JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Talks of Polo Games at Country Club.

She Chats About Society Women's

Doings Yesterday

Doings Yesterday

Nancy Wynne Talks of Polo Games at Country Club.

Itam Houston, Mrs. George MacMunn.

Wrs. William Brinton, Mrs. Reland
Watson, Mrs. Harry Matlack, Mrs.

Joseph Heilig, of Atlantic City; Mrs.

Ethel Young, Mrs. Bennett Mial and Mrs. Sumner Marley.

Doings Yesterday

Louis C. Madeira, 3d, of Chestnut

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fitler and

Mr. and Mrs. G. Dawson Coleman, served as captain with the A. E. F.

Mr. Samuel Bispham Bowen, of Germantown, returned from Bass Rocks, ments at the Rittenhouse this month.

of Mrs. John E. Pearce, of Galveston.

ALONG THE MAIN LINE

several years ago.

ARE you going out to the pole to-day? I guess about every one and his wife is, don't you think so? The Highland Farm, Bryn Mawr, who re-turned from Maryland on Wednesday, will leave today to spend the week-end Country Club is such a beautful spot with Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Gerry. for such things. And the matches are of New York, and will a to last for two weeks, you know. These turity races at Belmont. of New York, and will attend the Fu are the championship tournaments of the United States. All the boxes have been taken and it sounds like a pretty gay affair to me.

Mr. Percy Madeira, of Brookwood, Ogontz, and his sons, Mr. Percy C. Madeira, Jr., of Jenkintown, and Mr.

gay affair to me. Bigger than the horse show because it lasts so long. And it's such a Hill, are on a hunting trip in Canada. beautiful game to watch, don't you Mr. Madeira hunted big game in Africa think? Some of the box holders in-clude Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge, John Converse, Rodman Wanamaker, John Wanamaker, Jr., Clement Newbold, George W. Childs Drexel, Tom McKean, Victor Mather, and well I just can't begin to tell you all. Suffice it to say that every box has been taken and every parking place also.

The games will be held every after noon, and you knew where the Phila-delphia Country Club is, out in Bala, just off the Park.

DID you hear what a time the Adolph Rosengartens had this summer? They were going West, you know, to a ranch in Montana. They had sent today from Foxcroft, we their trunks ahead and were to leave been spending a week, on a certain day at noon, or 2 o'clock, sometime around then, when at 9 that The doctor came, pronounced it an acute case of appendicitis and by 3 she was concented upon.

When they have been bornessed that they have been bornessed that they have been bornessed to the bornessed that they have been bornessed that they have been bornessed that they have been bornessed to the bornessed that they have been bornessed that they have been bornessed to the bornessed that they been bornessed to the bornessed to the bornessed that they been bornessed to the bornessed that they been bornessed to the bornessed to the bornessed that they been bornessed to the bornessed that they be the bornessed that they been bornessed to the bornessed that they be the bornessed that the bornessed that they be the bornessed that they be the bornessed the bornessed that they be the bornessed that the bornessed that the bornessed that they be the bornessed that they be the born was operated upon. Of course, it put the trip on the summer. blink, for her at any rate, and, of course, Mrs. Rosengarten would not leave her, so finally Mr. Rosengarten, come time with her son-ib-law and and the last I heard was that Emily is week. quite well again.

Aides look well? I don't see how on the returned to their town house, where pressed and have such white spats, because I know some of them only got word a day before, and most of the earth they managed to look so well suits, if not all, were away in camphor, and so were naturally mussed: but, country place at Wyncote, later going bless your heart, they looked as if they to their cottage at Ventner, Mr. Rogers had just come from the hands of the tailor every one of them. Being a Philadelphian and having been brought up on the First City Troop and having House, Abington; his brother in law, had a heartacle when the government disbanded them during the war, when I saw those uniforms yesterday I pretty Jordon, of Jenkintown and of 922 Clin-531 Brinton

she, used to climb up on either side of the funny marble-topped bureau to watch their father dress in his City

Troop uniform.

