COURTS MAY DECIDE GERMAN OPERA ISSUE

New York Mayor Wants Legal Opinion Following Last Night's Riots

New York, Oct. 21.—(By A. P.)—Decision whether the city government has the right to suppress opera sang in German in New York until after ratification by the United States of the peace treaty rested today with Corporation Counsel Burr, after riotous scenes last night, when former service men tried unsuccessfully to prevent the presentation of "Die Meistersinger" at the Lexington Theater. Mayor Hylan sought an opinion from Mr. Burr after reversing an earlier decision banning the opera.

Coincident with the Mayor's move the management of the opera announced that steps would be taken through the courts, if necessary, to assure the continued presentation of German opera. The management stated hast night's program was in the nature of a concert and that the real opening of the German opera cases was to be to German opera season was to be to-

The minute, and are beyond it by a couple of months, for the 1920 edition is on view. Needless to say, this show of Sim Williams' devising with catchy music by Bill Barker, is full of snap and tunefulness. Ida Nicholai, Billy Gilbert, Billie Dayles and other first-class burlesquers are prominent in the burletta and olio.

BIJOU—F. W. Gerardy's "Oh. La, La?" full of song and nonsense, is the feature of "The Mischief Makers." It is an entertaining show, with a cast which includes such clever players as Mabel Clark. Sam Raynor, Joe Freed and Bonnie Lloyd. There is laughter and action from start to finish.

PEOPLE'S—All of the latest frills in costuming and the newest ideas in fin are included in "Girls a la Carte." One of the players is Martha Pryor, a new-comer to this city's burlesque stage. Another entertainer is Jimmie Coughin. They are supported by a big company in the extravaganza, "Manhat-
