VHOLESOME CEREAL—A CHARMING WRAP—WOMAN'S EXCHANGE—THE PLEASURE OF WISHING MRS. WILSON GIVES DIRECTIONS CAN YOU GET ENJOYMENT TIME FOR TOPCOATS AGAIN Please Tell Me What to Do FOR PREPARING BREAKFAST If You Can You Will Be Able to Stand Disappointments By CYNTHIA Cereal Should Be Cooked Where You Can See Egg Cream Toast Is Deli-Shall She Write? Mrs. Wilson's Movies Over Night in Double cious for an Unusual Dear Cynthia-Again I come to you for advices. I am a girl seventeen and am acquainted with a young man who is now in the army. We have gone to Boiler or Fireless Cooker Meal to Begin the Day or MRS. WILSON'S interesting cooking scenarios that are continuing to create such interest are is now in the army. We have gone to for an Invalid's Tray to Be Thoroughly Done school together and about one year after being shown this week as follows: By MRS. M. A. WILSON few seeded raisins and cover with

Copyright, 1919, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All Rights Reserved. WELL - PREPARED breakfast cereal is most important if we are to start the day right. Poor and neufficiently cooked cereal will cause ntestinal disturbances and make the amily irritable and unable to do their work at par. When mother must care for the antire family, without help of a maid, daughter can prepare the breakfast cereal while sonny is laying the table. Cereal requires long, slow and constant cooking and for this reason either a double-boiler or cereal. of salt and one cup of cereal. Stir to prevent lumping and bring quickly to a boil. Cook for ten mintes and then place either in the fireeas cooker or in the double boiler. brown nicely and then put through Place on the simmering burner, the food chopper. Now sift out the which has been turned low, and let fine crumbs and lay these aside for ook overnight.

The breakfast cereal should be crumbs in cereal dishes and add a prepared about 9:30 in the evening and left until breakfast time. It is mportant that the double part of All About Halloween
 For variety ostmeal, corn meal, heat, barley and whole-wheat flour and bran use
 One-wheat flour and bran use
 One cup of whole-wheat flour, the boiler is filled with plenty of water before setting the upper part, which contains the cereal, to cook.

CHARLOTTE RUSSE Saturday-The Leader, Forty first street and L'ancaster avenue CORN MUFFINS

Saturday - Apello, 1237 North "ifty-second street. LEBANON CRUMB CAKE Saturday - Dazsland, Frankford cenue and Birch street

For copies of the recipes apply at box office or send self-addressed envelope to Editor of Wemnn's Page.

Try spreading two tablespoons of orange marmalade over the cereals, tonst and top with Caledonian cream

Fancy Cereals Add one-half package of seeded this dish is made from whole-wheat raisins for a California breakfast bread and a few seeded raisins added One-half cup of finely no other dish will be required to fill a fireless cooker is necessary. Place chopped peanuts, pitted prunes, out the menu for the breakfast. This the water in the pan and add, for evaporated apples, peaches, apricots is also an ideal dish to serve when it every quart of water, one teaspoon or cherries may be used. Try adding is necessary, in the case of illness, one-half cup of shredded cocoanut, to build up the strength of the pastoned dates or finely chopped figs. tient with additional delicate protein dishes.

Bread Grits Place stale bread in the oven to

Mrs. Wilson will tell some ways of making sandwiches in her regular article in tomorrow's Public Ledger, besides giving appetizing menus for the week crumbs. Place the large coarse hot milk.

saucepan

Two cups of milk.

bring to a boil and add

Yalks of two eggs.

Egg Cream Toast

Toast one large slice of bread for

Stir to dissolve the flour and then Beat hard to blend. Pour over the made with whites of two eggs and one glass of home-made jelly. If each service and then place in a Three tablespoons of flour.

