PAGEANT TONIGHT IN PARK

Three Negro Posts of American Legion to Give Sing

How the War Camp Community Service brought about co-operation among various groups of organizations formed to do war and war welfare work will be demonstrated tonight when the negro division of the War Camp Community Service will give a pageant and sing at Strawberry Mansion, Fairmount Park.

The affair will mark the first public appearance of the three negro posts of the American Legion in this city. Post 89 will furnish ushers for the affair.

Organizations which co-operated with the War Camp Community Service during the war will co-operate in producing the pageant. One unusual feature which will make the program worth while from a music lover's standpoint will be the singing of negro jubilee songs by a trained chorus.

IT'S PRECIOUS THESE DAYS

Pair Give Police Firearms and Silverware, but Want Liquor

George Kline and James Gentry made no objection to surrendering a firearm each and silverware valued at $800 when they were arrested by police of the Hunting Park avenue and Schuyler street station early yesterday morning. But when the police found ten quarts of brandy, which had previously escaped detection, in their possession, however, Gentry drew a second revolver and offered Gentry resistance.

The pair were arrested as they were driving a team along a thoroughfare adjacent to the station. Kline gave his address as 2226 North Seventeenth street and Gentry told the police he lived at 1706 Dalton street. They were held without bail by Magistrate Bryce for a hearing September 28.

GIRL WEDS HER FIRST LOVE

Henrietta Moser's Soldier Sweetheart Returns Just in Time

The marriage of Miss Henrietta Moser, of Thirty-third and York streets, is announced.

But not to Louis Gordon, 4346 Germantown avenue, to whom the coming marriage of Miss Moser was heralded in announcements several weeks ago. Miss Moser's soldier, Joseph Moskovits, 3719 North Eighteenth street, came from France last week and on Monday night—the night before her scheduled marriage to Gordon—she and Moskovits went to Reading and were married.

"I'd rather marry Joe than have the fine clothes, diamonds and automobiles Lou could give me," she explained to her mother in a note left behind.

NO HOLY NAME PARADE

Society Decides to Eliminate Annual Event for Rally

Plans for the annual demonstration and rally of the Holy Name Union of Philadelphia were formulated at the quarterly meeting of the union yesterday afternoon in St. Agatha's Parochial School, Thirty-fifth and Spring Garden streets.

The rally will be held on Columbus Day, October 12. It was decided yesterday to drop the usual parade. The thirty Holy Name Societies of the union will be divided into divisions of several societies each, and each division will have its own celebration and parade, if it so decides.

Child Upsets Gravy; Scalded Vincent Galeone, two years old, of 4291 Penn street, Frankford, was severely scalded yesterday when he upset a bowl of hot chicken gravy. The child's father carried him in his arms to the Frankford Hospital, where he was treated.

Save $112 on a Beautiful "Conreid" Player-Piano

Offered through the co-operative plan

Gimbel Club Now Forming

By this helpful method of selling the total cost to you is—

$510

Pay $3 Weekly—No Extras or Interest

The "Conreid" Player-piano needs no introduction or argument—Philadelphia knows it as a commanding good value at its full price.

The Gimbel Club Plan

is just this: By centering the attention of a city on just one style of instrument we are justified in buying a very great number. We effect a double saving—

1—It costs less to get any goods in a great lot.

2—It costs tremendously less to sell to a public already interested in just that one thing.

Every cent of expense is finally added to the cost of an article—nowhere else to add it. To save expense is to lessen selling price to you.

The club includes also the offering of—

"Milton" Upright Pianos, $335

—Saving $46.50

Pay $2.25 weekly—no extras of any kind

Player or piano can be had cased in—

Beautiful Mahogany or Oak as Preferred

Usually we can increase the number of instruments—buying three hundred to start with we can generally raise the order to four hundred, but by reason of manufacturing conditions the makers have no large stocks and therefore—

This Offer Will Quite Soon End

No "just-finished" instrument is ever sold here. It takes a period of seasoning to make sure that casework and finish will endure.

Every Instrument

is inspected and must be approved before delivering by—

Prof. William Silvano Thunder and Prof. Stanley Muschamp

These musicians are known to all Philadelphia—and their O. K. is worth much in reality and much to your peace of mind.
