

PATTERSON GIVES VARE MEN SHOCK

Followers of Machine Leader Astonished by Candidate's Refusal to Speak Downtown

IGNORES SENATOR'S WISH

Judge Patterson's defiance of Senator Vare last night is causing followers of the machine leader to gasp with astonishment. The senator wanted Judge Patterson to go to a meeting in the Fourth ward, following a meeting in Metropolitan Hall, 717 Fairmount avenue.

The answer is plain and direct," said Judge Patterson. "When I am Mayor of Philadelphia I shall secure the best plan obtainable for the work at the lowest price at which it can be secured in free and fair competition."

Judge Patterson asked his audience which aspirant's record showed who would be "the free and untrammelled candidate?" "My opponent," he continued, "has found out that I am a candidate for Mayor. Up to this time he thought Mr. Vare was running. About two months from now, maybe, he will wake up to the fact that I have been nominated, and about the time I have been sworn in he probably will withdraw as a candidate."

ACCUSE POLICE LIEUTENANT

Seventy Committee to Probe Charge Savage Is Vire Leader

A picture of Judge Patterson in the window of the room of Lieutenant Benjamin F. Savage, of the Thirty-ninth street and Lancaster avenue station house, it was announced today, has led the committee of seventy to start an investigation of that officer's alleged political activities.

The new city charter provides severe penalties for political activities on the part of members of the Police Department, explained E. L. D. Roush, secretary of the committee.

Lieutenant Savage is credited by many familiar with political conditions in the ward as being the real Vire leader there. He has been in charge of the station house for two years, while other lieutenants have been transferred frequently. Savage votes in the thirty-second division of the Twenty-fourth ward.

Blackly D. McCaughy, candidate for county commissioner on the Moore ticket and Republican Alliance leader of the ward, said "Savage has been looked upon as the contractor spokesman in the ward."

The committee of seventy is investigating reports that a wagon loaded with Patterson pictures stops daily at the station house.

SANTO DOMINGO PROTESTS TO U. S.

Envoy Says America Promised Military Occupation Would Be Transitory

Washington, Sept. 12—Declaring that the United States promised its military occupancy of Santo Domingo would be "transitory," Dr. Francisco Henriquez y Carvajal, acting president of the West Indies republic at the time American rule was established there, issued a statement yesterday, explaining the efforts being made to return the government of Santo Domingo to native hands.

Individual liberties have been greatly diminished in Santo Domingo by the action of the American military government," he said. "There is no freedom of the press, no right of assembly, and the people cannot take any initiative to modify the situation. Some administrative reforms of great usefulness have been introduced by the military government, but the population desires a change in the political situation and wishes to see the national government again in native hands."

Court Decision Validates 700 Liquor Licenses in Jersey City

Trenton, Sept. 12—The Court of Appeals and Appeals has stayed the action of Justice Swayze in setting aside a liquor license granted to Hugh McLean, and set aside a preliminary injunction of the Court of Chancery under which the Ambassador Hotel of Atlantic City joined in selling liquor.

MOORE MAN CHARGES ATTEMPT AT BRIBERY

Swears Vare Councils Candidate Gave Him $50 Check to Support Patterson

Arthur Sellers, chief deputy in the office of Coroner Knight and a Vare-chick candidate for Council from the Seventh district, is charged with having attempted to bribe an active Moore worker to switch his allegiance to Judge Patterson.

Jacob Biedenthal, a Moore follower in the thirty-ninth division of the Thirty-second ward, makes the charge in an affidavit in which he tells of a check for $50, which he says Sellers paid him "on account" for shifting his support.

Biedenthal lives at 3000 Euclid avenue and is a dresser in his division. According to Biedenthal, Sellers gave him the check in the Patterson headquarters. He also charged that Joseph Fay, assistant director of the Department of Health and Charities, and a candidate for Council, said to him: "If you carry your division, the twenty-ninth division of the Thirty-second ward, or even make a good showing in it, there will be more than $150 in it for you besides a good position in City Hall."

Biedenthal said he took the check from Sellers in the presence of John L. Haines and Eugene McVrath, the investigators.

"The statement that I tried to bribe Biedenthal is a deliberate lie," said Mr. Sellers in his affidavit in which, with the exception that he gave the man a check for $50, and this is how he returns my generosity. He told me he had been discharged from his work and asked me to loan him $50. I told him I would do so if I could be sure of getting it back. He told me he would return the loan as soon as he found work and I promised to help him find a place."

