The field is one of the fastest and largest that ever competed. They are ere from every section of America. The present champion, two former champions, six finalists, including all five of those in the last five years, the champion of every large district, including the east and west, north and south state champions, and everything All of them have done something at golf or they couldn't play.

On paper, the Philadelphia entry list looked to have a wonderful chance. Up here in the rehearsals it hadn't looked so good. Dark clouds began to hover over fond hopes when Mrs. Ronald H. Barlow, Philadelphia champion, eastern title holder and virtually undefeated star of Philadelphia, was beaten yesterday by Mrs. Gavin in a little friendly match.

Much Gloom

All Mrs. Gavin did was shoot an 88 with three balls out of bounds. Break-ing into the 80's for women is like men most dangerous in national competibreaking into the 70's.