There would be a hug and kins for each small daughter before he left the Bryn May. Mr. Deeter has just reroom, and then they would rush to the Blyn Mawr. Mr. Deeter has just re-The street of the street of th members of the troop for their annual spending the summer at the Traymore, dinner on November 17 or for WashAtlantic City, will return to her apartStamford, Conn., and is occupying her doubten ington's Birthday, when the troop always went to church as a body.

Well, believe Nancy, when she saw the troop yesterday she just nimost screamed her fool head off. And wasn't it great when General Hotel, after spending the summer at Pershing came down off the stand in Cape May. Independence Hall and went over to the Emergency Aid Aides and handed Charlotte Cherry his gloves. She was turned from a trip to New York, where the most astonished person I ever saw. she was the guest at the Biltmore Hotel for all the important officers of the organizations were lined up where he Tex. During her stay in New York turned to her home in Omahu, Neb. came down and every one expected them to be the ones he would specially notice; but not a bit of it, he walked right the Biltmore to the representatives of the Biltmore to the representative and the Biltmore to th but not a bit of it, he walked right the British army mission, whose headover to the E. A. A.'s and handed his quarters are in New York. Mrs. Crow-gloyes to Charlotte, and I never heard hurst and family spent the summer at such a cheer as rang out.

The E. A.'s and the E. A. A 's must Atlantic City. certainly have been tired out walking around in those hot uniforms. they got up to Broad Street Station, if you please, the general, instead of getting right on the train, suddenly offered his arm to Mrs. MacLeod and walked with her the whole length of the E. A. 's who were drawn up there on the platform and back again. Then he got on the train, and the excitement of two hours' time about died down at NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. Elliston Perot, of 425 Generty, Miss Laura Weimer, Mrs. illness. West School House lane, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Morris Perot, to Mr. Edwin Agnew Fiero, son of Mrs. F. E. Fiero, Newtown Square,

Mr. Fiero has recently returned from overseas. He is a recipient of the Croix de Guerre. Miss Perot is a sister of Mrs. Warren Walker and Mrs. Meredith R. Gardiner.

Miss Margaret A. Dallett, daughter of Mrs. Morris Dallett, of 256 South Twenty-first street, will make her debut at a dance to be given by her mother on January 1 at the Ritz-Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Coxe, of Willisbrooke Farm, Malvern, will give a dinner dance on Saturday evening, September 27, in honor of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eckley B. Coxe, 3d.

Mrs. B. Dobson Altemus will entertain at a dinner dance in honor of her niece, Miss Mary Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Norris, of Falls of Schuylkill, on Friday, November 14. Miss Norris is among this season's de-

Colonel and Mrs. Harry B. Salter, of 140 West State street, Trenton, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Mae Salter, to Lieutenant Walter E. Soltmann, the is now stationed at Camp Dix, military training at the First

Helen Yorke McCausland, Mrs. Ed-ward Callahan, Mrs. Richard Irvin, Mrs. Charles Breish, Mrs. Ralph Moss, Mrs. Alexander Hartman, Mrs. Wil-

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wright have leased the Langdon Williams house in St. Davids for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wetzel have refrom a motor trip to the Thou sand Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Jiggins, of St. Davids, are at Ventner for the month of September. Miss Eleanor Long, of Wayne, left on Monday to visit relatives in Geneva, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Stillwell and their daughter, who spent the sum-mer at Spring Lake, will occupy their home at St. Davids next week,

ALONG THE READING

Mr. and Mrs. William W. Fitter and their family, who spent the summer at York Harbor, will spend the autumn at Gulphmont, their place in Rosemont, before opening their winter house at 1600 Walnut street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Louis Borie, who have been staying at the Virginia Hot Springs, have returned to Wakefield, their home at Rydal.

