DOUGHNUT AND PANCAKE DAYS HERE—HOW TO IMPROVE THE DISPOSITION—CYNTHIA'S LETTERS

MRS. WILSON'S RECIPES FOR DOUGHNUTS AND PANCAKES MADE WITH BUTTERMILK

Other Delicious Recipes, Too. That Make Use of This Commodity; Cheese Pie and a Custard

Whole-Wheat Muffins and Two Kinds of Bread; and, Remember, Buttermilk Is Healthy!

By MRS. M. A. WILSON Copyright, 1818, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, All Rights Reserved.

TRY some of the delicious sourmilk desserts of the New England states. You know that the old Indian cooks always claimed that butter milk or just plain sour milk made the corn bread much lighter. Cakes, muffins, biscuits and ginger bread are a few of the delicious prod-

Whole-Wheat Muffins Place in a mixing bowl

Two cups of buttermilk, One teaspoon of baking sodu, One teaspoon of salt. Three tablespoons of sugar, Four tablespoons of shortening.

Yesterday's Bran Bread

Place in a mixing bowl Three cups of buttermilk. One and one-half teaspoons of sait, Two teaspoons of baking sodu, Three-quarters cup of sirup. One-half cup of shortening.

Beat to thoroughly mix and then Four cups of whole-wheat flour, Three cups of bran.

One and one-half cups of white tablespoons of Two baking powder. Beat hard to mix and then pour into two well-greased and floured loaf-shaped pans and spread evenly. nuts may be added for variety, if de-

Let stand for ten minutes and then sired. bake in a moderate oven for forty minutes. One-half package of seeded raisins or three-quarters cup of finely chopped nuts may be added to oysters and the like to be fried in one loaf for variety. Use when one deep fat, day old.

Buttermilk Doughnuts Place in a mixing bowl One cup of buttermilk.

Two tablespoons of shortening, One cup of sugar, One teaspoon of baking soda, One teaspoon of nutmeg, One-half teaspoon of ginger.

Beat to mix. Now add Five cups of sifted flour, Two teaspoons of baking powder, and work to a smooth dough. Roll out one-half inch thick on wellpastry board and cut and fr until golden brown in hot fat. Buttermilk Custard

Place in a mixing bowl Yolk of one egg.

Two eggs, One and one-quarter cups of buttermilk, One teaspoon of vanilla extract.

One-half cup of sugar, Three tablespoons of flour. Beat to a smooth batter and then pour in custard cups and set the cups in a pan of warm water, and bake in a slow oven until firm in the center.

Remove, cool and then make a whip White of one egg, One-half glass of jelly. Beat to a stiff meringue and then pile high on each custard. Serve ice cold, dusted with cinnamon. Yankee Pancakes

Place in a mixing bowl One and three-quarters cups of buttermilk.

Two tablespoons of sirup, One tablespoon of shortening, One teaspoon of baking soda, One teaspoon of salt, Beat to mix and then add

One cup of whole-wheat flour, One-half cup of cornmeal, One teaspoon of baking powder. Beat to mix and then bake on a hot griddle.

Buttermilk Bread

Scald two cups of buttermilk and turn into a mixing bowl and add

Four tablespoons of sugar, One tablespoon of salt, Four tablespoons of shortening. One yeast cake dissolved in onehalf cup of water.

Beat hard to mix and then add eight cups of flour, and work to a smooth dough; grease the bowl and place the dough in it. Turn the dough over to thoroughly coat with terwardrobes. But as for having some- and finished with a deep fringe of silk. the shortening. Cover and let rise thing that is right on hand, ready to The cap to match has a crown of the overnight and then early in the be donned at a moment's notice—this tan angora and a brim of brown velvet. morning punch down well and turn they forget. So while you are on your over for one hour. Place on a molding board and divide into loaves.

Form into the loaf and then place in Form into the loaf and then place in and invest in some of the new scarfs with squares made of black velvet. This well-greased pans and let rise for that are not fur. They are of angora one hour. Bake in a moderate oven or similar weelen fabric and are so to match. At the right the scarf is of for forty minutes. .

