

Scholastic Elevens in Gridiron Battle : Securing Royal Autograph : Bryn Mawr Equine Leap

QUARTERBACK SAUNDERS, of Central High, carrying the ball toward Wilmington High's goal as he is downed by the Delaware eleven. Central's speedy eleven was victorious in the contest played on Houston Field, Twenty-ninth and Somerset streets, by the score of 40 to 0.

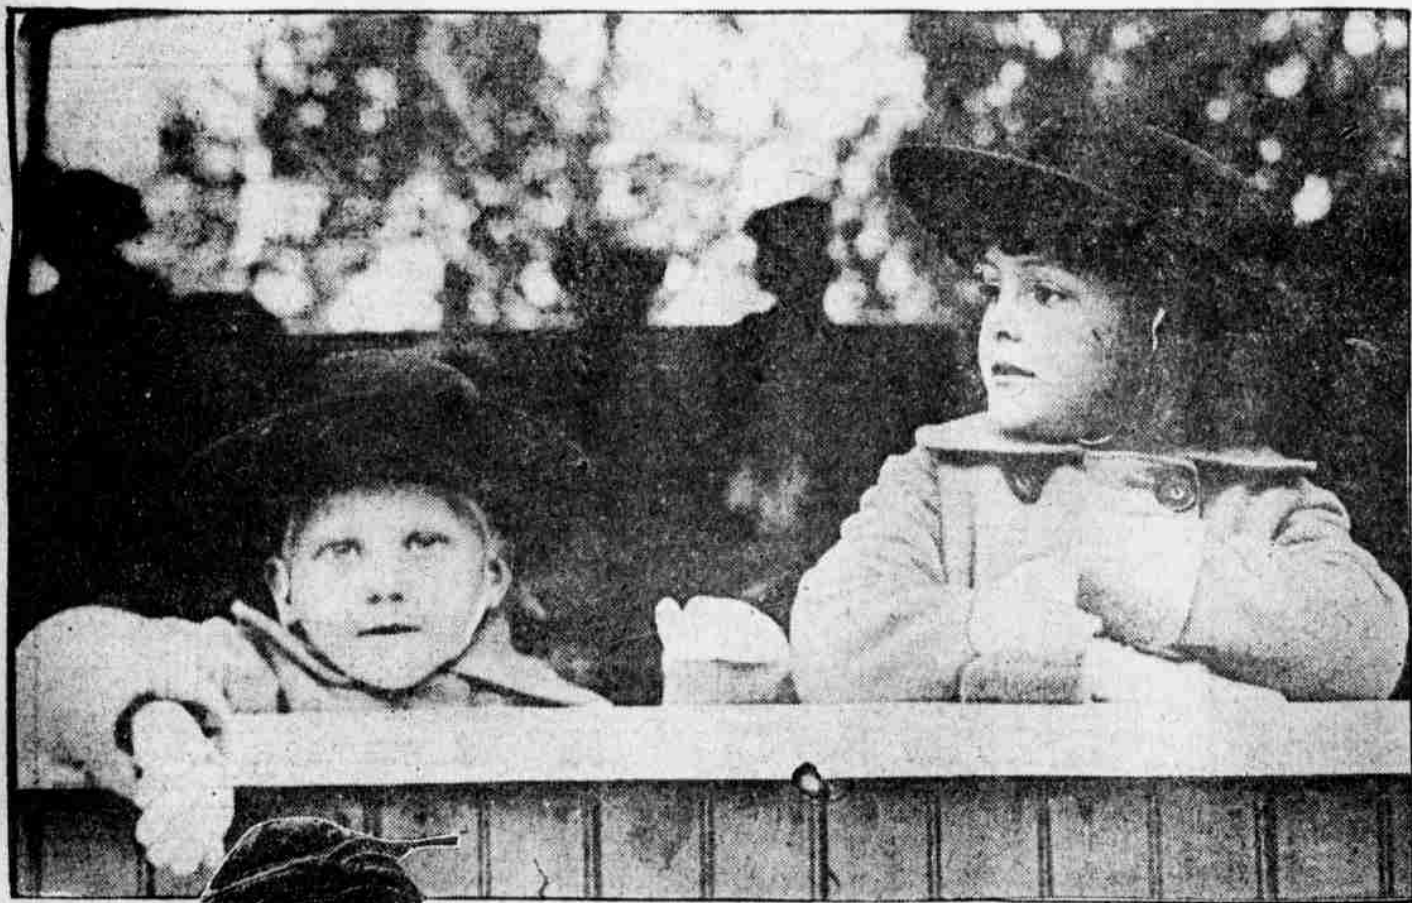

TRYING THE END. Hayes, the Wilmington High fullback, trying his speed on Houston Field in the gridiron contest with the Philadelphia Central High School eleven.

OVER THE hurdles at Bryn Mawr. Mrs. Charles A. Munn, Jr., clearing the timbers on Peter Gray.