ALONG THE READING

Mrs. D. L. Miller, of Louisville, Ky., is visiting Mrs. Daniel B. Wentz, at the Orchard, her country home on Washington lane, in the Chelten Hills, Wyncote, where Mrs. Wentz, each of the daughter, Miss Dorothy Wentz, returned after spending the entities season at Eaglesmere. Mr. Wentz and his son, Mr. Daniel B. Wentz, Jr., after leaving Eaglesmere, went on a camping trip in the Canadian woods. Mr. and Mrs. H. Belin Voorhees have Appleford, Villanova, will return Narragansett Pier, R. L. where they have today from Foxcroft, where they have spent the summer.

GERMANTOWN Mrs. George Calvert Carter and her Mr. and Mrs. William Carrington, of daughters, Miss Virginia Carter and 522 East Johnson street, have returned Bryn Mawr from Northeast Harour, where they have been spending the summer.

Miss Mary F. Laurop, Col., has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Shick, of 6625 McCallum street.

leave her, so many Mr. Rossiant with her son-in-law and after and Binxy went out West, and after daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Eckley B. The marriage of Miss Grace L. Eisenicht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coxe, 3d, at their place in Radnor. Emily was well or rather able to be moved, she and her mother, who by the way, was Misa Christina Penrose, went moved, she and her mother, who by the way, was Miss Christine Penrose, went up to one of the Maine harbors. But they certainly had a hard time of it. You may imagine with all their clothes sent to Montana, how hard it was to get others or to get those back. Altogether it must have been very hectic to say the least. They all got home last Saturday from the north and west both 528 East Mayland street.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Eisenlohr and DID you ever see anything like the crowds and excitement yesterday? Really, I should think it would be awfully hard to come down to earth at all after such a reception as "the man of the hour" received yesterday and lad recompanied by their daughter, Miss Elsen a Sir, and Mrs. Herman Eisenhohr and their daughter, Miss Anna Eisenhohr of 124 West Logan street, have just returned from a six months' trip to California. On August 30, another daughter, Mrs. Margaret Eisenhohr Stehle, became the bride of Mr. Albert of the hour" received yesterday and Mrs. I. Hazleton Mirkil, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Elsen hohr, of 124 West Logan street, have just returned from a six months' trip to California. On August 30, another daughter, Mrs. Margaret Eisenhohr and their daughter, Mrs. Margaret Eisenhohr and their daughter, Mrs. Leavence Pancoast awfully hard to come down to the man all after such a reception as "the man of the hour" received yesterday and had received in New York.

Wasn't it exciting? And didn't the Emergency Aid and they will remain for several weeks. City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nixon and their children, Mr. Robert Nixon, Jr., and Miss Ruth Nixon, of 126 West ount Airy avenue, motored today to the spring and early summer at their country place at Wyncote, later going Mr. and Mrs. J. Augustus Boers, of the Cresheim Valley apartments, have returned from a trip to Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Haines, of 122 Vest Mount Airy avenue, have re-grand from a week's stay at Buck

Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Graham, of 531 Brinton street, have returned from a month's stay at Manheim, Pa. Mrs. I saw those uniforms yesterday I pretty nearly blew right up.

I remember one of the dearest old ladies in the world telling me that when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her little girl she and her when she was a little girl she and her little girl she g most two years' service in France late in August. He was in the transporta-tion corps and has not yet been disn corps and has not yet been dis

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. M. Marks, of Reading, to her apartments at the Rittenhouse wildwood, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Verner Simp Mrs. Ernest H. Crowhurst has reformin and the West.

Mrs. Joseph Brooks Williams will in town.

this afternoon at her home in Over-brook in honor of her daughter, Mrs. O'Brien, or prook in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Cratillated on the birth of a daughter, Philip J. Breish, Jr. Mrs. Breish will be remembered as Miss Mildred War-brook in honor of her daughter, Mrs. O'Brien will be remembered as Miss Mildred War-brook in Mrs. O'Brien will be remembered as Miss Peggy Guinell.