It is important that the temperature of the scalded and cooled but-They are splendid to have to throw about your shoulders when you start off fringe is of blue silk. The pairrenheit. When setting the bread to the country club for your morning (Copyright, 1919, by Florence Rose)

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PANCAKES

These Yankee paneakes, the recipe for which is given in Mrs. Wilson's article today, are made with buttermilk.

overnight be sure that it is in a place where the average temperature will be 65 degrees Fahrenheit in summer and 70 degrees Fahrenheit in winter, and which is free from drafts.

Buttermilk Cheese Pie

Place one quart of buttermilk in a boil and cook for five minutes. Now

One cup of sugar. Yolks of two eggs. Grated rind of one-half lemon. One teaspoon of nutmeg,

One-half teaspoon of vanilla and the prepared cheese that has been draining in the cheesecloth. Beat very hard with the egg beater to thoroughly blend. Pour into pans which have been lined with plain pastry and bake for forty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Dust the top of the pie before placing in the oven with either nutmeg or cinnamon, and one-half cup of seeded raisins or finely chopped

I'se leftover whites of egg. One for fruit whip. One for dipping croquettes,

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries

No. 1238 My dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you indly tell me why I am unsuccessful in trying to mix the white of an egg with jelly? I have measured the jelly as stated, and I have tried the same three times and with no success. Also please tell how many cantalounes should be used for pickling in the recipe gust 5.

given in the paper lately. Also let me know in giving the hot process bath whether you put the jars in cold water and let them come to a boil, or in warm water. Thanking you in advance, ONE OF YOUR READERS.

No. 1165

My dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you kindly advise me if there is any way of preparing green plums to take the place of olives? We have a plum tree full of green plums, of which will have to be picked in order to give more strength to those left. Would like to make use of them, if possible. M. E. H.

Using green plums for olives, use or bucket. Now place in a preserving kettle

Four cups of salt. Fire quarts of water.

Bring to a boil and pour at once over the plums. Stand in a cool preserving kettle, and bring to a boil. Add the plums and watch until it comes to the boiling point. Let less than $15. the plums boil for three minutes in the brine and then with a skimmer minutes. Store in a cool place. No. 1239

My dear Mrs. Wilson-Will you please publish in your columns a recipe for dough in potpie?

See woman's page, recipes, Au-

The New Angora Scarfs A Daily Fashion Talk by Florence Rose

What could be more alluring than a scarf of tan angora with ends embroidered in yarn-unless it be one of electric blue silk duvetyn with ends trimmed with squares of black velvet?

"HILL days come suddenly. To be tennis, splendid for the country walk then let cool. Put through a sieve to break up the large curds and then to look forward to. But before that lin. Later they will be useful to wear to look forward to. But before that with your winter suit on days when to look forward to. But before that with your winter suit on days when there are always crisp, snappy days, and you do not feel the need of furs. For even Indian summer sometimes brings in the week end in the country or suburbs mornings that are frosty and evenings a set of this sort, including scarf and when you gather round the open fire-some women never seem to realize the without baving to carry additional bug-warm and at the same time so light in a soft blue silk duvetyn, faced with the weight that you can don them any time same sort of material in a tan stade. you wish.

place with enthusiasm or repine because your week-end box. Then you will be you built your house without one. So long as the sun shines brightly gear and wrap for country pastimes

Embroidery is done on the blue side with

(Copyright, 1919, by Florence Rose,)

With a Purse

Adventures

Use the Dover style eggbeater, Now here is something you could do that I have not been disappointed.