Two tablespoons of sugar,

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Wheat, barley outlines, ice wheat four, many be used. When using whole-wheat flours and brain use one games is to flux with kind over shore leaves in the barley and whole-wheat flour, more shore in the state of th

Surely nobody who had such an attractive coat as this would regret the coming of the cold weather. And doesn't it look warm and comfortable? The squirrel collar, cuffs and stole effect make just the right contrast with the righness of the maroon peach-bloom of the wrap

The Testing of Julia Grant

In Which Dan Asks Julia When She Will Marry Him

READ THIS FIRST Julia Grant is engaged to marry Dan Carson, when three weeks he-fore their marriage he tells her that fore their marriage he tells her that he is in love with another woman. She instantly releases him from their engagement and, after a period of intense suffering, goes into a hospital to take the training there. In the meantime Dan discovers that the other woman has been playing with him and his one desire is to cot fulli him and his one desire is to get Julia back. He eventually succeeds in doing this through a lie which he you?" tells Julia about discovering his love for her after it was too late. Julia has changed in many But she has tasted independence and she has discovered that in other ways she is not the same woman. She knows this from her reluctance to

Dan, but I simply meant that there isn't enough of that kind left to do to keep my mind occupied, not now. Besides, I want to finish my training. I should like to have it if I ever need

'Impossible''' Julia's tone was inquiring. "Of course; how much longer have OUT OF WISHING FOR THINGS

Better and Be Much Happier

school together and about one year after I left school I met him on the street. We held a conversation for about fifteen minutes and then he came home with me. He was to call and see me a few evenings afterward, which he did On leaving he made another engage-ment which he did not keep. This all happened about a year ago. Now he has enlisted in the army and I received a letter a few days ago apologizing for what happened a year ago aud asking the to write to him. Shall I write or not? UNDECIDED. Method is the statistic of the souther involution sun. An movening over it. How much hap-pier we should be if we could only delte deep and bring up a thought like this, "Well. I wanted it terribly and I'm so disappointed that I could lie right down and cry. But I suppose, an automobile in this life, I wouldn't want to go to heaven!" What a blessing it would be if we could all thick of something cheering the to write to him. Shall I write or not? UNDECIDED.

your letters are always answers, never write a second one before you have had an answer from him and always wait several days to a week before answering him.

'Live Wires' Have Started Something Dear Cynthia-In answer to the Live knows that she would be much better for you to wish for? Wishing is a Wires on question of a girl marrying Wires on question of a girl marrying for love or money. Mrs. A. married a very rich man; while she did gut marry for love she had everything her heart could desire. Two children; both have a very good educa-tion. She used her money for very good purposes, giving lots for the build-ing of churches, libraries and hospitals. While Mrs. B. married a poor man for love, she has a very hard time of it. She had six children, her husband was out of work on account of ill was out of work on account of lil health and tack of education. Finally he died, leaving her penalless; her oldest child was only ten years old at the time. So we have decided for ourselves to marry rich men or men comfortably off. We are DAILY READERS.

But one can't leave his happy home and try to live on love alone. They Don't Come Back

Dear Cynthia—I am a girl seventeen years of age. I am not considered beautiful, but will pass in a crowd. Now, every time I am introduced to a new boy. I appear attractive to him, and when at a dance or party I have every dance and never lack company coming home. They shaw make an an coming home. They also make an ap-pointment with me, but after the ap-pointment, Bingol there goes every-thing. Although he thanks me for comthing. Although he thanks me for com-ing with him, and to my mind appears well pleased, he never calls me up again and forgets my very existence. I am a good listener, don't break my neck try-ing to please the boys, and on the other hand I don't treat them cold.

Why do you suppose I can't hold the boys' attraction after the first ap-pointment? S. L. Z. Try saying lightly as the boy is about to leave you at your home after taking
I mot a girl.
I wonder what Buck thinks? I wonder if to leave you at your home after taking you out "When shall I see you again?" Perhaps they need a little encouraging. Try if Excuse the comment, Dan B. but we don't quite like your seeming suggestion that, you would be willing to live on your wife's money and not work. Now, we know you don't mean that, Dan B., nor do you mean that you would "look up her räting." You have good red blood in you, young man, and you wouldn't care whether she had money or not. You'd work till you made enough to support her, and you'd work anyway, now wouldn't you? I'm glad some one sends you Cynthia every day. Dan B. Answers "Live Wires" Dear Cynthia-It's rather hard to get the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER now, but some kind soul sends me the Cynthia column daily. Dear Live Wires-I am rather glad you called my attention to the question of your dehate. As for my advising any one I wouldn't take the risk, yet I will state what I think of the matter. When a poor man marries for love and tries to make a living and fails

Dear Cynthia—I hope this will come before the ayes of Zadee. She is to be admired for her straightforwardness, "Don't believe you are a failure, for if you do you will be."

