

Belgian Cardinal Begins Day's Round of Activities With a Visit to Independence Hall

THE BELGIAN PRIMATE'S solacing smile, the smile that held his people brave in the darkness of the enemy's invasion—is a constant source of delight wherever the venerable cardinal goes.

ON THE old State House steps: From left to right are Bayard Henry, Bishop de Wachter, auxiliary bishop of Malines, Belgium; Archbishop Dougherty, John Wanamaker, Cardinal Mercier, Mayor Smith, Rt. Rev. Monsignor Michael J. Crane, E. T. Stotesbury, Judge John Monaghan, Samuel M. Vauclain and Paul Hagemans, Belgian consul general in the United States.

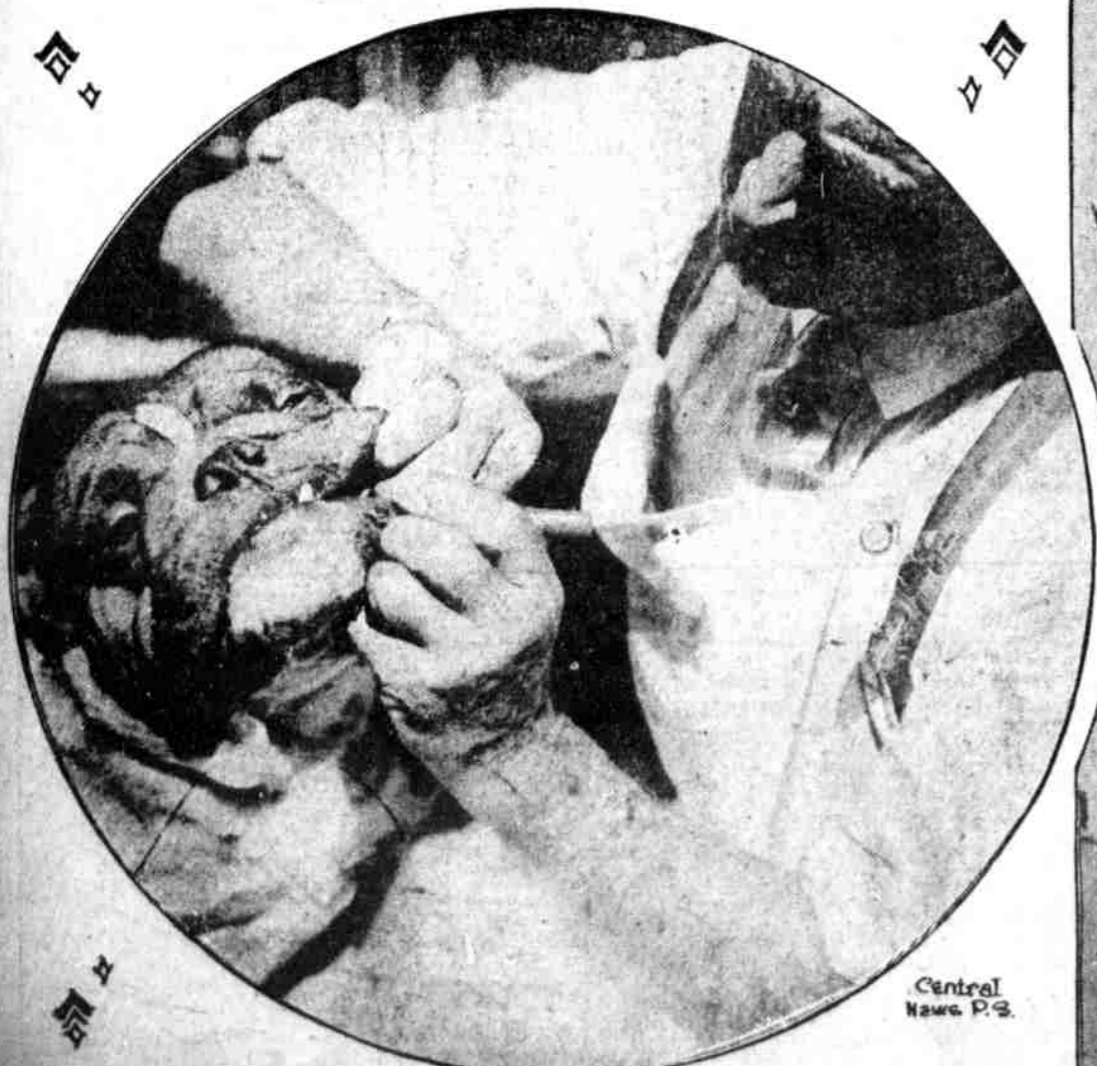

Ledger Photo Service...