Now here is something you could do that I have not been disappointed. Somehow or other they seem finer than pan and heat gently to about 110 and start beating very slowly, then everything just right, and think it quite ever before, more self-reliant, indedegrees Fahrenheit. Let cool and faster and faster until the egg and as necessary to have your home as well pendent and more truly women in the Three cups of whole-wheat flour, and let drain for two hours. Now greasy it will prevent the jelly and you are of this opinion, you will want a selves while in France that if we ever Two teaspoons of baking powder, measure one and one-half cups of egg from whipping up stiff. Ten cheese knife. The one I saw is a real did get back we would appreciate Beat hard to mix and then pour whey and place in a saucepan and small or six large cantaloupes. Place bargain, and in addition, is a real things more than ever before, the into well-greased muffin pans and add six tablespoons of cornstarch. the jars in hot-water bath when the beauty. It is one of those little spatuinto well-greased muffin pans and add six tablespoons of cornstaren. bake for twenty minutes in a hot Stir to dissolve and then bring to a water is warm, but not boiling hot. late knives, with fandle of gleaming under the latter heading. sterling silver. And traced along the handle in delicate markings is an ex- walking down Chestnut street, sort of quisite design. The remarkable fea. dreaming about this time last year and ture is the price, which is only $1,25, all that was happening; little I dreamed One of these cheese knives would make at this time. And never in my life, a particularly nice gift.

> dresses are those of serge with heavy resentatives of American womanhood black embroidery for trimming. The than I saw then. The clear eyes, Using green plums for olives, use rich purse to buy them. But if you of the indomitable spirit that inspired perfectly solid green fruit. Wash are skillful with your needle, or if their men to win this war. the fruit and place in a large bowl you know a reasonable dressmaker, you can get one of these dresses for a sur-Now place four cups of salt and five width of your skirt, and what little for thinking that way, but the average and one-half quarts of water in a extra you would require for a waist. I girl is everything that she should be lift into jars, and fill to overflowing with hot brine. Adjust the rubber with hot brine with a skimmer with a skimme with hot brine. Adjust the rubber and lid, and seal at once. Place in a at their lowest, were it not for the are without fault, so don't you be the hot-water bath and process for forty sales we would be forced to be without first one to "throw stones. many things. Last month we had the August furniture sale, and this month it is the housefurnishing sale. And it comes at a good time, too, for, as I have been known to observe before, an observation gathered from experience, down Chestnut street. Our hearts were I assure you it is in September, when the air becomes brisk and the blood about! runs high, that we women love to buy new things for our homes and dress winter. One of the things you can get in this sale at the remarkable price of $5.50 is a glistening white bathroom them in their most alluring coziness for cabinet with three shelves and a nice will try my best to tell her clearly what his friends want to marry. On account hard time at first to do this because clear mirror on the door. If you have I think of her and her cleas in general: of the high cost of living, remember. not already a bathroom cabinet, or if > Glycerin, listerine, aromatic spirits of men before they come under the in-ammonia—these and many others can fluence and scope of the refined and debe bought to stand in imposing array on cent girls, girls who find more in life the shelf. They cost forty-five cents than doing up, dressing to attract attenproperly filled, leave little tion and flirting. doubt as to their contents.

The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries From what old song are the fol-lowing lines taken:
 "The dames of France are fond and free.

And Flemish lips are willing.
And soft the maids of Italy.
And Spanish eyes are thrill-

2. Why is a brimless hat difficult to wear unless one is a great beauty? beauty:

Name five striking colors that car be worn by the brunette with clear skin and color in her cheeks

When a person has a florid com-plexion what-plan should be fol-lowed in selecting colors? Does a hostess fill her program at her dance or does she devote part of her time to going about among her guests? What are marron glaces?

Yesterday's Answers

The magpie combination is black and white. An attractive lamp shade can be An attractive lamp shade can be made with a deep shade of light blue silk for foundation and gold organdie shirred over this. Two rows of the organdie with selvaged edges are used as "ruffiling." but the rows are applied plain. The closed oval shape is the most attractive for this shade. Little silk clusters of fruit with a touch of black here and there add character.

Blue alone does not make a satisfactory lamp shade because blue does not diffuse its own light and needs an additional color such as gold.

gold.
The lines.
"She wept with delight when you And trembled with fear at your frown" are taken from the song "Oh.

Don't You. Remember Sweet Alice Ben Bolt?"
The name Chantilly lare comes from a town in France once celebrated for its manufacture of lace.

Drilling is a heavy twilled fabric of lines or cotton.

CAN YOU WIN BACK A MAN?

