

THE WEATHER
Washington, Sept. 12.—Fair and cooler tonight; Saturday fair.
TEMPERATURE AT EACH HOUR
8 9 10 11 12 1 2 3 4 5
62 64 64 64 68 71

Evening Public Ledger

NIGHT EXTRA FINANCIAL

VOL. V.—NO. 310 PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1919

PERSHING, MAN AND SOLDIER, WINS CITY'S HEART; WELCOME GREATEST EVER GIVEN INDIVIDUAL HERE

BAY STATE CHIEF WON'T ARBITRATE WITH 'DESERTERS'

No Compromise With Law Possible, Says Governor; Wouldn't Give Jobs Back

SOME ASK FORGIVENESS, COMMISSIONER SAYS

City Quiet Today, With Threat of General Walkout Held Up
By the Associated Press
Boston, Sept. 12.—The government and laws of the commonwealth of Massachusetts cannot be arbitrately.

Urge Governor to Hold Out

At the same time influential persons have urged that the Governor refuse to deal with the strikers at all and in the event of sympathetic strikes by the firemen, electrical workers, carmen, telephone operators and the building trades, advised him to call for federal troops and fight the issue to the bitter end.

HIS RAREST INSTANT—PERSHING HESITANT

The rarest moments in the general's career are those in which he did not instantly know his course of action, but here at Independence Hall, the overwhelming welcome that greeted his appearance made the American leader wait—but only for the faintest fraction of a moment—before he could reply.

VARES UNDERMINE JUDICIAL TICKET

McCaen Sees Plan Afoot to Beat McCullen and Henderson by Bonniwell Deal
CONWAY TO BE MADE 'GOAT'

By GEORGE NOX McCAIN
Political workers who follow their organization bosses in leading strings, and who are permitted to know only just what these bosses choose to divulge to them, have suddenly awakened to the fact that there is a deal on where the judicial ticket is to be determined by the Vare organization.

On Monday last I directed attention that 32,000 Democrats out of the 54,000 who had voted at the state senatorial elections of 1914 and 1916 had failed to register as such on the three registration days this year; that Democrats all over the city were being registered as Republicans, a fact strikingly significant in connection with my information on the Bonniwell deal.

'Pershing Day' Events in Hourly Schedule

9:50 a. m.—Arrival of General Pershing and staff and reception at North Philadelphia Station.
10:10 a. m.—Start of procession through Broad street to Spring Garden, to Parkway, to Broad, to Chestnut street and Independence Hall.
10:40 a. m.—Inspection of Independence Hall and visit to Liberty Bell. The general made short address and planted trees.
11:30 a. m.—Proceeded north on Fifth to Market street to Ninth, where Gimbel Brothers' employes gave General Pershing a present; to Thirteenth and Market streets, where General Pershing presented colors to John Wanamaker Cadet Corps.
11:50 a. m.—Arrival at Union League. General Pershing was guest at reception and spoke from front balcony of club.
12:15 p. m.—General Pershing left by rear door of Broad Street Station.
12:30 p. m.—General Pershing departed for Washington.

GENERAL SALUTES WOUNDED

Smiles as He Gives Cheering Words to Battered Veterans
When General Pershing reached the corner of Broad and Spring Garden street, at 10:16 o'clock, he saw 200 wounded soldiers standing there at attention and stopped to return the salute and give a smile, and a few cheering words to the battered veterans.

WILD ACCLAIM AT BALDWIN'S

Workers and Officials Shout Welcome to Pershing
'We sent you 1840 Pershing locomotives on time.'
'Baldwin's devil dogs barked at all points.'
Two large banners bearing these inscriptions adorned the reviewing stand in front of the Baldwin Locomotive Works, at Broad and Spring Garden streets, today.

CHEERING CROWDS GREET PERSHING AS LEADER PASSES

Thousands Give General Great Ovation as He Speeds by in Automobile

MADE HAPPY WHEN CHIEF OFFERS SUNNY SMILE

Enthusiasm of Multitude Knows No Bounds at Independence Square
General Pershing crossed the Delaware and entered Philadelphia today with cheers of welcoming multitudes ringing all about him.

Disappointed But Happy
Disappointed but happy! That was how the throng felt. So it cheered, while a myriad of American flags were hoisted.

