Golf Champion Defeats Mrs. Vanderbeck and Now Is Permanent Possessor of Trophy

DECISION IS THREE AND TWO

By SANDY MCNIBLICK

Noble, Pa., Oct. 11.-Mes. Ronald H. Barlow, woman's golf casmpion of Philadelphia, Eastern and North and South titleholder, added one more feather to her season's triumphs today. She beat Mrs. Clarence II. Vanderbeck in the finals for the classic Berthellyn Club at Huntingdon Valley, This was the Merion star's third win,

And she is now entitled to the cup.
Mrs. Barlow has been beaten only once this season and that was at the national by Mrs. Vanderbeek.
Mrs. Vanderbeek was sadily off on her approach chip shots and was not her usual brilliant self with her putter.
This was the Merchant of the cup. This made all the difference in the world, as a few breaks in her favor added to a steady game put Mrs. Barlow right up there at all times, even though Mrs. Vanderbeck outdrove her rom nearly every tee except the final hole.

Mrs. Barlow was all square again after having been three down at the sixth. She won four of the pext five holes and was finally one up at the eleventh. Mrs. Barlow was out in 43 to a 45 by Mrs. Vanderbeck.

The latter was due to a 9 on the fifth hole, approximated. She was in the creek and was playing six there when she picked up. Up to that hole and the ninth she was only one over par despite her troubles with her mashie.