WHAT woman hasn't spent alcepless nights over this problem at some time or other in her life? If not for herself, perhaps for some dear friend. When a man comes sheepishly to the woman he has asked to marry him and tells her there is some one else, does he ever come back to the one he loved first? This is the vitally interesting theme of the unusual serial to begin on the Woman's Page Monday. The story is by Hazel Deyo Batchelor, who has that keen talent of presenting to us men and women as they really are. It is a story full of tense moments and dramatic situations, and yet withal it might have happened to you or it might

"THE TESTING OF JULIA GRANT"

This Serial Begins Monday

Please Tell Me What to Do any more.

me to or not?

this for me also.

very angry with me. He allows me only to go to work and right home. I am not even allowed to attend church of sending me to Glen Mills and disown me for life. I have often made up my mind to run away; would you advise

In our town people, only young men rather, call me Smiles because with all my heartaches I always have a joke and a smile as I believe in the old saying.

Smile and the world smiles with you

Hope members may be able to answer much time with one boy that you have in some way laid yourself open to are not in the wrong. Watch the woman's page for the next week or so and you will see an article on this very subject. It does matter.

If I were you I would stop going seventeen, when you can have a most

It must have hurt your father a great

Coax Them Real Hard

I am too young to have boy friends.

to see you once in a while and also to ents' love for you that makes them want to go on keeping you a little girl.

but at seventeen it is time a girl should become accustomed to the society of nice might begin by just having the boys at

What Could Be Sweeter?

For Two Little Girls

You are very kind, Mrs. J. P. W.

and I am sure there are plenty of little girls whose little arms are just waiting to slip into the coats. I will forward letters to you and then let you

Likes Her Hair Bobbed

Dear Madam-In reference to your

Before having my hair bobbed I had the Editor of Woman's Page:

clothing that I would like to give away and kindness.

MRS. J. P. W.

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

of friends, both girls and boys.

a little too strict?

with one young man all the

Perhaps some of your Keeping Up

SMILES.

My father often says he has a notion

Three Cheers for You Dear Cynthia-For some time I have read your column with great interest. and observing the pros and cons of the boy and girl questions that are set forth

there, it may be that a bit of personal experience will not be out of the way.

When I returned from France with he good old Twenty eighth Division I never expected to see anything that proved to be such a delight to the eye as the American girl. True enough, I cherished my ideals while away as to just what I wanted them to be, but they even more than surpassed my fondest hopes. Since then I have had time to look about me and I am glad to say little things as well as the big ones and, needless to say, the girls come Divide your time between other boys Last Saturday afternoon I was and girls. wonderful time if you only follow the advice of older people once in a white. then that I would be safe in America nor any place on earth, have I ever had the privilege of seeing a finer, more The richest looking of the new street thoroughly American number of reponly drawback is that not only are they rich appearing—they require a rich purse to buy them. But if you

Let me say, too, that my friends prisingly small sum. One shop has serge of dark blue, and of a very fine never meant more to me than they do now. I appreciate them and would quality, with a beautiful design em-broidered on the bottom, worked in black, and looking for all the world like danger of losing one. The letters in hand work. The depth of the serge is your column criticizing girls and find sufficient to make a skirt, so that you ing fault with them may be all right in should think you could get an entire and generally the man is more to blame. dress out of three yards. If so, the cost of your material would be slightly the say that nowhere in the world is there the equal of the American girl strive to appreciate her and if you can Heigh ho, it's a blessing we have not then give yourself an overhauling, > HENNEN J. B. Thank you a great deal for your them. One day-it was the day for letter. Philadelphia-we saw you and your

Words to "A Dall"

Dean Doll-You want to know why you need a new one, now is the time to we should worry our heads over you. And near the cabinets are attractive and your kind of girl are so easily square bottles, each bearing the name accessible and so attractively gotten up of the liquid for which it is intended, that you meet most of the boys and

And when, the men do come to the other kind of girl, it is quite a task Pare Editor. Phone Walnut 8000. alike-that some girls are sincere, respectable, wholesome. It is small wonder that such a large number of young. men think that girls are cheap and to be had at any time they feel so inclined.

