NO COMPROMISE IN ZONE-FARE CASE Members Smile or Chuckle When Informed Next Board Meet-

Collingswood Rejects 7-Cent "Feeler"-Plan Test in U. S. Supreme Court

"No compromise" was the determination of the residents of Collingswood, N. J., last night at a public meeting. called as the result of the receipt of a "feeler." said to emanate from the Public Service Railway Company, on from Thomas Boyle, banker, and, until the return to the seven-cent fare. The Harry T. Stoddart was appointed last meeting was held in the Mehodist week, the youngest member of the Church, and was attended by more than 400 persons.

Chamber of Commerce, a mighty interesting meeting.' presided and announced that he had mented upon the organization of young ing action. The outcome of the affair was the borough solicitor, Judge John B. Kates, be abolished forthwith and the straight charges against the utilities commis-

A fund also was raised by public suball candidates for the state legislature their share. in the state before the election next month, and on which they will be asked to take a stand.

An appeal to the Association of Mu-Company to the United States Supreme Court for final decision. The question involved is the same as the present trolley controversy-upholding of utilities franchises.

The sewer case already has been fought through the state courts and is Supreme Court. It was further agreed that if the other municipalities, all of which are similarly affected, refuse to Odenatt, co-operate, Collingswood counsel shall be instructed to proceed with the case

Deaths of a Day

REV. D. H. COOLEY DIES

Well-Known Retired Baptist Minister Was Eighty-eight Years Old The Rev. Dr. D. H. Cooley, a retired Baptist minister and well known in that denomination, died last night at his home, 221 West Johnson street

Germantown. He was eighty-eight Doctor Cooley was born in Rochester, N. Y., February 5, 1830. He graduated from Rochester University and Theological Seminary and was ordained at Clyde, N. Y., in 1857. He held pastorates in Wisconsin, Iowa and Illinois, His church at Canton, Ill., was at one time the largest Baptist church of that

Doctor Cooley held many revivals secretary of the old Chicago University Darby. the time of its greatest need. Funeral services will be conducted this afternoon by the Rev. Dr. Charles daughters, Mrs. C. J. McNitt, of Chicago and of California, and Mrs. E. C. Brune, of Kentucky, and a son, Albert rally. N. Cooley, of Altoona.

Albert B. Balley

After devoting forty years to newspaper work Albert B. Bailey, well-known Philadelphia newspaper man and financial, editor of the Record, died yesterday at his home, 1503 Master street. He had been ill for many months the street. He had been ill for many months are all and landequate Facilities

James L. Gibbs

James L. Gibbs, who had been connected with the United States customs service here fifty years, died yesterday at his home, 4031 Spring Garden street. this city to accept a position in the growing so rapidly that it should have appraiser's department of the custom a building of its own.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow at S p. m., at his home. Interment will be made in the family plot in ing number of students. It will be

Mrs. Sarah Odenatt

Mrs. Sarah Odenatt, widow of Wil-Ham H. Odenatt, died yesterday at her home, 3534 North Eighteenth street, agad eighty-three years. Mrs. Odenatt had been in poor health four years. For many years she was a teacher in the Sunday school of Emanuel Episcopal Church, Kensington. Her husband, who died two years ago, was band, who died two years ago, was bend of the mechanical department of the Northeast Manual Training School and later held a similar position in the South Philadelphia High School for Boys, his service covering a period of the States served and later reads. It is survived by three the service men pesterday, is an old offender. He is the period of the service covering a period of the service men pesterday, is an old offender. He is the service covering a period of the service men pesterday, is an old offender. He is the service covering a period of the service men period of the service men

SCHOOL HEADS MAKE LIGHT OF YOUNG DEMOCRACY MOVE

ing Is to Be Picketed by New Organization on the board.

ular campaign. There will be girls who will be known as "silent sentinels" and they will picket the administration building at board meetings, flaunting banners and legends concerning the deficiencies of the board. One of the leading reforms wanted is younger members

Among other reforms asked are a more responsible to the people; board and who will be more responsive to fitted to work when they leave school.

Wolf Refuses to Comment

when asked his opinion of the new or-ganization, said he did not wish to be quoted on the subject.