The Question Corner Today's Inquiries

You are young and just entering the time in life when every little puff of smoke looks like a London fog. Look chead, for every dark cloud has a silver It is pretty hard to judge any one which to take off the coat that seemed so hot in the midday autumn sun. Ah automobile suddenly whizzed coolly past her, disturbing both her equilibrium and what was left of her peace of mind, She midda the the internet state is about the second of the second state is in the midday autumn sun. Ah automobile suddenly whizzed coolly past her, disturbing both her equilibrium and what was left of her peace of mind, the second state is a state is a state in the second state is a state is a state in the second state is a state i not? UNDECIDED. If the apology appears an adequate one you might write occasionally in answer to his letters. But be sure that your letters are always answers, noter like that at those inevitable times when everybody else seems to have the lux-uries, or sometimes even necessities. that we want and cannot have. You to get up and go home. could never cry "Sour grapes!" at the woman who made that remark, and you THERE are so many luxuries, even could never accuse her of being insin-cere enough to say, "Weil, I guess I'm better off without it." when everybody had them all now, what would there be favorite indoor sport with almost every-

It would be a comfort if we could body. Indeed, with some people, it face all our disappointments with that ceases to be a sport and becomes a spirit. When the cake that was made babit, They feel that they willd never so carefully and at such an expense of he happy if everything were as they time and trouble comes out of the oven wanted it, because they would not have with a disconsolate crack across its anything to fuss over. But since we face and a wet. "sad" streak through it; when that expected raise that has in the act itself, let's do our wishing been spent so long in advance turns out to be a $3 one instead of a $5 one; fun out of it.

don't you think his wife will lose her sood companion and appreciate her home.

As to marrying for money—I recall a friend saying once. "I'm going to marry money and die for the rest of my life." that will help you. ROMEO II.

For the House

When possible a refrigerator should be connected with a separate drain.

Light tones and simple wall paper

They say two can live as cheaply as one but that was before the H. C. of L. And on my part, if I fall in love with a girl and intend to marry her. after we're engaged. I'll look up her rating. If she is worth enough to live on and then some, I'll marry her imme-diately.

Plenty of brown in a living room gives it an air of richness.

nil, I'll go out and make enough on, . I'm rather sorry I can't help you out in your church affair, but you see I'm not a girl. I wonder what Buck thinks? I wonder! United States Navy. United States Navy. Dan B. but we times ostricht feathers are placed be-reath the brim so that they brush the shoulder

Encourages "Zadee"

IF YOU LOVE -"lowers you should be interested to

THE CENTURY FLOWER SHOP 12th Below Chestnut St_

Users of PEA Coal vised and buy now. We have the size and quality.

BEST COAL

Egg. .$11.25 Stove $11.65

Nut. . 11.75 Pea. . . 9.55

PROMPT DELIVERY

We serve you right

Owen Letters' Sons

Largest Coal Fard in Phila

Frenton Ave. & Westmoreland

handle only the very

Photo by Fashion Camera Studie

By HAZEL DEVO BATCHELOR Copyright, 1919, by Public Ledger Co.

"Finish your training? Why, that's impossible.

What is the proper way to clean • muffin pans?

2. Why is it practical to make an afternoon and an evening dress of barmonizing shades of the same 3. What is an amusing old super-stition connected with the mar-

One-half cup of sugar, One well-beaten egg. Beat hard to mix and then use as

Adventures With a Purse

TOUCH of black is always a smart addition to one's costume. Some-addition to one's costume. There is no law against dressing as addition to one's costume. Some-s it might be a black brooch, other s a chain of black and then again it imes a chain of black and then again it a the night be a black mesh bag. Had you and wer thought of that? You would if nur ou were to see the black mesh bags maw today. They are of the softest. Inest gun metal mesh. The shimmer-ing folds hang gracefully and the tops be tre well shaped. The one I liked was the

be perfectly safe for her to dress an the nurse. The Spanish head dress requires a high knot on top of the head. A high comb usually failshes it. A short black lace well held just back of the knot and falling just below the shoulders is netty, too. A red rose nestling against the knot and the yell makes a co-She was very courteous and explained t great length to me how this glove solder and cleaner works. "A glove is the a shoe," she said, "as long as it trains, its shape it looks well. And ertains its shape it looks well. And uettish touch. 1.50 for this frame, and a jar of the Address of Comedienne caning paste, when you stop to think at in a very short time you will have ed the price of it in the cost of hav-your gloves cleaned." Which is ad enough reasoning for any one, wooden stand has two hands over Nora Bayes, the popular musical comedy of alls of any series and discrimination in the any that the any series and discrimination in the any thing about the mathematical and series any s fitting firmly and well on the or form there is a set of metal ooking for all the world like hair-Fitting the gloves thus on the dle they are smoothed out on these oden hands you rub them carefully