be remembered as Miss Mildred Warfield. Among the guests will be Miss Carolyn Quarles, of Springfield, Ill.:
Miss Marie MacAleer, Miss Helen Reilly, Miss Dorothy Kirchner, Miss
Elsie Patterson, Miss Miriam Vance,
Miss Marion Wilson, Miss Catherine Kelly, Miss Anne Long, Miss Helen Erb, Miss Marion Meyers, Miss Adele
Cohert, Wiss Laure Weiner Mes

First-class Private George W. Sommer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Sommer, of 2106 West Ontario street, has returned from Coblenz, having been overseas for twenty months serving with the Fifteenth Ambulance Company. Mr. and Mrs. Sommer, Mr. early part of Francis Sommer and Miss Katharine Altoona, Pa.

BRIDE OF THIS WEEK

MRS. WILLIAM B. SWARTLEY Whose marriage took place on Wednesday. Mrs. Swartley was Miss Marion Naylor, daughter of Mrs. John S. Naylor, of Willow Grove avenue, Chestnut Hill

late summer there.

The Rev. Charles S. Mervine and Mrs. Mervine, of Green lane, returned recently from the Pocono mountains. Mrs. Charles Lamon and her family have returned to their home on Silverwood street, after staying through the summer in eastern New York.

WISSAHICKON

Miss Mary Kennedy, of Rochelle ave-me, returned during the week from several weeks' stay in Ocean City.

friends in Wissahickon. 101 Rochelle avenue, will remain at Ocean City until the end of September.

Mrs. William McNeely has returned to her apartments at the Rittenhouse this month.

Mrs. William McNeely has returned to her apartments at the Rittenhouse Mrs. Robert T. Campbell has opened the rown house, 1031 South Fifty-first street, and later will spend some time in Nova system. The rown house is the rown house, 1031 South Fifty-first and later will spend some time in Nova system. The rown house is the rown house in the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house is the rown house. The rown house is the rown h

FALLS OF SCHUYLKILL

Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Verner Simps an acceptance to their home after an extensive motor trip through California and the West.

The wedding of Miss Ella R. Garger of Mr. and Mrs. William Irvin Brookle and the West.

Miss Marie Purcell at her home, 216
South Thirty-seventh street, has returned to her home in Omaha, Neb.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wildwood, N. J.

Mr. Joseph A. Comber is spending a week at Wild ringfield, III.;

Miss Holds

Miss Alloss

M

STRAWBERRY MANSION

Freda Silverman, to Mr. Samuel Gress, of 2340 North Twenty-ninth street.

NORRISTOWN

The marriage of Miss Harriette A.
Haws, of 17 West Elm street, and Mr.
William E. Harris, of 629 Astor street, was solemnized on Wednesday after poon, September 10, at 3 o'clock in the

Mrs. Frank Worthington, of 1201 Powell street; Mrs. Ida Hanaman and Miss Margaret Hanaman, of Phila-delphia, will spend the next two weeks in Atlanta (12) Mr. and Mrs. Erwin M. Simpson are occupying their new home at 327 Green delphia, will spend the next two weeks in Atlantic City. They will stop at the Haddon Hall.

The Rev. William B. Rearick, of 433 Pechin street, is spending the early part of the month in Tyrone and Aitoona, Pa.

Mr. Horace Miller, son of Prof. Joseph Miller, has arrived from overseas and is at Camp Mills awaiting his discharge. Mr. Miller was with the army of occupation in tiermany and returned on the same vessel as General

MISS AGNES SPENCER TO BE WED TODAY

Wedding Will Be Solemnized This Afternoon in St. Mark's Episcopal Church

One of the most fashionable of the early fall weddings will take place this aftermoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Agnes Martha Spencer, daughter of Mrs. Graham Spencer, will become the bride of Mr. John Lewis Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery. of Bryn Mawr, in St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal Church, Locust street above Sixteenth street.

