

GOTO SEES FINISH OF SHANTUNG ISSUE

Japan's ex-Foreign Minister Says China Will Get Just and Equitable Proposal

DENIES SECRET AGREEMENT

Washington, Oct. 3.—Baron Shimpei Goto, formerly Japanese foreign minister and a member of the Japanese diplomatic advisory council, said in an authorized interview here yesterday that Japan "intends to settle" the Shantung question "so promptly that it is impracticable to set a date."

Baron Goto came to Washington, en route from Paris to Tokio, to pay his respects to President Wilson, but was prevented by the President's illness from calling at the White House. Japan, Baron Goto said, will soon ratify the Versailles treaty, and when that is done she will ask Germany to hand over to her all documents concerning Shantung. "Then," Baron Goto asserted, "Japan will submit to China a definite and liberal proposal as to the settlement of German rights. I am confident that this will be done within a few months."

The former foreign minister was asked to express his view of the Senate discussion on the Shantung question. He replied that his former connections with the Japanese Government had been such that his remarks might be misinterpreted as an expression of official opinion. He added, however, that he "admired all publicists, whether in or out of the Senate, who have spoken frankly and straightforwardly for or against the Shantung settlement in the peace treaty."

Baron Goto continued: "I have reason to believe that the plan for China-Japanese co-operation for the operation of the former German railway of some 270 miles and the former German mines in Shantung has already been formulated in a way decidedly favorable to China."

"Some people are still talking about the apparent indefiniteness of the time limit within which Japan intends to restore Kiaochow to China. Well, I think it would be easy for Japan to fix such a limit, if the time she intends to take to settle the matter were to extend over a considerable period, say two or three years. The fact is that she intends to settle the matter so promptly that it is impracticable to set a date."

"Japan will soon ratify the treaty, and when that is done she will ask Germany to hand over to her all documents concerning Shantung. Then Japan will submit to China a definite and liberal proposal as to the settlement of German rights. I am confident that this will be done within a few months. And when that is done the fair-minded Americans will agree that the adjustment is just and equitable."

"Referring to the statement emanating from China and appearing in the papers to the effect that the Chinese peace delegation had not known of the China-Japanese agreement of September, 1918, until Japan disclosed it at the Peace Conference. The intimation is, I take it, that the Japan kept that agreement secret. How strange that some people still think that the American public can be gulled by such obvious distortion of facts and may, I say, such childlike assertions."

SLAVS ORDER TROOPS TO AVERT CLASHES

Peace Envoys Believe Certain Italian Element Has Chip on Its Shoulder

Paris, Oct. 3.—(By A. P.)—Complying with suggestions of members of the Supreme Council, the Jugo-Slav Government has instructed all Jugo-Slav officers to avoid clashes with the Italians.

This precaution was advised because there appears to be general belief among the peace delegates that a certain element among the Italians is seeking trouble with the Jugo-Slavs as an excuse for the seizure of additional territory along the Dalmatian coast.

N. Y. REALTY JUMPS

Assessed Valuation in 1920 Will Rise $252,518,459

New York, Oct. 3.—Total assessed valuation of New York real estate in 1920 will reach $8,271,107,608, an increase of $252,518,459 over the present year in the five boroughs of the city, according to figures made public here by the Department of Taxes and Assessments.

Although only 6130 new buildings were erected in the current year, the report says, the increase in the assessed valuation was due to the "higher market value of property, due in part to rent proffering by landlords. Personal property assessments, the board says, were reduced to $785,947,400, as compared with $1,509,040,625 this year. Among the personal property holders John D. Rockefeller heads the list with an assessed valuation of $5,000,000. The next highest was Edward S. Harkness, $1,000,000; George F. Baker, $1,000,000; and Cathleen Vanderbilt, $1,000,000. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., was assessed at $500,000.

YALE HONORS MERCIER

Hailed as "Champion of Faith Which Looks Through Death"

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 3.—Cardinal Mercier was welcomed to Yale University yesterday, the reception following his arrival from Hartford, where he had received the degree of doctor of laws from Trinity College. On the way from Hartford the Belgian primate and his party stopped at Wesleyan University in Middletown, where the degree of doctor of laws was conferred on the churchman.

Cardinal Mercier was greeted at Yale University by Dr. A. T. Hadley, president. Dr. Hadley addressed the visitor as a "victorious champion of the faith which looks through death." Yale University paid homage to Cardinal Mercier, the Belgian primate, at an impressive convocation in Wesleyan Hall last night. The degree of doctor of laws was conferred on the primate by Doctor Hadley, who referred to the churchman's "triple crown of service in the world of thought, in the church and in the armed conflict."

Glowing Autumn Hats Are in Their Heyday

So lovely are they that every woman feels she simply must have a new hat and at once. Velvets are in glowing shades of brown, the true Autumn gold, and in a wonderful collection of blues and purples. Black is, of course, the favorite, but it is often brightened by a knot of French blue, a cluster of Autumn leaves or a bit of gay embroidery.

A Splendid Gathering of Hats at $5, $6 and $8 will be ready for Saturday. Hundreds of fresh new hats, radiant and charming, will make their bow.

All the Little Maids From School will find here the kind of hats they like. The velours with long ribbon streamers are ever so fetching, and for Sunday best there are some exciting little velvet pokes that small girls will love. Prices start at $3 for the school hats.

Over 1500 Fine Winter Coats for Women to Choose From—Many Are Less Than Regular Price and All Are Good Value

$16.50 to $29.50, warm, nicely made coats of silvertone velour, kersey, cheviot, tweed, etc., are in various styles. Some are trimmed with coney or sealene fur and have silk linings.

$32.50 to $45

Fine silk-lined coats of velour, silvertone, broadcloth, etc., are in models for all figures and there are both plain and fur-trimmed coats to select from.

A velour coat at $32.50 is in brown, green, black or navy with a silk lining. The value is unusual.

The Attractive Cape Collar

on another coat is of deep, soft sealene fur. The coat is of velour in taupe, brown or navy, lined throughout with silk and is worth quite a bit more than its price of $49.50. It is from the group of coats between $47.50 and $69.50 and is but an example of the many good values in bolivia, tinselstone, etc., trimmed with nutria, sealene, Australian opossum, etc.

Other handsome new coats priced up to $195

Women's Suits So Trim and Smart! No Wonder They Are Fashionable

New fabrics, old fabrics used in a new way, delightful colors, refreshingly new lines—oh, suits are holding sway this Autumn! All the way from the sportive wool jersey to the soft, handsome suits of velour, topped with fur, suits are showing how different they can be in one season.

A Group of Distinctive Suits at $47.50 to $55

Included are suits of velour, silvertone, velour de laine and some of broadcloth. The fur collars are lovely and there is great opportunity of individual selection. Roll collars of near-seal or raccoon alternate with large collars of ringtail or Australian opossum. Some of the suits have fur pockets also or cuffs trimmed with fur. Other suits in the group have interesting vests and standing fur collars.

Sports Suits

Wool jersey suits in brown and olive shades are $32.50.

Tweed suits are in the warm, brown tones that have come into their own this season. $37.50.

Velour Suits at $45

Soft, good velour in the fashionable shades is splendidly tailored into very attractive suits in several models. One has a detachable fur collar of near seal; another, with a rippling jacket, is embroidered in silk and is finished with a large fur collar. Bands of near-seal fur trim the collar and the bottom of the jacket of a charming model with a handsome broadcloth vest. A suit from this group is sketched.