CAMDEN G. O. P. HOPEFUL

Republicans Say Heavy Registration Assures Sweeping Victory at Polls

The Republican county committee of Camden predicts a sweeping victory for the ticket at both the primary and general elections. The registration is the heaviest in years and the increase is attributed to the returning of the soldiers and sailors.

Everything is harmonious in the Republican camp for the primary election. The only nomination fights are for ward offices, such as councilman and freeholders, and the opposition is expected to dwindle before the polls.

John T. Wright, the Democratic candidate for mayor, expects to be elected. His campaign will be based on a platform against the zone law system and an equal division of Republican and Democrats in city control.

Mayor Ellis, the Republican candidate for re-election, will stand on his war record and previous service to the city. He had over 2500 signers on his petition for re-election.

HEFFERNAN FOR MOORE

Doctor Denies Vare Men's Statement He Backs Them

Dr. James J. Heffernan, who filed papers as an independent Republican candidate for Council from the Fourth Senatorial district, has announced his withdrawal from the race. He said he would support the entire Moore ticket and the independent councilman candidates in the Fourth district who have been endorsed by the committee of one hundred.

Early this week it was reported from the Patterson headquarters that Doctor Heffernan had swung over to the Vares and that he would be slated as a Vare candidate for Council. Doctor Heffernan asserted he knew nothing of such an agreement. In anti-Vare circles the move was looked upon as a Vire trick to obtain Vare support in the Fourth district.

TAILORS WIN $50 WAGE

3000 Return to N. Y. Shops After Winning Their Strike

New York, Sept. 12—Three thousand striking ladies' tailors, employed in fashionable Fifth avenue shops, returned to work yesterday after the employers had granted their demands for a forty-four hour week and a minimum wage of $50, according to Henry Hillman, the union secretary. The remaining 3000 strikers are expected to win their demands before the end of this week, he said.

SPROUL ATTACKS MCCLURE "RING"

Indorses Republican League Candidates in Delaware County

Governor Sproull came out unreservedly in a statement today indorsing the candidates of the Republican League for city and county offices in Delaware county and opposing the candidates backed by "Young" John J. McClure, the head of the so-called McClure ring.

The fight between the league in the city of Chester and in Delaware county will reach a climax next Tuesday in the primary election. "The Governor was specific and definite in his denunciation of the McClure influence in Delaware county and Chester city politics."

"Better to Have No Party, He Says" Governor Sproull said he had not desired to take an active part in county political affairs, but that he felt he was looking in date did he not support the league's candidates. While withholding personal criticism of the present officials or of the candidates whom Mr. McClure has selected, the Governor said it would be better to have no party than "to permit its organization and prestige to be used solely for personal advantage and private gain."

"For years," said the Governor, "there has been much evidence of a sinister and degrading influence in our local politics." He noted that it would be inadvisable to continue this influence. "There must be nothing corrupt or mean-spirited about our people of justice," summarized the Governor.

Deals With Third Terms Dealing with the third term candidates on the McClure ticket, the Governor said: "We should not continue men for many terms in public places simply to serve an outside interest which would exploit the taxpayers' funds for private enterprise."

The Governor said even the school boards were not safe from political business hunters. Nearly a million dollars should be expended on Chester's schools in the next few years, said the Governor.

"In the city of Chester, Mayor McDowell should be re-nominated and re-elected. He is being opposed not because he has not been a good official, faithful to every trust and zealous in every duty through the most trying times, but because he has refused to become the servant and do the bidding

Patterson Relies on Luck and Aid of Ward Leaders

Judge Patterson is superstitious. He says so himself. At a Thirtieth ward rally last night at 717 Fairmount avenue Judge Patterson was introduced to the daughters of Max Mayer, political leader of the ward.

"I have a four-leaf clover in one pocket and a rabbit's foot in the other," the judge remarked. "Yes, and you have our good wishes," said one of the Misses Mayer.

"That's appreciated," replied Judge Patterson, "but the thing that will count most on election day will be your father's support."

Of those who would control the city or their own selfish ends," the Governor said. "It would be inadvisable to continue this influence. There must be nothing corrupt or mean-spirited about our people of justice," summarized the Governor.

Magistrate Campbell Denies Charges "Willful and deliberate perjury" is the way William F. Campbell, independent Republican candidate for coroner, characterizes the sworn statement of Joseph D. Davis, a delinquent tax collector, of 2504 East Allegheny avenue, that Campbell got Davis a job as tax receiver at Post No. 5, and for that favor collected between $700 and $1000 of his yearly salary.