The bride, who will be given in marringe by her uncle, Dr. A. Donaldson Smith, will be attended by her sister. Miss Anne Howard Spencer, as maid of To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger; There will be no bridesmaids. Mr. Montgomery will have his States, basque and a long train falling from their birth to royal hands. will wear her mother's veil also and the comparatively few people. orange blossoms which were worn with the dress and veil on that occasion. Her bouquet will be un old-fashioned one in a lace paper holder. Miss Anne Spencer's frock is of

Mark's, will perform the ceromony. intimate friends will follow the cere-

PERKINS-CLEAVELAND

spent the summer in Wildwood, returned early in the week to their home on West Eric avenue.

Miss E. Jane Ogden, daughter of Mrs. Clara S. Ogden, of 2208 Hunting Park avenue, left yesterday to spend the week-end in Tuckahoe, N. J. Mrs. Ogden and Miss Ogden recently returned from several weeks' stay in Ocean City.

MANAYUNK

Mr. John Flanagan and his son, Mr Arthur Flanagan, of Main and Grappe streets, returned early in the week from Asbury Park, having spent the late summer there.

2514 South Nineteenth street, bave left for an extended visit to the Delaware Water Gap, Wrs. Clay will to the Charles Penwagan, New Haven, Conn., when Miss Markand Mrs. Ogden and Mrs. Ogden and Mrs. Clayeland, daughter of Judge Livingston Cleaveland, of New Haven, was marked to Mr. Rowan Penrose Perkins, of 1602 South Fourth street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Harris, and Mrs. L. Rosenbaum, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Rosenbaum is recently received his districted to Mr. Mrs. Glays Briscoe, of Bloomfield, N. J., as maid of honor, and the bridestands were Miss Edith Briscoe and Miss Elizabeth Smith, of North-

Mr. and Mrs. George Keating, of and Miss Elizabeth Smith, of North-2605 South Seventeenth street, are entertaining Mr. J. Donahue, of New York, for a fortnight. Was best man, and the ushers included Mr. Henry C. Mayer, Jr., Mr. Morris W. Strond, Jr., and Lieutenant J. Edwin Fulweiler, of this city, and Dr.

Miss Mark Kennedy, of Rochelle avenue, returned during the week from seyeral weeks' stay in Ocean City.

Mr. James Stafford, formerly of this summer and has been visiting the summer and will be their guest in that city for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Landow of 32-0

The ceremony will be performed by Mr. This message is being taken up by the this sage that did not make his ant didnetic.

Miss Rebecca Simon, of Squirrel CONGER—BENEDICT

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth A leenediet, daughter of Mrs. Clairville

E. Benediet, of New Haven, Coun., and Mr. Arthur Mct'rea Conger, of the wind of the pide.

Two ONGER—BENEDICT

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth A leeneder today at the restautant Nineteenth and Market streets. The wedding of Miss Elizabeth A leenediet, daughter of Mrs. Clairville

E. Benediet, of New Haven, Coun., and Mr. Arthur Mct'rea Conger, of the wind of the pide is announced by David Karsner on Trankel. Traubel had a social message that did not make his art didnetic.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Landow of 32-0

The ceremony will be performed by Mr. The interest of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth A leenediet, daughter of Mrs. Clairville

E. Benediet of New Haven, Coun., and Mrs. Arthur Mct'rea Conger, of the work of the bride is announced by David Karsner on Trankel. Traubel had a social message that did not make his art didnetic.

and Mrs. Conger will live in New

BROCKLEHURST-REGISTER The marriage of Miss bla Register, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Register, of Laurel Springs, N. J., and Mr. William Irwin Brockleshurst, Jr., will take above the Brockleshurst, Jr., will take above the Brockleshurst, Jr., will take above the Brockleshurst.

general to Egypt; Mr. Albert Mayer, of New York city; Mr. and Mrs. Milliard F. Long, of Wilkes-Barre; Miss Ruth Long, of Wilkes-Barre, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Keineman.

Francis Sommer and Miss Katharine
Sommer have returned from a fortnight's stay at Laurel Springs, N. J.