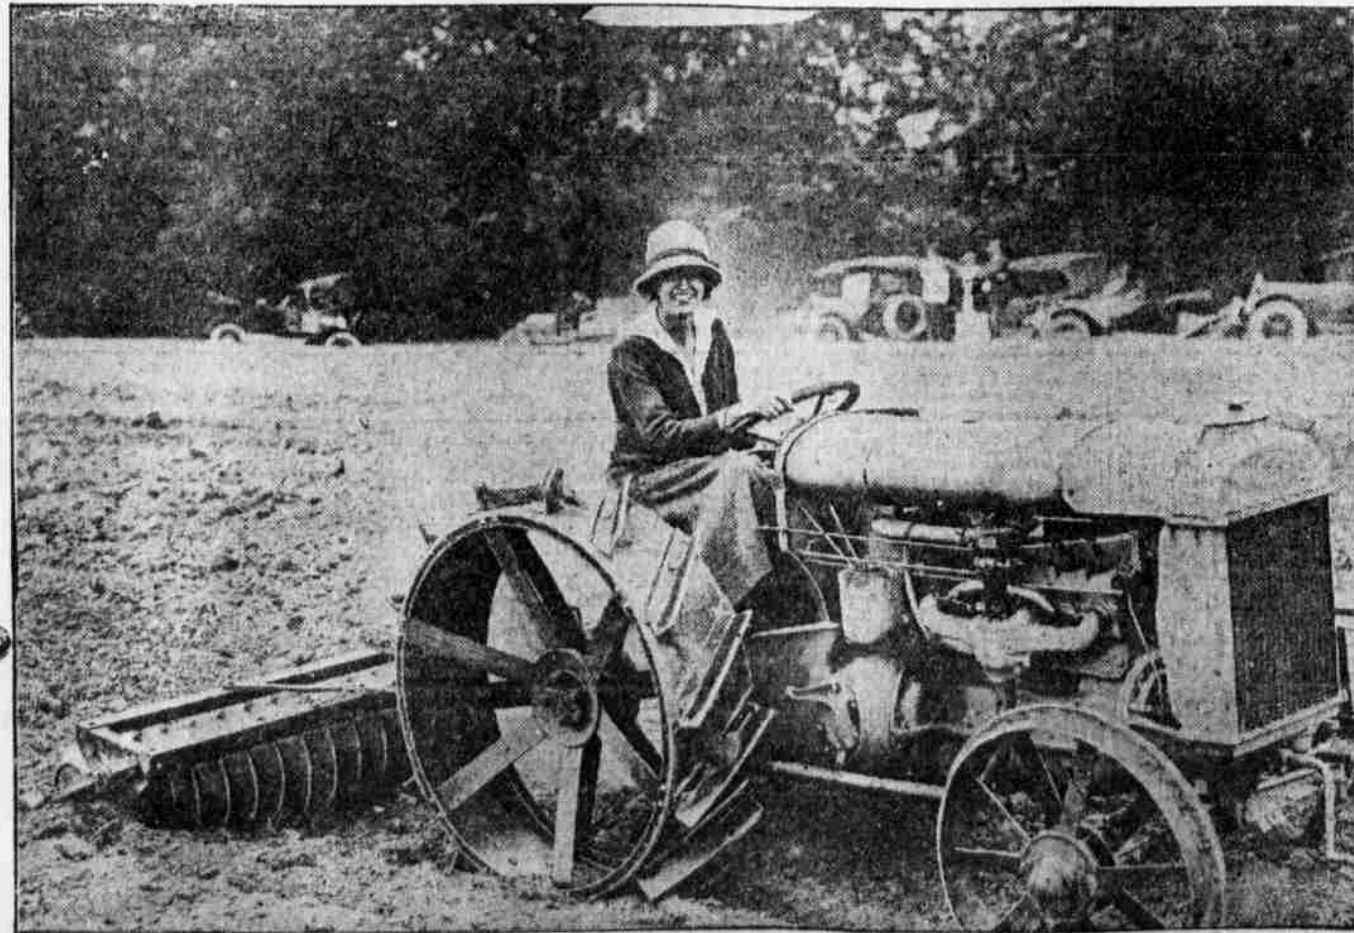

ADDING A ROYAL signature to her collection. The Prince of Wales writing his autograph for a school teacher at Maple Creek, Saskatchewan.

YOUTH AT Bryn Mawr, greatly interested in the pony display—Emily Louise Brooks and Walter B. Brooks, grandchildren of E. T. Stotesbury.

GABY DESLYS, musical comedy star from France, arrived at New York on the liner La France without so much as a press agent's paragraph to herald her coming.

MISS CORNELIA VANDERBILT driving a tractor with discplow and and clod breaker at a farmwork exhibition in the mountain district of western North Carolina.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ADA KAHN, 521 Snyder avenue, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.