles are most interesting.

For Large Women

there are coats in odd and extra sizes, of velour, silvertone and broad-cloth from $35 to $85. Sizes 42 1/2 to 55,