Mrs. George Stockman, her daughter, Miss Esther Stockman, her daughter, Miss Esther Stockman, and her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs.
George Rapp, have returned to their home on West Tioga street, after spending the season in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hudaou, who Altoona, Ta.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mr. B. M. Lewis, of Chicago, formerly of Norristown, is visiting at the home of Mr. J. Tyson Forker.

Dr. and Mrs. T. L. Sisney, of 1340
West Main street, have returned from a layman's Standpoint." The associaman automobile trip through New York

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Ciay, of state and Toronto, Can.

THE READER'S VIEWPOINT

Letters to the Editor on Current Topics

For accentance and publication in this column letters must be writte on one side of the paper, deal with topics of general current interest and be signed with the name and address of the writer. Names will be withheld on request and confidence respected. No manuscripts will b eturned unless accompanied by sufficient postage and a special reques to this effect. Publication involves no indorsement by this newspaper o the sentiment expressed. No copy right matter will be included nor wil cligious discussions be permitted.

A Famous Tree

Sir Apropos of the coming visit of is if indications really indicate, and the Prince of Wales to the United they do seem to be genuine. Mr. Mentgomery will have his brother, Mr. Archibald Montgomery, as best man and his ushers will include Mr. William W. Montgomery, Jr., and Mr. Richard Montgomery, brothers of Vivaril VII. Mr. William W. Montgomery, Jr., and Mr. Richard Montgomery, brothers of the bridegroom: Mr. Richard Philler. Mr. Francis Wood, Jr., Mr. Keating in 1860. The royal onk, as the Prince of Wales Willcox, Mr. Edward Law, Mr. Andrew Porter and Mr. Arthur Donaldson Spencer, a brother of the bride.

Mis Spencer will wear her mother's crooked and stunted in growth and does welling some of her and stunted in growth and does welling some of her and stunted in growth and does not company to the public. The company that is the company, the employes and the public. The company feet that it was not being sufficiently remunerated for the services it was statue of the Eagle and Goat. It is stunted in growth and does not company the statue of the surface when the same Comsequently neither of the same Consequently neither of the sam wedding gown of brocaded white satin not compare favorably with its more pulsory. And the public, living in con-

JOHN ROBERT MORROW. Philadelphia, September 11, 1919.

Horace Traubel

The Rev. Father White, rector of St. the last quarter of a generation. His around, and we all feel better. We allabors as Whitman's Boswell have over- most feel like volunteering an increase A small reception for the families and shadowed his own creative work. His in fare, Of course, we will not do that, literary technique has prevented critics but there will be a compensation. Bread mony at the home of the bride's mother, from doing him justice; they objected cast upon the waters has not changed to his choosing as a medium for prose, its course, its course.

It is a welcome change of heart. live at 129 East Seventeenth street, vehicle of poetry he used, which was

In the "Chants Communal," "Collects" and "Optimos," but above all in the pages of the Conservator (from which the last two hooks were taken) Philadelphia Women to Attend Macand which he wrote almost entirely are to be found profound ideas and beauti-ful poems. The author was as democratic in his work as was his master. He was a humanitarian first and an the Maccabees, left today for Port Huartist afterward. In fact, he had con-tenut for the mere technician who filed will be held next week. Monday night words and quibbled about phrases with they will be the guests of Governor and which to invest inanimate sterotyped Mrs. Sleeper, of Michigan. The branch subjects. He brought literature back to is said to be the largest fraternal so-life and championed unpopular ideas ciety for women in the world. and causes that are now triumphing.

He went his own way, contemptuous of the critics who omitted his name from members will participate. There will authologies and books on poetry.

poet received as many enthusiastic let-

Lillian Phillips and Miss Margaret Mr. and Mrs. A. Landow of 3220 The ceremony will be performed by Mr. This message is being taken up by the Montgomery avenue, have returned from Conger's father, the Rev. Arthur B. world today. He is already interna-

ALBERT MORDELL. Philadelphia, September 11,

MISS MARJORY HODGE RYAN Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ryan, of Sixty-third and Sherwood road, Overbrook, who is spending the summer at her parents' cot-tage, 8 South Nashville avenue, Ventnor. She will return to this city the Letter part of October without. For example, a Walnut street tailor last week quoted a price of thirtyight dollars for a perfectly plain winter ont for a year-and-a-half old boy. In not any woman who would pay such a idiculous price as that deliberately

'doing her bit' to maintain high prices? And in the matter of food, we "did without" last winter at the request of our government, and should be able to do so again to further our own welfare, DOROTHY PERKINS ESTABROOK, September 11, 1919.