make your own decision about the "Doll" makes quite a few statelucky little girls. ments that are plainly open to con tradiction-she even contradicts herself, as she starts out to defend her type by saying that they are not as bad as they look and then goes on to state subject of "cutting the hair," that men would not think of marrying night's paper. I am in great favor of "Doll"-she pities them if they bobbed bair for girls. Last week I would. I will not, however, take the visited the hairdressers and had my space to say more than that I pity hair bobbed short, about a half-inch

I am twenty one years old, also earn below the ears and also bangs cut. So far I have found it very becoming to me and also very comfortable. I im the kind of girl whom all my boy save loads of time and in a minute my riends want to introduce to their sishair is combed and I do not have to ers if they have any. May we hear an bother with a lot of hair pins and apression from Cynthia as to what she combs. hinks of "Doll's" and my ideas on the above subject, as I have a profound my doubts as to the comfort of short respect for Cynthia's ideas in general. hair, etc., but since having the hair cut off I am fully convinced that it is a LUCY.

great comfort and saves a lot of trouble. Cynthia is out of this argument, No more long hair for me and as Lucy, but I wonder if, judging from soon as my hair gets a little longer I past expressions you are able to guess am going to have it trimmed again just how she feels on the subject, and think the hair bobbed to the right length and kept neatly trimmed is very becoming. So I am for bobbed hair always. MISS BOBBED HAIR. thank you for that compliment, Latey.

also beautiful by both sexes. Now there are several young men in our com-

Gossiping About Her Dear Cynthia-Please advise what to do if my letter is not too long. From Mrs. A. S.

I am a young girl of seventeen. I To the Editor of Woman's Page:
live in a small town in which the population is about 700, and people are in time, as I leave for Political Page. in time, as I leave for Baltimore today I have never done anyhing but the for a stay of two or three weeks. So talking about me. will get these little kittens a home be-fore I leave. Of course, I would have right thing. I go to church every Sun-day, and to dances, as I see no harm in it. There is harm in everything if kept them if I did not hear from you until I did find a home for them, but it is made so.
I am considered not only pretty, but now I can take them away before I go.
I am considered not only pretty, but I just can't thank you enough for your munity who have been trying to go out good soul. I am returning the letters I vitations, as I am returning the letters I vitations. as I am going with a young man who thinks there is no other like me, this making people jealous, and they F YOU LOVEhave gotten rumors out about me which THE CENTURY FLOWER SHOP

Now kindness and must say you are a very

HOW TO CONQUER MEANNESS IN YOUR DISPOSITION

Some Advice Given to a Young Man Who Humbly and Honestly States His Problem

Dear Friend—Without troubling you too much, can you give any advice to one who is of a naturally mean disposition, who, has to fight like the deuce with himself to their from injuring others? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to boasting of his feats? One who is seen to be seen to admire and even like this boy and some have sone so far as to say that he was a model, but when it comes to girls for some reason, they can't see him. When a girl is introduced to him, while she doesn't mean to show it, he can almost see the dislike in her face. Why is this? He tries to be streamed to them, but it seems that the only ones that like him are their parents. Many things bateful are in his character, but he tries to overcome them. If his imove, as was said before, any one to he introduce he has to struggle with himself to keep from boasting of what he has done. He knows that his looks cannot be overcome, much as he would like it; but is there not any way in which to overcome the other defects, which are more important, as he is not reaponable for his looks, while he is, to a girl extent for his character. So that he may be at icast passably liked with the sirk he knows and the ones he may come in contact with in the future? Must his whole life he spoiled on account of this!