Edwin Wolf, president of the board,

"I cannot answer for what the Board autocratic or if there should be an age limit for board members he refused to Simon Gratz, who has been a ment better for wiser heads to keep cool and quiet when such subjects arose. He expressed himself as dead tired of such foolish talk concerning the public school against whom much of the antagonism

Thomas Shallcross, another member

EVADES CARNIVAL BAN

Owner Moves to Private Lot, But

Curbs Gambling Games

banished by Mayor Smith one carnival owner is running his show today through drive carnivals from private property.

But the carnival is being conducted with many changes. No sugar is being raffled and no money is being added to induce people to buy chances on bas-

Burglars Loot Shoe-Repair Shop

North Marshall street, early this more several dollars from the slot gas mete-ing, burglars looted the place and stole

By forcing open the rear door of the noemaker's shop of Frank Ogorick, 604

kets of groceries.

Although street carnivals have been of the young democracy is pointed.

Some members of the Board of Edu- pointed to work out details of a spectaccation chuckled with genuine amusement today, others smiled rather grimly, but all made light of the Young Democracy of Philadelphia, the organi-TO DRAFT LAW AMENDMENT zation started to war against the Board

The news that the Young Democ racy expected to have girls picket the next meeting of the board in the Administration Building, Nineteenth and Market streets, carrying banners with such legends as "Can autocracy teach democracy?" brought a hearty laugh tails of up-to-date school administration

"Great!" said Mr. Boyle. "I'll be 400 persons.

Harry J. Belz, president of the any attractions. That ought to make

Then, in more serious vein, he combeen requested, as head of the Chamber, men and women to fight the board. "If to agree to a return to the pre-zone they are wanting to put boys and girls of Education may do in the matter," he fare rate of seven cents. He added on the Board of Education, it is all right said, "because I have talked to no one that he had been told the Public Services are no honors to the job. It is a any attention in it. I look upon the ice would agree to such a proposal. lot of work for nothing. Any time item merely as a piece of news. I The meeting, he said, was called to get they want to put a boy in my place knew nothing of the organization, and Discussing the crowded condition of I never heard of Hallett till I saw the the cars around the "peak load" hours.

But I think it is the easiest thing story in the papers. in the world to suggest improvements passage of resolutions instructing the and tell other people how to do things. borough solicitor, Judge John B. Kates, When a man like John Wanamaker to "demand" that the zone fair system gives his time day after day to study-ing the financial problems of the school be abolished forthwith and the straight five-cent fare with free transfers be restored. Judge Kates is appearing before the governor today in the hearing of the charges against the utilities commissions. Simon Gratz, who has been a ment system it goes to show that everything is being done that possibly can be. It is all very well to suggest that the charges against the utilities commissions. Simon Gratz, who has been a ment system it goes to show that everything is being done that possibly can be. It is all very well to suggest that the charges against the utilities commissions. activity, or that we should have many new buildings. Where is the money A fund also was raised by public sub-scription for the employment of counsel

I can assure you that the superintendfor board members to ignore such an orthe drafting of a bill amending the ent and the associate superintendents are thoroughly competent and doing an ization and make no comments.

Gratz is said to be the "school czar" utilities act, which will be submitted to are thoroughly competent and doing

Call Board Superannuated

George H. Hallett, Jr., secretary of the Young Democracy, which is said of the board for many years, said he nicipalities also will be made to take to include aggressive men and women, was trying to do his duty and he knew a test case of the Collingswood Sewer most of them college graduates, says the object of the organization is to force public attention upon the superannuated as this young democracy thing," he body which has shown itself to be blin! said. "I feel confident that much of it to all progressive ideas in the adminis comes from personal grudge against Mr. tration of the public schools.

A special committee has been ap-(Gratz, who is one of the board's most ready for presentation to the Federal children, Mrs. Franklin Reinbold, Miss Elizabeth Odenatt and Dr. W. Burrill

> Dr. George W. Parker Stricken last Friday at his home, 5030 Market street, Dr. George W.

Parker, a retired physician, eighty the simple means also moving to a vacant years old, died Sunday. He was a native Philadelphian, graduating from the first class of Hahnemann College police does not give them authority to and served during the Civil War with the Eighteenth Pennsylvania Volun-teers. He was a past commander of Mende Post, G. A. R.