WILSON HELD UP REPORT ON RUSSIA

House Declared President Had Single-Track Mind, Bullitt Tells Senators
SAYS REDS SOUGHT PEACE

By the Associated Press
Washington, Sept. 12.—William C. Bullitt, of Philadelphia, formerly attached to the American peace mission, testified before the Senate foreign relations committee today that Secretary Lansing told him in Paris last May that 'the Senate and the American people know what the treaty meant; it would be defeated.'

'After saying he believed the Senate would defeat the treaty if it realized its meaning, Mr. Lansing expressed the opinion that Senator Knox really understood the treaty, that Mr. Lodge would but that Mr. Lodge's position would become purely political.'

KOLCHAK ARMY CAPTURED

Bolshevik Round Up Force of 45,000 in South Russia
London, Sept. 12.—The remainder of Admiral Kolchak's southern army, in the region of Akhtubinsk and Orsk, has surrendered to the Bolsheviks, it is claimed in a Bolshevik wireless dispatch from Moscow today.

TURKEY HEEDS U. S. DEMAND

LONDON, Sept. 12.—(By A. P.)—Turkey has replied to the message from President Wilson demanding that disarms cease in that country. The reply says all measures will be taken to keep order in Anatolia, according to a Constantinople dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

Pershing, Speaking Here, Gives All Credit to Men

General Pershing made four brief addresses here today—in the Declaration Chamber, in Independence Square, inside the Union League and from the Union League steps.
In the Declaration Chamber
'It fills me with deep emotion to be on this sacred spot. It seems, however, especially fitting at the conclusion of the war, which was fought for the same principles declared by the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Inside Union League
The Mayor of Philadelphia told me that I would not have to make any speeches. So far I have made three in the last hour and a half. I can not say to you in a few words how deeply I appreciate the opportunity.

GOMPERS TELLS BOSTON POLICE TO RETURN

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, made public here this afternoon a telegram sent to Mayor Peters of Boston announcing that he had directed Frank McCarthy, representative of the federation in Boston, to urge the strikers to go back to their posts, just as if the strike order had not been issued at all, and await the outcome of the conference called by President Wilson for October 6 at Washington.

PERSHING KISSES TWO SCHOOLGIRLS

Children Greeted With 'God Bless You' as Hundreds of Others on Parkway Cheer
Flowers for their Hero

God bless you, children; I am so happy.
General Pershing's voice—the voice that issued commands obeyed by millions of fighting men—broke just a little as he kissed two nine-year-old Philadelphia school girls this morning and thanked them for the great bunch of pink Columbia roses they had given him.

GENERAL LIONIZED AT UNION LEAGUE

Enthusiasm reached its highest pitch when General Pershing and party reached the Union League.
Towering office buildings formed a canyon for the cheering. Flowers and confetti were made part of a veritable storm of unheeded patriotism.

'I THANK YOU, PHILADELPHIA'

General Pershing Touched by Greeting Tendered to Him
'It is wonderful!
This was the reply of General Pershing today when he was asked what he thought of Philadelphia and its welcome. His automobile had halted in front of one of the stands along the Parkway.

THROUNGS CHEER, TOSS FLOWERS AT COMMANDER

General's Smile Beams in Response to Plaudits of Wildly Enthusiastic Crowd

WEARS NO DECORATIONS OR SERVICE STRIPES

Accepts Gold Medal as City's Token in Declaration Room of Independence Hall

IS GREETED BY GOVERNOR

Addresses Thousands at Liberty's Shrine and Plants Tree in Square
'Unfaded courage and compassion saved each other in the victor's mind.
Alternately proclaim him good and great.
And make the hero and the man complete.'
—Adrian.

LUMBER AND ICE CREAM DEALERS INDICTED

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 12.—Twenty-nine lumber dealers and eight ice cream dealers and manufacturers were charged in indictments returned today by the Montgomery county grand jury with violation of the Valentine anti-trust act in operating in restraint of trade and fixing prices.

PERSHING OVERWHELMED WITH RECEPTION AS HE SPEAKS TO DENSE THROUNGS

Overwhelmed with the reception and the dense throngs, General Pershing spoke in the assembly room. His speech was brief and overflowed with gratitude.
Many of the wives of members and those of the accompanying officers did not reach the room in time to hear the general speak and were greatly disappointed.

TROOPERS ARE PICTURESQUE

Captain George Thayer, bearded and bronzed, rode in advance of the platoon, and to the right of him were in the service.
The general heard them he showed no sign of it and continued his remarks, expressing appreciation of the great reception.