The P. R. T.'s Change of Heart 's the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger Sir-The change of heart the Phila-delphia Rapid Transit Company seems to have experienced toward the public is something pleasant to behold. That zed and was disgusted. the waist line. Panniers of rose point The tree is not marked for identifive cents, and indications are that it will remain five cents. And not only But consider the change-it is still that, the conductors are beginning to call the streets. They have had a gala day at Willow Grove and the public was invited to come along. The company is inviting the public to ride the cars with a promise to try to keep cream colored net and she will carry a the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: the fare down. There are signs on the sheaf of yellow tea roses. Her hat will be of coral georgette trimmed with the finest essays, poems and criticisms almost sounds like: "Abide With Us."

Philadelphia, September 9.

DELEGATES OFF FOR MICH.

cabees' Convention Delegates from Philadelphia for the quadrennial session, women's branch of also be a pageant, in which the Philalist Traubel had his admirers all delphia delegation will take part. Those over the world. I doubt if any living leaving today for Port Huron were: Miss Minnie E. Burgin. ters of praise from stranger as Trau- chaplain, 5121 Brown street; Mrs. Car-STRAWBERRY MANSION

Mr. and Mrs. A. Silverman, of 2331

North Thirtieth street, announce the ergagement of their daughter, Miss Freda Silverman, to Mr. Samuel Gross, of 2340 North Twenty-ninth street.

Edwin Fulweiler, of this city, and Dr. Clifford S. Dowknott. The wedding was of epistles in which people were always full rie Posern, supreme representative, thin how much he meant in their lives and how much he helped them. He bride's parents.

Edwin Fulweiler, of this city, and Dr. Clifford S. Dowknott. The wedding was of epistles in which people were always full rie Posern, supreme representative, and this how much he meant in their lives and how much he helped them. He bride's parents. from professors and writers. I remem- Janet Gill and Mrs. Florence Flick, "pathunders." Miss Lena Sechrist. Mrs. Adn Gorsuch, Mrs. Anna M. Stauffer, Miss Caroline Varley, Miss were divided as follows: Males, 221; females, 192; boys, 77 and gist 63. The causes of death were at the home of the bride. Maple and Misate avenues.

413 DEATHS HERE IN WEEK

City Statistics Show Increase Over

FOX-UMSTAD

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Helen Cunstad, daughter of Mrs. J. R. Umstad, of the Hamilton, Norristown, and Mr. Charles H. Fox, of Boston, Muss.

Mr. Charles H. Fox, of Boston, Muss.

Available to pay infreen dollars for the bridge out the part of women—yes, and those shores in the stone men—who think it smart. As long as we go on paying them, no must for how bouldly we may protest, high prices will not come down.

As a solution, why not a league of Norman-cross tumors.

Non-control of the Manilton, Norristown, and Mr. Charles H. Fox, of Boston, Muss.

he Rev. Frederick B. Kenble, associnte rector.

In the evening "movies" and refreshments will be free. After the club has been started on its way food will be sold at cost. Membership cards will be available for a small sum. Two newsboys will be elected by the boys to serve on the governing board along with the men supervisors. A savings departnent will be a feature of the club Boys of merit will be awarded chevrons—a square chevron for a "square boy. Outside of the small fee for mem bership the club will be suspected b voluntary contributions.

Plattsburg Camp, where he was given Mr. and Mrs. John R. Valentine, of night at Mercantile Hall. Mrs. Wolfstein was Miss Margaret Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliaton O. Mayer