Mrs. Nathan M. Grafton

Following a week's illness of pneu-nonia, Mrs. Bessie Isanc-Grafton, wife of Nathan M. Grafton, died at her home, 124 North Second street, Darby, Sunday night. Mrs. Grafton was in her sixty-eighth year. She was a member of the Darby Presbyterian Church, in which her husband is a deacon, Be sides her husband she is survived by five children, Mrs. Richard S. Grassman, of Port Elizabeth, N. J.; William H. and John M. Grafton, of Co-Doctor Cooley held many revivals lingsdale; Charles Grafton, of West during his ministry. He was financial Philadelphia, and Joseph Grafton, of Philadelphia, and Joseph Grafton, of

Mrs. Susanna Shunk

this afternoon by the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Dodd, pastor of the Second Baptist of her hundredth birthday, Mrs. Sus-Church; the Rev. Dr. John Gordon, anna Shunk died yesterday at the dean emeritus of the theological department of Temple University, and the Rev. Dr. Chalmers.

Interment will be in Morgan Park, Despite her advanced years she was in excellent health until three months ago, when she was stricken with an indisposition from which she did not Fuperal services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday, at the home of Mrs. Bowman.

street. He had been ill for many months with a complication of diseases.

Mr. Bailey began his career on the Record in 1881 and had served with newspapers on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. In 1904 he was made city editor of the Record. He left this post in 1910 to take a similar post on the Tacoma, Wash., Ledger, returning to Philadelphia in 1912 to take the position he has held for the last seven years as financial editor.

Mr. Bailey began his career on the Record enrollment in the undergraduate departments of the University of Pennsylvania with the certain steady increase has made obvious the need for more equipment, more endowment and a larger faculty, according to the Pennsylvania Gazette.

"There can be no question but that the University is at the beginning of a great expansion." says the Gazette. "But this steady increase in the undergraduate body means that we must have more equipment, more endowment and a larger faculty. Many of the buildings are much too small for the classes they was thouse any several of the decimal properties. ings are much too small for the classes they must house and several of the departments are scattered throughout a number of buildings.

"The School of Education, for example, is obliged to house its teachers here, there and everywhere. This school is Mr. Gibbs spent his boyhood days on a there and everywhere. This school is farm in Montgomery county, Mary-land. When a young man he came to

"For a number of years nearly every building on the campus has been over Mr. Gibbs is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Laura G. Scanlan, of this year is tabulated, but we alters, Mrs. Laura G. Brereton, of Washington, and a brother, Frank M. Gibbs, of this city. He was a member of Holy Apostle's Episcopal Church, and of the Odd Fellows.

Some time before the some ing number of students. It will be some time before the total enrollment for this year is tabulated, but we already know that the throng of students anxious to obtain their collegiate education at Pennsylvania has broken all records.

Postpone School Carrier

The opening of the fall term of the Philadelphia School of Occupational Therapy, scheduled for yesterday, has been postponed until October Larger class-rooms than those occupied last year at 1705 Walnut street have been secured at 2131 Spruce street

Say Prisoner Is Counterfelter

TO END CONGESTION

H. C. Tulley Tells Frankford Folk Nickel Fare Is Here

to Stay

WANT TO END EXCHANGES

The use of "trailers" to prevent conteacher member on the board; a woman gested trolley cars, elimination of exmember; laws that will make the board change tickets and the assurance that five-cent fares are here to stay, were high points in a transit program outlined last night by Herbert G. Tulley, progressive ideas; vocational training vice president of the Philadephia Rapid for boys and girls, so they will be better Transit Company.

Mr. Tulley, speaking at a meeting of the Frankford Board of Trade, discussed plans the transit company has for the immediate future. Before broadening his talk to embrace the transit problems affecting the entire city, he informed the business men that skipstop at Frankford avenue and Sellers street would be abolished within a week, and that early completion of the Frankford elevated line would be urged

Mr. Tulley said trailer cars would be When asked if he thought the board employed soon on many of the city stocratic or if there should be an age lines to prevent congestion.

President Mitten, of the transit com pany, Mr. Tulley declared, will go be fore Councils soon and urge the elimi nation of the exchange ticket.

The Frankford business men met in the Free Library, Frankford avenue and Overington street. Other ad-dresses were made by John Sidebotham. chairman of the board's Americaniza tion committee, and by Robert J. Mc Kenty, warden of the Eastern Peni tentiary.

