

On the Greensward at the Bryn Mawr Horse Show : Mercier, LL. D. : Transcontinental Flier

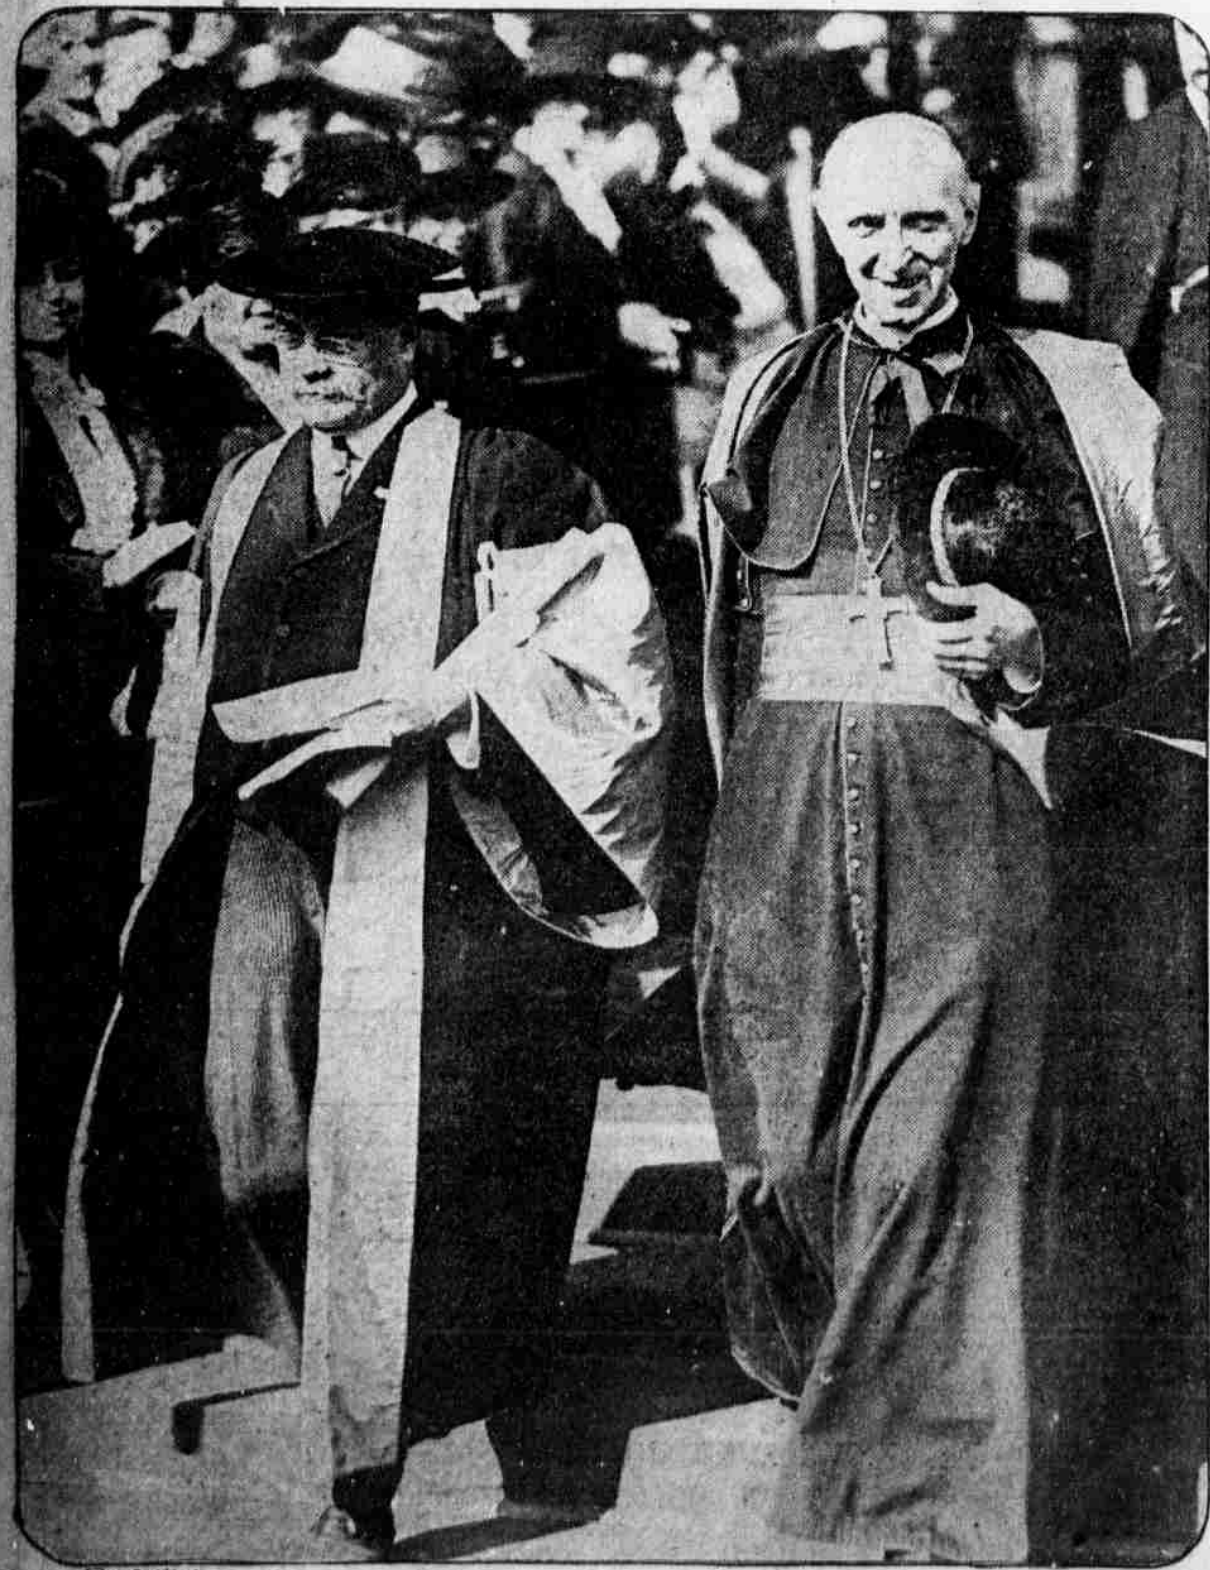

Ledger Photo Service...

EFFECTIVE COLOR harmonies abounded at Bryn Mawr in the well-tailored and kownd assemblage that filled the grand stand and the green about the oval at the opening of the twenty-fifth annual Bryn Mawr Horse Show. In the view, left to right, are Miss Elizabeth Patterson, of Wilmington, Del.; Mrs. John H. Brownback, of Bryn Mawr, and Miss Nancy Sellers, of Philadelphia

R. PENN SMITH, JR., topping the timbers on Robert L. Gerry's Huntley

CARDINAL MERCIER and President Nicholas Murray Butler, of Columbia University. The Belgian primate was presented with the honorary degree of doctor of laws by Columbia University at an impressive ceremony on the library steps in the presence of the student body and hundreds of distinguished guests

Ledger Photo Service...

WATCHING THE opening events of Bryn Mawr's equine program—at the left is Mrs. William J. Clothier, in the center is Mrs. Victor Mather, and on the right is Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge

LIEUTENANT B. W. MAYNARD, the "flying parson," and his mechanic, Kline. Speeding at the rate of approximately two miles a minute, Lieutenant Maynard was the first transcontinental flier to reach Chicago from Mincola, L. I., on the flight to San Francisco.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS HILDA C. NORTON, Glenside, Pennsylvania. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.