BALTIMORE HAILS CARDINAL MERCIER

Primate of Belgium Again Celebrates Pontifical Mass in Cathedral

BISHOP CANNON ATTENDS

Baltimore, Sept. 22 .- Cardinal Mer cler celebrated pontifical mass in the Cathedral yesterday and, as on last Sunday, the sanctuary was filled with bishops, priests and seminarians, including Bishop Cannon, of Erie, Pa. Cardinal Gibbons and the Belgian primate were preceded by a procession of priests and seminarians from Cardinal Gibbons's home through the Cathe dral grounds to the main entrance. The edifice was crowded and hundreds of persons on the streets viewed the ecclesiastical procession

Helping you stabilize your business and your life; taking a load off your shoulders which you are powerless to lift.

No matter where your interests may be, there are men there who are doing a vital work for you.

These men go into the homes of our land, they give wise counsel, comfort, encouragement; they carry good cheer and hope with them. They are closer to both employer and employee than these are to each other. They are spreading the economic value of industrial peace. They are the preachers of the country; they represent the churches of the land. These preachers are working to stabilize American life. Day and night they are spending themselves in your service; and they are the poorest paid of all the men in any of the professions. They have felt the advance in the cost of living more than any other class; because their incomes are so small and the calls on them so great.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller has investigated this situation. He has approved the program of the Baptists. He knows the need of more pay for the preachers; of a permanent fund for aged and infirm preachers; of the present critical demand for means to push the Americanization of the foreigners of our country, which these preachers are doing along established lines.

Mr. Rockefeller has pledged himself to give two million dollars if the Baptists raise six million. There is less than one-half a million yet to raise; but it must come fast. The time is almost up. The two million is at stake; the great work of the whole Baptist body is at stake. We need money, cash, checks. No one can do your share for you. This is your opportunity to help stabilize American life. Make your investment in permanent prosperity right now-and make it worthy of you.