Mr. Sidebotham said there were 15. 000 unnaturalized aliens in the north-east. Warden McKenty decried the influence of motion pictures, asserting that the showing of hold-up scenes NARCISSUS Paper White Grandiflora, Just received from France. Each 6c, 60c per doz., per 100, $3.50. Pebbles, 10c qt.

Any of the above will produce a few weeks a profusion of eautiful sweet scented flowers. Also Hyncinths, Tulips, Crocus Daffodils and other seasonable

SIB MARKET ST.

Those who sell Fownes Gloves do not have to force or explain their wares. Since 1777 buyers have found them the best of

FOR MEN WOMEN & CHILDREN

BONWIT TELLER & CO.

The Specialty Shop of Originations
CHESTNUT AT 13TH STREET

COATS & CAPES of Pure Camel's Hair

THAT sense of true association with environment is realized in the Sports and Country Clothes originated by this shop; Style theme, materials and colorings are distinguished by an exclusivity which sets them apart from the commonplace.

FEATURED are topcoats and capes of the natural pure "Worumbo" Camel's Hair;—An exclusively new fabric, the most aristocratic of all coatings for the woman who drives her own car, or is otherwise athletic.

NOTEWORTHY in this collection are the three-quarter length English box coats, the shorter coat with large patch pockets, and string belt. Also a very swagger model with raglan or set in sleeves, slit pockets and fasten-over belt.

Colors: Maduro and Mocha Brown, Victory Blue, Navy, Black and the natural undyed color.

95.00 110.00 125.00

WOMEN'S DEPT. SECOND FLOOR

Strawbridge & Clothier Have

Extensive Stocks of Hosiery and Underwear for the Whole Family

We cannot duplicate

these assortments to sell at our present low prices

been generally recognized as this city's chief distributing centre for all the standard grades of Knitted Underwear and Hosiery-in periods of under-production as well as in times of plenty. There's always a plentiful supply here. We have maintained rials, of all yarns and of labor has been climbing for the past few years. But perhaps it is worth while to assure you that we have, during this period, never failed to anticipate rising costs by from six to twelve

We need not tell you that the cost of raw mate-this Store's reputation as HEADQUARTERS.

For the past generation or more, this Store has months, that our present stock-on-hand could not be replaced to-day without paying much more than we paid, and could not be sold at prices as low as are White Ribbed Cotton High-neck Vests, autumn weight; with long, elbow or short sleeves; Drawers, ankle or knce length, with tight or lace knees; Tights, with tight or lace knees; regular sizes, 65c; extra sizes, 75c.

Women

UNDERWEAR

Medjum-weight Ribbed Cotton Vests and Tights; regular sizes, $1,00; extra sizes, $1.25. Union Suits, regular sizes, $1.75; extra sizes, $2.00,

Light-weight Ribbed Cotton Union Suits, high neck, long sleeves, ankle length; Dutch neck, clbow sleeves, ankle length; low neck, short sleeves, knee length;
low neck, no sleeves, ankle length; regular sizes, $1.25; extra sizes, $1.50.

White Ribbed Worsted Union Suits, high neck, long sleeves. ankle length; Dutch neck, elbow sleeves, ankle length; regular sizes, $2.25; extra sizes, $2.50. Ribbed Silk and Merino Union Suits, high neck, long sleeves, ankle length; low neck, no sleeves, ankle or knee length; regular sizes, $3.00; extra sizes, $3.50.

HOSIERY

Burson "Knit-to-fit" Cotton Stockings, 6 pairs of a size, $1.50. Mercerized Lisle Stockings, in dovan—65c a pair.

Mercerized Lisle Stockings, ribbed tops, in black only—75c.

Lisle Stockings, full-fashioned, in black, navy blue, brown and gray—75c a pair.

Full-fashioned Thread-Silk 16
Na
Pair.

Na
Cash

Full-fashioned Thread-Silk 16-inch-boot Stockings, black and Cashmere Socks—50c. colors—$1.50 a pair.
Full-fashioned Thread - Silk
Stockings, black and colors —
$2.00 a pair.