The only thing about the matthat generally hand-made bloures regensive. One shop, however, table of lovely soft waists, hand-with plain collars, and no trim-recept the finest and daintiest of hing. And they bear the re-price of $5.75. I think the on for the remarkably low price the waists are slightly ar the names of shops where ar-mentioned in "Adventures a Parse" can be purchased, me Editor of Woman's Page, muy PUBLIC LEDGER, or phone Woman's Department, Walaut

Has Friends in England

and short sleeves and a very full skirt of a brilliant color, preferably yellow or red. You would need about four yards of yard-wide material for the skirt. For the Spanish girl you would need bright-colored or flowered show, with a deep fringe, about three yards square. You can make the fringe by raveing the edge. If necessary. Draps this over one shoulder and around your waist, letting one end fail to the block ice or net shawl will do just as well. Black stockings and high-beeled slip-pers should be worn. To the Editor of Woman's Poor: Dear Madam-I left England some years ago and would like to find out if sears ago and would like to find out if any of my friends are living. Where should i write? And I would also like to know where "I could get some of Mrs. Henry Woods's books. I have read a number and would like to read more. They could just be paper cov-mered. I wonder if you remember my that he wanted her to give up her work "After our marriage?" The Gypsy girl wears a brilliant apron over her skirt and a kerchief around her neck. Another kerchief around pretty, bright colors, is worn over her t head and she wears earrings and chains of all kinds. There is no law against dressing as a Red Cross nurse, but during the war and since that time the Red Cross many people heads to be almost sacred and the Dave age books by Y. A. G. You can get books by Mrs. Woods at the Public Library, Thirteenth and Locust streets. It is very kind of you nurse has come to be almost sacred and many people hesitate to take that part unless they have the right to. Your friend might go as a Red Cross worker if she has that feeling, but it would be perfectly safe for her to dress as you can do for her will be a great help. Wants Outdoor Exercise the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam-This is the first time have taken the privilege to write to person in your position and hope you ay be able to help me.

I will give you the information which I think necessary in my case. I am a boy eighteen years old, five To think a will have out of hav-bands over Madam—As you have helped so to f hav-many people out of their troubles I am bringing my difficulties to you also in the hope that you can aid me. Can you give me the address of Miss Nore Bees Madam—As you have helped so in the hope that you can aid me. Can you give me the address of Miss Nore Bees Madam and the rest of Miss of the troubles of the trouble of the troubles of the trouble of the troubles of the trouble of the troubles of the trouble color whatever in my cheeks. I am as white as a sheet all the time, Now for a remedy which I think Nora Bayes, the popular musical comedy comedienne?

'ould you let me know where I could take up horseback riding. In the coun-try preferably, as I spend all my time in the city, between work (indoors) and nne?

I would like to know of a place which back to it. In the business directory of the telephone book, under "Riding," you will find a number of riding academies out in the country. By calling them on the a tittle indefinite when they will be bere.

Must Leave Town for Winter
To the Editor of Woman's Page:
To the Country, By calling them on the least expensive. You for some information I shall be the some the south is the South the winter some was increduence on the woman's time of the Woman's time of the Woman's Page.
To you seem the weather is not coil or expensive. The wind blows so very here and shouth the winters are some window. Breath in deep through you most hilk that for the winter woman's time the women's time and to be so pale.
Floridh is the best place to go? What was to be women's all the time and to be so pale.
To was seen through you.
The woman's the winter months there and how could terminate with some and women's the page with the to any the page with you.
The Woman's the winter woman's the with the some the balk to be so pale.
The was stupied of met to any the the balk to be so pale.
The was stupied of met to any the to any the the bal

