NEED ANY SUGAR? PAGE CUBA! CREW RELATES SWEET TALE

Returning Mariners Declare Land Is Overflowing With Cane. Got So Much of It They Are Forced to Burn Some

When any one says "sugar" down Cuba, they laugh and throw a fifth onful into the coffee. They don't is if or conserve it or put it up in be envelopes like headache powders, by sand the car tracks with it. Chat is the tale, probably the sweet story ever told, which the crew of Lake Aurice, a sugar ship from res, Cuba, has brought to this port, by say that the segment to wan of mes is so full of sugar that a person

They say that the senport town of Banes is so full of sugar that a person can't walk down a street without get ling for eighteen grains of the singli-ling for eighteen grains of the singli-this country. That seems to be the real explanation of the sugar situation as it how stands, he contends. It is a short as the workings. The chief mate of the Lake Aurise says that the storehouses in Banes are baded with sacks of crude sugar, most of which have been there for the last The same officer said that the rea
