Municipal Research Body Wants New Superintendent Free of Political Influence

BIG OPPORTUNITIES SEEN

Keep the new department of public welfare free from "partisan or factional selfishness." That is the plea made today by the Bureau of Municipal Research, referring to the new branch of the city administration which comes into being January 5. "The welfare department is new to Uhiladelphia," a bureau bulletin states. "This fact alone encourages the hope that this department may be spared from the very beginning the demoralizing consequences of 'political' administration.

"Whoever is to be our next Mayor has an unprecedented opportunity to start the department right by his choice of a director."

Department's Opportunities

Opportunities before the new department were touched upon as follows:

"The new charter gives control over charities, corrections and recreation to more. It gives the Council virtually unlimited power in assigning new welfare functions to this department in these words:

" 'It shall also have jurisdiction over such other matters affecting the public welfare as may be proveded by ordi-

"Here, at least, no one can complain of state interference. Here we have on the Spring Gard substantially complete home rule. But Saturday morning. home rule is no automatic device. If it is to be of benefit at all it must be utilized by the local authorities."

Candidates Pledged

The bureau pointed out that before the primary both Congressman Moore and Judge Patterson assured social workers of their interest in the new department, their replies containing 'not merely pleasant words, but in both cases a rather clearly thought out understanding of what the welfare department signifies.'

KEROSENE BALKS AUTOISTS

Car Refuses to Run on Borrowed Oil. / Arrest Follows

Charged with breaking open the kerosene tank in front of L. K. Drumhiller's blacksmith shop near Pottstown, which they thought contained gasoline, and then filling the tank of their automobile with the oil, men giv-ing the names of Joseph Dunn, Thomas Ryan, Louis Morris and Albert Walter of this city, were arrested by State Constables Mayson and Boldesser last

When they tried to start the machine bile without a proper license.

NAME HOSPITAL TEAMS

University Ready to Open Campaign

WELFARE BUREAU The first important step in the $1,000,000 campaign for the University Hospital was taken yesterday when a meeting of the team captains of the men's division was held at the Bellevue-Stratford headquarters. Caleb F. Fox, chairman of the executive committee, presided.

Dr. John G. Clark, of the medical staff of the hospital, made a brief address outlining the more serious needs of the institution and Edgar T. Honey, campaign director, explained the plan of campaign.