RUNNING OFF football signals on Franklin Field. The Red and Blue team at practice for the coming battles.

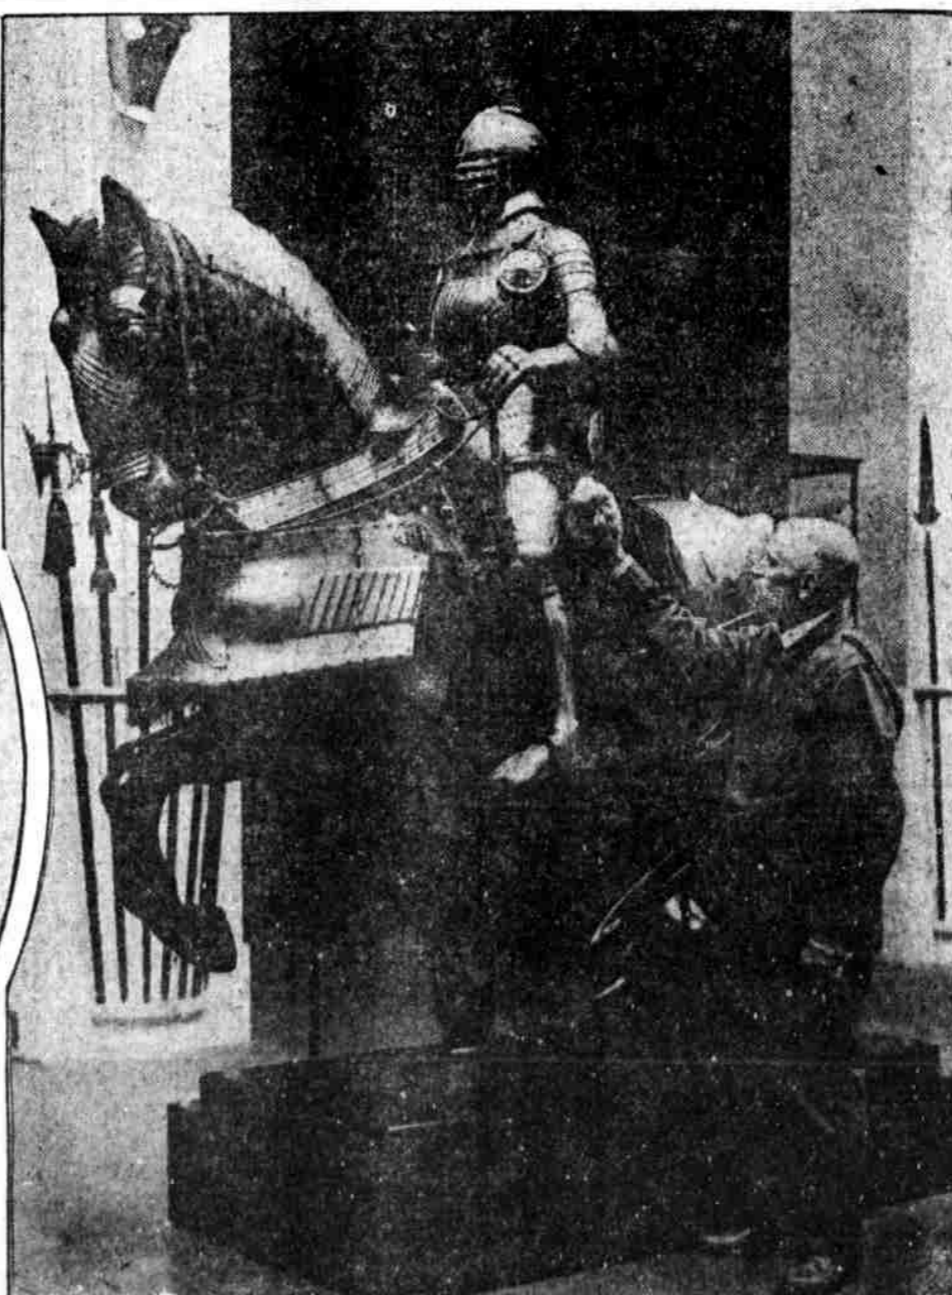

CARDINAL MERCIER has a handshake for all. The prelate leaving Independence Hall clasps the outstretched hand of a bystander.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

Central News P.S.

A NEW exclusive hotel for aristocratic canines in New York affords everything from a beauty parlor to plunge baths. Here is one of the guests in the hands of the hotel dentist.

KEEPING HIS suit shiny—James Farrell, valet to the knights of old, whose armor is exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum in New York.

MISS RUTH C. GEVENTER, 1416 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER