

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1919

NOT so long ago. I told you of a very special bargain in lamb's wool quilts. So nice were these quilts and so exceptional their value that they were whisked up in a jiffs. Well, now. I have found another sale. The quilts are priced at $6.75. They are slightly heavier than the ones I told you about before, and they are covered with a flowered material, with a plan border. It is predicted that these, too, will It is predicted that these, too, will last only a very short time. These sales are very popular.

With a Purse

Here is another sale I just happened to find—a most fascinating one, to be ware. A certain little shop which hakes a speciality of lovely linens and Madeira work is having an anniver-sary sale. I saw thirteen piece huncheon sets, elaborately embroidered, for $7,50—a reduction of several dol-lars from the former price. And a 54-inch Madeira table cover, of pure linen and beautifully embroidered, has been by drainty material, trimmed with lovely trish lace, are repriced at $2.50. For for some one's Christmas present, you can pick up any number of real bar-gains. I understand the sale is to inst for about a week longer. Here is another sale I just happened to find-a most fascinating one, to be

There are just two of them left. But I am going to tell you of them, any-how, for I know that if you find that iome one else has been before you you will see so many other things in this fuscinating little shop that you will feel well repaid for having dropped in. The "two left" are telephone screens. One is a round screen, about the twelve inches high. It is covered in black and appliqued on it in big strain black and appliqued on it in big retains blanket stitching are poppies in lovely contrasting colors — yellow and green and pink. If would make a real addition to your living room, to say price is $5.50. Then the other one is a painted screen, and the background is black with a gayly colored bird in the center. This one is $5.75. You will be delighted with both of them.

Here's another Christmas suggestion I've thought of, too. I know of a cun-ning little shop that has all sorts of ning little shop that has all sorts of lovely tea sets, most of them of beau-tiful Japanese ware. These sets in-slude six cups and saucers, cream pitcher, sugar bowl and teapot. Some nre of that rich-looking old rose china; one is of turquoise blue. And prices rauge from $7,50 to $12,50.

For the names of shops where ar ticles mentioned in "Adventures With a Purse" can be purchased mentioned in "Adventure address Editor of Woman's Page, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER, or phone the Woman's Department, Walnut 3000.

Dress Trimming

titching trims many a dress that ild be very plain without it.

ry is seen on morning, aft-memievening frocks, some-lf-tens, very often in con-

Balloon Girl Costume To the Editor of Woman's Page? Dear Madam—Will you kindly send me some of those games that you pre-pare for Halloween party? The ages also what to serve that is inexpensive, and please tell me what a balloon girl's costume is like, what coftor, how set onged for you all the time? I don't know. I don't understand her, for there are few girls like that, thank don't know. I don't understand her, for there are few girls like that, thank don't know. I don't understand her, for there are few girls like that, thank is made what to serve that is inexpensive, and please tell me what a balloon girl's Evexing Public LeDgea. We keep them in a large book at home. I remain a constant reader of your paper. I hone that was a balloon girl's the for there are few girls like that is the the for the thing that the time? I don't know. I don't understand her, for there are few girls like that, thank don't know. I don't understand her, for there are few girls like that, thank is constant reader of your paper. I hope your paper: To the Editor of Woman's Page: To the Editor of Woman's Page:

a constant reader of your paper.

M. M. F.

M. M. F. I am sending the games. So many have asked for the balloon girl that 1 am putting her in the column for every one to see. She wears a short full skirt with several ruffles, and around the edge of each ruffle is a row of balloons blown up full. Her hat is a wide-brimmed affair edged with halloons, and she carries a balloon on a string. Her stockings match her dress and her should be red if you have red balloons, or green to match green ones, and so on.

Exchange

Some Funny Costumes

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

bint and cut the kissing games out of your program. I hope your party will be very successful.
French Doll Costume
Ta the Editor of Woman's Page:
Dear Madam—Could you kindly tell me an inexpensive way to make a french doll costume? CUTTE.
The French doll costume can be make a french doll costume can be make your believe that all of us women are untrustworthy. for we are not.
"Jack." forget her; she is not worth your flux be is just waiting for you. Who how are not worth your thoughts. Try again, and when you find "the right, wonderful girl," apologize to us for saying that women are not to be trusted. And "Jack." I know many soldier and sailor boys-who left wonderful girl wone for aging the sash and har bow of baby blue or pink ribbon, and short sleeves, also edged with the lace. The hair should be worn in curls hanging to the shoulders.

E

页

The Egyptian Queen

To the Editor of Woman's Page:

To the Editor of Woman's Pape: Dear Madam—A group of us are giv-ing a Halloween party next Friday night, October 31. It's to be a hen-party, naturally, since schoolmarms so rarely have any alternative. However, we want lots of fun. We thought probably you could suggest some in-teresting games. Could you also sug-gest a few costumes which would be funny. rather than attractive? Of course, any idea that could possible. UNCLAIMED BLESSING. I am sending the games. An at-tractive costume that is rather funny, too, is the knifting bag. This is made of cretonne, or of black material with bright flowers on it. The skift is shaped exactly like one of the large knifting bags, standing out at the hips and

Her headdress usually is a coronet of jewels or metal, with a spreading feather standing straight up in front. Her hair is tied back and braided part of the way down with metal strands, then hangs loose below that in the back. Flowers you should be interested i Interesting French Words

To the Editor of Woman's Page: Dear Madam—Will you kindly translate the following words for me: Chere ami, votre amic pour la vic pent etre, avec respect. B. M. The words mean, "Dear friend, your friend for life, perhaps, with respect.'

For Winter Hats

If you have no ostrich trimming to put around the brim of your hat use a little monkey fur. It has almost the same effect and is in very good style this year.

Kid and leather are used a great deal for sport hats. They are unusual and give a distinctive air to the com-monplace hat. They look woll with leather coats or sweaters.

For very best little toques, made en-tirely of metal cloth in a bright color, are popular. They sometimes have an ornament or a tiny feather on one side.

Duvetyn hata continue to for every day and There ave

MANUFACTURER'S SALE DRESSES $28.50 Floot Pink Brunett White Selling from our Factory Floor Saves you $10 to $15. $15. SALESMEN'S SAM-PLES of Satin.Serge. Tricoletic & Pauletic at less than whole-sale prices. We also make to measure of your own materials GIVE US A CALL and BE CONVINCED

THE CENTURY FLOWER SHOP Bros.p 1615 Chestaut St and oth

at 40%

REDUCTIONS

Featuring a Marvelous Collection of Suits and Evening Wraps from Our New York Saloris

M. de May is desirous of closing out his entire Fall and Winter Suits Fall and Winter Suits and Wrapa before he sails for Paris next month. He has brought over a number of stun-ning models from his New York satons for this express purpose, and in-vites your careful inspec-tion

lucille Dress 60. 730 Market St. 2d Floor

_ itth Below Chestnut St.,

IF YOU LOVE.

All uncertainty is removed from baking by the se of the new-fashioned

Cream