N. J. FARE SYSTEM ON TRIAL MONDAY

Camden Trolley Riders Are Reported Ready to Move Against Increases

BUS LINES TO BE USED

With the advent of the new zone system by the Public Service Commission in Camden only forty-eight hours away, indignation among Camden suburbanites has reached its crest and all signs point to a feverish time on Monday, when the first real test comes.

Tomorrow, when the system goes into effect, has such comparatively light traffic that it is believed no undue disturbance will be caused.

The railroads have been asked to provide extra trains for Monday, and bus lines and jitneys will come into service between Camden and its suburbs. Particular indignation has been expressed by workers in the New York shipyard, whose fare has been raised four cents. Already they have expressed their disapproval by refusing to pay fares. The conductors have been helpless when a large body boarded a car and refused to pay, and the Public Service Commission has threatened to order the cars not to stop at the yards at all if the practice continues.

The trolley employes are also reported dissatisfied and claim that they are being made "bookkeepers" instead of conductors.

With the zone system about to begin, the terminal at the Federal street ferry is uncompleted and, although work is being rushed on it, conditions will still be unsettled there by Monday, when the first great rush is handled under the new system. Passengers will have to cross the streets in order to reach the terminal shed, which is out on the apex of the green which comes up to the ferry house.

The following are the new fare rates under the zone system:

Broadway line—Federal street ferry to National Park. Federal street ferry to Berkley street, 8c; to Jackson street, 8c; to New York shipyards, 7c; to Middlesex street, Gloucester, 9c; to Pusey & Jones shipyards, 11c; to National Park, 21c.

FIREMAN HURT AT BLAZE

Kensington Crowd Sees Ladder Fall With Fighter

A fireman was injured in a North Front street blaze last night, which caused excitement among hundreds of shoppers from the Kensington textile district and did several thousand dollars' damage to the shoe store of Benjamin Lindeman.

The injured fireman is William Hamilton, 205 West Dauphin street, a member of Truck No. 3, who is in the Episcopal Hospital, suffering from a possible fracture of his skull. Hamilton was thrown to the pavement when a ladder he had mounted slipped and fell through a window.

Miss Viola Richard, eighteen years, 2269 Emerald street, saw Hamilton fall and fainted. She also was taken to the Episcopal Hospital. Mrs. Selma Sterling, a sister of Lindeman, collapsed and was treated on the scene.

Handsome Winter Coats at $49.50 Which Means a Saving of ⅓ to ½

This small group of individual coats holds much of interest to the woman who wants a really fine wrap for the Winter. All of the coats are new and different and are beautifully made with luxurious silk linings. They are of the most fashionable materials of the season—

Tinseltone Suedene Silvertip Bolivia
Silvertone Velour Bolivia

Some have deep cape collars or shawl collars of fur—skunk, opossum, sealene, nutria, raccoon or Australian opossum. The soft colorings are the ones you do not tire of—reindeer, brown, blue, taupe and dull mixed colorings of great charm.

The price—$49.50—would not ordinarily pay for the production of most of these coats.

(Market)

Good Silks at $2 a Yard

Taffeta in black, navy blue and plenty of colors is 35 inches wide.

Messaline in light and dark colors is 35 inches wide.

Lining satin of silk and cotton is printed in attractive designs and is 35 inches wide.

Black satin duchesse and satin superior are 35 inches wide at $2, $2.25 and $2.50 a yard.

Crepe de chine, 38 inches wide, is in lovely colors and in black. $2 and $2.50 a yard.

Cotton-backed lining satin in various colors is 35 inches wide at $1.85 a yard.

(Central)

Velveteen Skirts Soft and Lovely $12.50

Good velveteen is a delight in itself, so these skirts are wise in their simplicity, being gathered all around under wide belts. The only break of line is the inset pocket on each side, finished with a strap. They are in navy, black and brown.

Black Poplin Skirts, at $7.50 are service skirts—to wear long and well. They are gathered in back and are plain in front, with two pockets.