TOT so long ago. "Seeker of Light," Evidently you have been spending so rather looks that proved this particular I is the secret of making it strong boy's handicap. The way this young enough eventually to conquer yourself. man described his schooldays was, "The Here is a regular system which has criticism. Don't make the mistake, man described his schooldays was. The worked almost infallibly when faithfully dear, of thinking it doesn't matter that boys only spoke to him when they followed, and from which I worked out wanted to know the answer to some the little plan given above. Make up question and the girls only when there your mind at the beginning of the day was no one else around." This boy's not to say anything unpleasant or har was no one else around." This boy a bor any unpleasant thoughts, etc., up till looks, he claimed, even kept him from 12 o'clock. Then at 12 o'clock look back getting work, but he determined to win and see if you kept your promise. If out. And he did win out! How? By you haven't, punish yourself. Do with-

He capitalized his lonesomeness, or it. "made lemonade out of his lemon," as a little book might help. After you it were, by putting himself through coldeal to have some one come to him and speak badly about his daughter. Forget all this foolishness about running away and try to win your way back to his good graces.

It were, by putting named through containing the partial potting name of things try schooling yourself to say mean awkwardness became simply an enor-Dear Cynthia-I am a girl seventeen mous reserve of unexpressed power to courage you. Just get up again. Why, rears old, but very small for my age, get results.

He capitalized his ugliness by striv-Do you think I am too young to have boy friends and go out at nights once in a while? I bring home my salary to my mother, but still my parents think girls. The letter that came to me was hard enough to win it? written on his return from overseas and I am not what you would call pretty, in it he said, in no boasting way, that but am attractive enough to have lots the days were gone when he lacked the company of young ladies. What had I feel bad when I have to tell boys been uelin that I am not allowed to go out with ing and different face." You see he Don't you think my parents are won out all around. His employer le too strict? MICKEY. wouldn't give him a chance to take off Yes, "Mickey," I think you are old his uniform before reinstating him with enough to have boys come to the house the firm.

I am telling you all this, "Seeker go out with them. It is only your par- of Light," because I want to show you how little appearance counts in this world when a man makes up his mind not to have it count. I want to show just what a man can win Conx real hard, "Mickey." You by personality and accomplishment the house. Then your parents can meet the prize in sight to make you work in order that you may always hold all the harder to conquer your unpleasant disposition.

To Donald Smith and friends; We are NOW for practical heln: First, you four girl friends who are employed in N want an attractive personality the city, and are strangers here. We that will with read your letter in the EVENING PUB- | Well, here are two brief rules: Learn LIC LEDGER and would like very much how to smile and learn to be inter to meet you through Cynthia. Hoping to ested in what the girls and boys you see your answer in the column.

FOUR PALS.

meet are doing. Be a good, sympathetic listener. I don't know any better way Can you qualify as to the H. C. of to make and keep friends.

1. You know that is why Donald and Of course, you are going

Of course, you are going to have a kitten will find these homes. So let me

Tuxedo Not Proper

Dear Madam-Will you please tell me if it is proper for the groom to wear a Tuxedo at an afternoon wedding? I would like to see this printed on the Woman's Page as soon as pos-

A Tuxedo would not be proper. The afternoon garb for the formal wedding consists of gray pin-stripe trousers, a cutaway coat, stand-up collar, gray ties and gloves and a dark or white vest.

If the wedding is a very simple one and the girl is not wearing white a business suit may be worn.

time, wasn't it. Mrs. S.?

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Dear Madam-I have some children's thank you again for all your trouble

(girl's), including two warm winter Two letters remain asking for little coats. They would fit girls from six male kittens. Perhaps some reader to nine years. I will gladly give them would like to find a home for hers. It to any one who would care to have was fine that the letter came just in sible.

Users of PEA Cal be ad-

Nut. 11.75 Pea. . 9.55

Owen Letters' Sons Largest Coal Pard in P'sJa.

Frenton Ave. & Westmoreland

WELCOME

22d and Bainbridge Sts.

Edward Jordan, at 10.45: "Defensive and Offensive Christianity."