Balbriggan Shirts, long or short sleeves, and Drawers, in regular or stout length; autumn weight; sizes up to 44, at $1.25; sizes 46 to 50, $1.40; 52 to 60, $1.50 each. Ecru Ribbed Cotton Shirts and short sleeves; drawers in regular or stout length-$2.00 each. "Madewell" Union Suits medium weight, eeru ribbed cot-ton; long or short sleeves, ankle length-$2.50.

"Madewell" Union Suits, medium-weight natural merino; long sleeves, ankle or stout length -$4.00.

HOSIERY

Black Cotton Socks, full-fashioned-50c n pair.

UNDERWEAR

Drawers, medium weight-$1.65 Natural Merino Shirts, long or length; long sleeves, stout length, and short sleeves three-quarter-

"Madewell" Union Suits, of medium-weight natural worsted; long sleeves, ankle or stout length -$3.50.

Cotton Socks in autumn weight; high spliced heels and double soles; black and colors—25c pr. Mercerized Lisle Socks, in black, navy blue, cordovan and gray-35c a pair, or 3 pairs for $1.00

Natural Merino Socks-39c a

Thread-Silk Socks, full - fash- ioned; in black and colors-$1.00.

UNDERWEAR

Children's White Ribbed Cotton Vests and Pantalets, heavy weight; sizes 2 to 16—60c to 95c each, according to size.

Children's Medium-weight Rib-bed Cotton Vests, long or short sleeves, and Pantalets, in knee or ankle length-75c, 85c and 95c, according to size. Children's White Ribbed Fleeced Cotton Drop-seat Union Suits-$1.00 and $1.15, according

Boys' Gray Fleeced Ribbed Cotton Shirts and Drawers, small sizes-75c; large sizes, 85c. Boys' Ribbed Balbriggan Union Suits, long sleeves, ankle length— $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75, according to size.

Cotton Union Suits, long sleeves, ankle length — 85c, $1.00 and $1.15, according to size. White Domet Flannel Sleeping Suits, with feet-$1.50 to $2.00,

Boys' Gray Fleeced Ribbed

according to size.

HOSIERY Boys' Heavy Black Cotton Stockings, extra strong heels and toes; sizes 6½ to 8, 25c; 8½ to Boys' Wayne-knit Ribbed Cotton Stockings, black only: 61/2 to 71/4, 40c; sizes 8 to 9, 45c; sizes 9 1/2 and 10, at 50c.

Children's Ribbed Mercerized Cotton Stockings, in black, white, leather-color, cordovan and slate shades; sizes 7 to 9, 55c to 75c, according to size. Children's Mercerized Lisle Stockings, in black, white or tan; sizes 5 to 814, 50c; 9 and 914,

Every Woman Should See Our Wonderful Assortments of Suits and Dresses

Everything that is new or desirable, in fabric, fashion or shade, is here represented. The values are the very best obtainable, and all our lines are complete. Also, we are carrying this year a fine line of Suits and Dresses in Extra Sizes,

Suits

Smartly Tailored $27.50 to $40.00

Cheviots, serges, tweeds, whipcords, mixtures, burella and delhi cloths, developed in belted models, plaited or with a soft bit of gathering at the waist-line, others without belts, made on close, plaintailored lines. Black, navy blue, reindeer, brown, taupe plum color and green.

Many Others $60.00 to $150.00

Suits for practical wear and dress occasions, showing coats in -varying lengths, some reaching nearly to the ankles. Beltcd and semibelted effects, plain-tailored models without belts, blouse models, and some on straight lines loosely girdled. Some with vests of duvetine, some embroidered, some fur trimmed. Black, navy blue, reindeer, brown, taupe, plum and green.

186 → Strawbridge & Clothler-Second Floor, Centre

Dresses Cloth Dresses, $40.00 to $75.00

Featuring the redingote, the coatee, the blouse, the peplum and the straight-line effects. Of serge, tricotine and velour, some embroidered, some trimmed with braid, some plain - tailored. One striking model in serge has clusters of accordion plaiting. One model is finished with clustered strappings of the material. A few models are of serge-and-satin combined -an excellent variety, the finest we have ever shown.

Of Crepe de Chine and Satin, $18.75 to $30

Plaited and tunic models, in taupe, navy blue and black. Some in vestee styles, some with the flat bodice with the quaint round neck. All very good looking. 13 -> Strawbridge & Clothier-Second Floor, Market Street

Strawbridge & Clothier STREET STREET