(Market)

Changeable Taffeta Petticoats—Special at $3.85

Every petticoat is beautiful in coloring. There are such delightful, changeable combinations as green and grape, gold and cerise, etc. The flounces are tucked and ruffled.

Cotton Foulard Petticoats

The black grounds are gay with pink, blue or lavender roses or colorful Oriental designs. Each petticoat has elastic at the waist and fastens with a snap. $1 and $1.50.

(Central)

Fresh White Blouses for Schoolgirls

Crisp white little blouses of batiste and dimity made in simple, youthful ways abound in the Waist Store. Some have the long pointed collars of pique that are so becoming, some have little vest effects, and a recent arrival shows a square bib collar touched with embroidery. There are all sizes, 34 to 44.

Batiste blouses are $2.75 to $3.75.

Dimity blouses are $3.50.

Both launder admirably.

Middies for Gym

Roomily cut all-white middies of good materials are $1.75 and $2.

(Market)

A Bit of Real Lace

has just appeared in the Neckwear Store. And oh, such lovely things! There are long roll collars, small collars that just cover the back of the neck and bib collars. They're of Irish crochet, Valenciennes and filet, sometimes all three used in combination. The collars of Venise are a treat, as so little of this handsome lace has been available lately. Prices start at $5 for a back collar and go to $15.75 for a set.

(Central)

Seamless Sheets, Special

These sheets are very evenly woven and of exceptional quality at these prices. Full bleached, of course.

81x99 inches, $2.35.
81x90 inches, $2.25.
63x90 inches, $1.75.

Pillow cases of similar qualities are 35c, 50c, 55c and 60c.

Bolster cases are $1 and $1.35.

(Chestnut)

Little Boys' Suits at $2.50

are made of fine gingham, linene and jean. Most of them are in button-on or middy models and all of them are well made. Some of the suits are all white and several with colored trousers button on to white waists.

Heavier

suits are made with corduroy trousers (navy blue in a narrow wale) that button high onto white waists. $6.

Sizes 2 to 6 years.

(Central)

When Silk Is Soft and Pink

underthings are sure to be dainty. Vests of crepe de chine of excellent quality are made generously long and full. $3.

Envelope Chemises at $3.50 are unusual, for one doesn't find crepe de chine and satin envelope chemises at this price very often. One style in satin is tailored and trimmed with tucks, and another in soft crepe de chine is also neatly tailored. Both styles are prettily trimmed with lace and medallions.

New Chamois Lisle Gloves in Autumn Weights

Women's two-clasp gloves with plain backs are in gray or white at 85c a pair.

With five rows of contrasting silk embroidery on the backs, they are in white and brown at $1 a pair.

8-button length white chamois lisle gloves are $1.35.

Children's Gloves

of chamois lisle in white, gray, brown, beaver and mode have two clasps and are 75c a pair.

(Central)

Interesting Small Hats

and hats of medium size have been brought out by the Autumn season. Many are in turban shape, gay with bright colored embroidery or with facings of contrasting velvet which is most ingeniously caught in little tucks until it looks like it had been embroidered with chenille.

Another charming idea is black or blue velvet brocaded with silver—can you think of a lovelier Winter combination?

The Autumn browns, so fashionable just now, are carried out in a great many of these small hats and a pheasant breast gives a most striking bit of color.

Prices on these very smart new things start at $9.50.

(Market)

Children's Hats

Beavers — Wool Velours
Silk Velours — Velvets

All of them are tailored and trimmed with good grosgrain ribbon. Many, with large brims, have streamers, and the smaller hats have brims that look equally well turned up or down. They are for little boys and for girls up to 10 years. $3.50 to $8.

Velvet and plush tams for girls of 4 to 10 years are $3 to $5.50.

Babies' White Coats

are fresh and dainty—right from their wrappings of tissue paper. They are of corduroy, cashmere and various cords in one-year and two-year sizes. $5.50 to $16.50.

(Hahnemann Store, Central)

800 Pair of Women's Shoes Special at $5.90 a Pair

Assuredly the most fashionable shoes this Autumn are the high, dark tan lace shoes. This is therefore a real opportunity! These shoes are of durable dark tan calfskin, attractively made on new, long, slender lasts. The soles are welted and the heels are medium or low.