The Sunday School at 2.30 o'clock, with the painting, "The Conquerors," and an address on the buildings of Solomon's Temple by John Wanamaker, Evening Service at 7.45, con-

> Baptist THE TEMPLE

Your Best Asset -A Skin Cleared By-Cuticura Soap

appetizing

POMPEIAN OLIVE OIL

"always fresh"

The Choice of Good Housekeepers

Sold Everywhere

evening. For instance, if you are going to a party say this: "For tonight, at low and let the other chap do the bragging. Tomorrow, maybe, I'll blow my own horn all day, but tonight I'll grit my teeth and keep my promise. make up your mind to pick out some girl during the evening who may happen to be alone and try making her tell you something interesting about herself. Ask her where she spent her vacation this year, 'net year, etc. Ask her if she is employed, where, how she likes her work, etc. These may seem trivial suggestions, but they supply definite ways of letting a girl see you are interested in her. Even though you may think the girl is not attracted to you. invite her to go to the theatre or to s good movie with you some night. Give her a chance to know that there are things likable in you—and there are, "Seeker of Light," or you could not have written the letter you did write Plan other little "parties" for the gir there was a latter printed which or other girls, not things that cost so a case somewhat similar to much, but outings that show thought, Only it wasn't disposition but TRAINING your will power bit by bit this: In place of making a resolution not to boast about yourself for a whole week, make a resolution to last just one and girls. In fact be sure to have developing personality and accomplish- out dessert at noon, for instance. Then plenty of girl friends. You are only ing things. renew your promise for the afternoon. and at night look and see how you kept Keeping track of your record in gives you new strength and makes the next easier. The slips must not diswe are always failing down and getting up again, each of us fighting something > vised and buy now. We have the size and quatty. We handle only the very

Egg. $11.25 Stove $11.65

PROMPT DELIVERY We serve you right

TO BETHANY

John Wesley Clays meeting at Brotherhood and Chorus at Morning Service, Reverend W.

P. M. New Era Bible Union at 3

ducted by Reverend Mr. Jordan; subject, "Seeking Jesus."

RELIGIOUS NOTICES

THE TEMPLE
Broad and terks ats. (1900 N.) 3000 seats
RUSSELL H. CONWELL, Pastor.
William Dyre McCurdy, Associate Pastor,
Dr. J. Marvin Hann. Musical Director. f.
Fredk E. Starke, Organist.
RUSSELL H. CONWELL, preaches 10:30
a. m. and 1:45 p. m.
Temple Chorus sings both services.
Children's Church in Lower Temple, 10:45
a. m. Hible School. 2:30 p. m.
Public cordual, y invited to all services.

Presbyterian ARCH ST. CHI SCH, 18th and Arch.

DR. MACARTNEY will preach at 10.45 at

The Christ of the Ages; or, The Necessity of a Return to the Fundamental Fac's of the Christian Religion. At 8 h, will preach on, 'Does It Make Any Difference
What a Man Believes.' Bible School at 12. C. E. Supper and Prayer Meeting at 6.45.

BUTHLEHEM PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH Broad and Diamond sts. Rev. WILLIAM L. MCCORMICK, Paster-elect.

10:30 a. m. — Morning Worship. Subject of 10:30 a. m. — Morning Worship. Subject of Sermon: "LOVE FOR MAN."

2:30 p. m. — Sabbath School. Rally Day Services Sept. 28.

6:45 p. m. — Evening Service. Subject of Sermon: "THE LOVE OF GOD."

10:50 p. — Evening Service. Subject of Sermon: "THE LOVE OF GOD."

10:50 p. — Evening Service. Sept. 25.

10:19. Special music. You and your friends are cordially invited to attend. Come

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
21st and Walnut streets, Minister. Rev. ALEXANDER MacCOLLA D. MacColl will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

The evening service will be resumed on september 28. September 28. Visitors are most cordially welcomed. Protestant Episcopal ST. MATTHEW'S P. E. CHURCH
Girard ave. and 18th st.
Special Services for St. Matthew's Day,
5:10 a. m.—Holy Communion,
10:50 s. m.—Holy Communion,
Sermon by Rev. Charles Campbell Pieros.

Sermon by Rev. Charles Campbell Pierce, D. D. 230 p. m.—Sunday School and Bible Classes, T. S. p. m.—Evening Prayer and Sermon by Rev. Royden Kelth Yerkes, S. T. D. Unitarian PIRST UNITABLAN CHURCH

Chestaut at PREDERICK R. GRIFFIN, Minister, n. -- Rev. Eugene R. Shippen of Naw will breach.