

MRS. WILSON HITS FOOD HOARDERS

Evening Public Ledger Expert Calls Housewives Who Store Supplies Bad Patriots SAYS THEY CAUSE SHORTAGE

"People used to have a dollar in the bank earning interest, but now they have the dollar on the kitchen shelf," said Mrs. Mary A. Wilson, food expert of the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER, in a talk on food economy at the food fair in the First Regiment Armory.

Mrs. Wilson yesterday scored the hoarding housewives as bad patriots and largely responsible for making a humor of shortage into a reality. She urged upon them the need for the utmost economy in buying and using under present conditions.

"Buy from week to week. Don't run to the store at the first rumor of a possible shortage. Buy supplies enough to last for months. Hoarders are bad patriots. If food has to be rationed, stand in line and take only your share."

Immediately following her talk Mrs. Wilson started bread baking with Mrs. J. C. Baillagh, of Overbrook, as the novice.

"At the point where the dough is set aside for three and a half hours to rise, one woman in the audience asked for some quick recipe for making a three-hour bread."

"No practical baker knows a recipe for making bread in three hours," said Mrs. Wilson. "It may look well and taste well but it is not a perfect food, for it has not had time enough to thoroughly glutenize. There is no short cut to perfect bread making."

In her appeal for economy, Mrs. Wilson gave a demonstration of fireless cookery as a saving in both food and fuel.

"At least 15 per cent of the food substance of meat is saved by the use of a fireless cooker, she said. 'Not only is there the quantity economy but a cheaper cut of meat may also be used. When a cheaper cut is cooked in a stove the cooking is done at too high a temperature and in too short a time. Cooking at a temperature just below the boiling point is what makes the tissues tender, and this kind of cooking can be done in a fireless cooker.'"

One of those who helped at the grocers' supper was J. A. McAnally, who was in one of Mrs. Wilson's navy cleanses and lent her own methods of providing meals for hungry sailors at a cost of not more than forty cents a day.

Today the demonstration will include pantry making, fireless cookery, bread making, cheese novelties, and fancy fruit roll. A few recipes follow:

- Crumb Cake.
 3/4 cup syrup.
 4 tablespoons shortening.
 1 egg.
 2 cups flour.
 4 teaspoons baking powder.
 2-3 cup of water or milk.
 Beat and pour into a greased pan and sprinkle with crumbs made from 6 tablespoons flour.
 2 tablespoons syrup.
 2 tablespoons shortening.
 1 teaspoon cinnamon.
 Bake in a moderate oven for thirty-five minutes.
- Cinnamon Buns With Baking Powder.
 3 cups flour.
 1 teaspoon salt.
 2 tablespoons baking powder.
 4 tablespoons shortening.
 2 tablespoons sugar.
 4 tablespoons syrup may be substituted.
 3/4 cup of milk.
 Stir syrup into milk until it is blended and use the liquid to dough up the other ingredients.
 Roll out to a thickness of 1/4 inch, cover surface with shortening and spread it with cinnamon and sugar and currents or raisins.
 Roll as a jelly roll and cut into slices 2 inches in width. Place on end in a pan that has been well greased and bottom covered with sugar and currents.
 Let stand for ten minutes and place in a moderate oven for baking thirty minutes.
 Level measurements only.

118 New Suits for Women Special at $32.50

Savings of $10 to $20

The materials in these suits are worth a special word, for seldom do such fine things occur in suits of moderate price. Here are silvertones of soft, smooth texture in navy and brown; Poiret twill in navy blue; dark gray oxford suitings and a few black velvours and tricotines. The lines are simple and good with silk braid binding, buttons, a narrow belt or a band or collar of sealene for the only trimming. Jackets are lined with plain, figured or striped silks of good quality. (Five suits are sketched.)

All sizes, 16 to 46, are in the group, but not in every style.