Children's White Shoes Special at $1.50 a Pair

Many children wear white canvas button shoes to school until very cold weather, so that there is plenty of wear ahead of these. They are made on wide-toe shapes and have welted soles.

Sizes 6 to 2.

A Clearaway Sale in the Upholstery Store at Average Half Price
Cretonnes, Curtains, Couch Covers and Remnants

The half price is based on the original prices in our stock, and they were quite a bit lower than today's average prices.

With the Autumn season just starting, no homekeeper should miss the seasonable opportunities in this sale!

Three center aisle tables hold the most important lots in the sale: remnants at less than half price, tapestry couch covers at half price and cretonnes at half price.

Remnants Half Price at 10c, 15c to $1 a Yard —and many are much less than half price, as some of the fabrics were marked three times their present prices. Some are quite fresh and others are slightly soiled. Lengths vary from 1½ yards to 10 yards in a piece. Included are:

Cretonnes — Scrims
Scotch madras — Armure
Heavy rep — Terry cloth
Printed madras — Marquisette
Drapery materials — Upholstery fabrics

Tapestry Couch Covers Half Price at $1.50 to $5

Oriental and closely woven couch covers in any number of color combinations are the full size.

Tapestry table covers are half price at $1.75 to $2.75.

Also on this table there will be a few velour scarfs at $1.50, pillow covers at $1 and squares for pillows at 75c—all half price.

(Central)

Cretonnes Average Half Price at 20c, 25c, 35c and 40c a Yard

All of them are 36 inches wide, and there are scores of patterns and color combinations.

Long Curtains at $1 a Pair

All are long and wide, and most of them are trimmed with lace edging. There are white, cream and ecru scrim curtains and cross-bar voile curtains. A number of pairs are finished with attractive hemstitched borders. Some are a trifle soiled.

A Clearaway of Cluny Lace Curtains $3.50 a Pair to $12 Savings of $4 to $15 on a Pair

These are some of the handsomest curtains that we have ever had in stock. The cluny lace is from France and was bought quite a while ago. The curtains are made of ecru bobbinette with insertions and edgings of cluny lace in attractive patterns.

The curtains at $10 a pair are most noteworthy, having an insertion that is about 5 inches wide.

The Little House of Home Ideas changes in detail every little while, so that there are new ideas all the time. Recently, we heard two young women exclaim with wonder in their voices:

"Why! This is a complete little apartment. One could live in here!"

And it is complete even to kitchen utensils of the smallest kind, dishes, etc. Everything is for sale. The long scarf on the table, a vase in a peculiar shade of blue, pictures worth living with, attractive rugs, etc., as well as the suites of furniture are all for sale—at moderate prices.

But the Little House of Home Ideas exists essentially to help new homekeepers and to give new ideas to old established homes. You will find much of interest and much that is new.

Concerning Charming Autumn Dresses

They are coming in every day—hundreds of them of all kinds—from a practical serge or tricotine frock for street wear to a handsome satin or Georgette gown for afternoons.

Serviceable and Smart are tricotine and serge frocks. About a dozen attractive models of navy tricotine are special. They are in the straight lines that are the season's best and are adorned with narrow belts, self-covered buttons, braid and embroidery.

More than a dozen smart models of navy or black serge are $25 to $32.50.

Handsome Beaded Georgettes

for afternoon wear are in navy blue, taupe or black. They are attractively beaded and made in a variety of styles, from $38.50 to $50.

Satin Dresses

take many forms and prices, beginning at $25 and going to $45. The quaint frock sketched has ruffled panel, a ruffle at the foot of the skirt and a pretty round collar of embroidered Georgette crepe. In brown, taupe and navy at $29.50.

The other frock sketched is a combination of Georgette crepe and satin and is $25. In navy blue and black.

For Women Wearing Black

there is an altogether pleasing array of beautiful black frocks of crepe de chine, satin or Georgette crepe; some quite handsome with beading or embroidery at $25 to $45.
