RECORD ENTRY FOR TITLE TRACK MEET

Junior Athletes Will Compete in Championships on Franklin Field Today With 338 Entries

MANY STAR SPRINTERS

By TED MEREDITH World's Greatest Middle-Distance Runner EVERY state in the Union has entered men for the two days' meeting of the National A. A. I'. track and field championships. The juniors, which takes place this afternoon, will bring out many of the coming athletes of this country and will be a good guide to determine who will be who in the American Olympic team which will go to Belgium next summer. These men will just be ready by that time and will take the place of the retiring stars. Philadelphia will make most of her wints in today's meet. The Mendowbrook Club has a strong team entered and are after the title. Maxam, the Red and Blue sprinter now wearing the Mendowbrook colors, is out of the a shot at the sprints and in the juniors Besides Maxam the Philadelphia club has many of the young school and colboys on their team and should make a good showing.

Strong in Juniors

The junior events never have drawn as many entries as this year. In the nincteen events 338 men have entered against 246 in the senior events. The aling that any man that wins in the juniors is eligible for the seniors will swell the number of entries on Saturday. but even at that today's meet promises to have the most competitors.