b

IF DAN'S suggestion that they be married immediately left Julia sur-

had helped for a time to assuage her wanted to go on with it. at thrill grown to love it all; there was a thrill is looking forward to here day's work. a thrill she had never known before. Julia did her remind him that she built more have remind him that she thrill she had never known before." Her mind leaped ahead into the to-borrow as she sat there with her head on Dan's shoulder. In reality she was miles away from the gloomy back par-lor. Dan had felt these moments of absorption more than once, and it vaguely annoyed him that Julia did vaguely annoyed him that Julia did not give all her thoughts to him. Like vaguely annoyed him that Julia did not give all her thoughts to him. Like many another man, he feit that he was sharing Julia with something outside, and therefore he feit more and more that he must persunde her to give up her work and to turn her thoughts to other things. There were plenty of things for women to think about, things Now for a remedy which I think would give me the necessary fresh air, as I am always indoors reading, and exercise. things for women to think about, things for their home, clothes. Julia had been content once to do this; she must go a would like to know of a place which is hexpensive as I could not spend a great amount of money at the present time. I have never ridden horseback before but would like to learn, and get the exercise also. EDWARD. In the business directory of the the total action of the second sec nasing what was due him. He had given in about the immediate mar-ringe; Julia could give in to him about this. "You'll be too busy to stay on at the hospital, anyway," he said after a moment's time in which they both thought a great deal. "Busy?" Julia's tone was incredu-lous. Dan instantly felt that he had said the wrong thing, but he blundered ou.

"Nearly two years."

"You don't mean to say that you are going to keep me waiting that long for our marriage, do you?"

Julia smiled at the injured, angry tone of his voice. It was the voice of the long-suffering man naving come to the end of his patience with a woman

"No. Dan, certainly not; but I can by the steam.

The being given and the set of the matter was she wanted to ge on with it; she had grown to love it all; there was a thril n looking forward to have a set the set of the set of herself might never have realized the necessity for it if it had not been for him. Dan turned to pleading then, couldn't bear it to have my wife work after we are married," he begged "Ju-lia, listen to reason. You can't mean

(Monday - Doctor Norville finds himself interested in Julia.)

Fall Fashions

A suit of sapphire blue duvetyne is trimmed with bands of gray chenilic.

Some tie-on biouses open over elabo-rately figured or embroidered vests.

Short sleeves, to be worn with lone gloves, appear on some street costumes.

The full skirt is de newest line, but vinge ceremony? . How should the hair be treated if conditions require washing it more often than every three weeks? What new style of vell is prac-tical for wear when traveling?

How is wide white lace used on dark silk dresses?

Vesterday's Answers

In a steam-heated room the precaution should always be taken of keeping a bowl of water on the radiator to supply the moisture that otherwise would be dried out Clean the nickel on a gas stove with baking soda on a damp cloth.

In doing a buttonhole stitch on the edge of a piece of embroidery always remember to do the em-broidery before cutting out the work, as cutting out makes raw edges that are hard to work on.

edges that are hard to work on. To freshen velour curtains brosh them thoroughly, then sponge them with a weak solution of borax. When they are dry, brush a strong solution of gum arabic over the wrong side to stiffen the before brushing it on the right side.

Stains made by house paint on clothes can be removed by a cloth wet with kerosene. This should he done out of doors, as kerosene is very inflammable.

In arranging the mantel shelf avoid crowding too many orna-ments on it so that no one will show to advantage.

NEWBRO'S

HERPICIDE

Sold Everywhere Applications at Barber Shops by a letter. If your statements are cor-rect the only thing I can see is that the right fellow has not found you. Do not give up hope. But remember this an old Greek proverb, "That woman is best who is least spoken of among men, whether for good or evil.' whether for good or evil. Some girls of this generation think life is a good time, lots of money and a social position. They find after it is too late what is lacking—love. That is the reason why good, clean fellows hesitate in marrying today. If I may state my experience and desire, I have called at the homes of girls whose parents are of moderate means and others who are considered well-to-do. Some girls are good, quiet home girls. Others are what the fel-lows call "good-time bables." Now a fellow does not want to marry a girl who has let every fellow in town hug or kiss her. I hope some day to marry a nice, quiet girl who knows her duty in this world, enjoys a good time, a "sensible."

PURE AND

DELICIOUS

satisfactory beverage. Fine flavor and aroma and it is healthful.

Well made cocoa contains nothing that is harmful and much that is beneficial.

It is practically all nutrition. Choice Recipe book free. Walter Baker & Co. Ltd. Established 1780. Dorchester, Mass.

fore." Dan's face grew white, and Julia, looking up suddenly, saw it. "'Oh, I'm sorry." "I deserved it." "It was stupid of me to say that, gowns.