EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1919

Army and Navy Officers Come From Washington for Reception to Belgian Royalty

SHIPPING HEADS IN PARTY

Officials of the army and pavy the United States shipping board can to Philadelphia today to take part in the reception to the King and Queen of Belgium and to witness the launching of the Cantigny at Hog Island.

The party left Washington at 10 o'clock this morning on a special train. The arrangements were in charge of of-ficials of the shipping borad.

The navy is represented in the party by Admiral McKean, acting chief of the division of operations; his aide, Com-mander R. S. Creonhaw; Admiral Farle, chief of ordnance; Admiral Thomas Washington, chief of the bureau of nav igntion; Commander Ghormlex, of the maxal overseas transportation service. Representatives of the army in the party were Major General William M. Wright and Colonel Charles S. Pat-terson, both of the general staff.

queen will accompany them on the reat of the tour through the country.
General Pershing, who took part in the train by King Albert. Then the king graciously alided the crown prince into the Belgian toyal fam. The parts remained on the car platter them in Philadelphia, as was bound.
The commander-in-chief of the American Expeditionary Forces arrived hand to greet the King and Queen when they reach the capital, about 5 o'clock this evening. Tomorrow General Pershing will confer a decoration on the king of the Belgians. During Ming Makes Early Flight
Before he left New York, King Albert Gueen Scholler and Companied by Count Gue the war, General Pershing and King Albert became warm friends, and it is expected that the American commander will accompany the Belgian mutander expected that the American commander will accompany the Beigian ruler on many of his visits in Washington. No representatives of the state de-partment came with the royal party from New York. Breekenridge Long, third assitunt secretary of state, will meet the royal train when it arrives in Washington. He will greet the king and queen in the name of the state de-partment.

partment. Arrangements have been made at Weshinton gfor a reception to the king and queen immediately upon their arand queen immediately upon their ar-rival, in the President's reception room at Union Station. Vice President Marshall, his wife, and members of the cabinet, will greet King Albert and Over Winshoth and queen

Queen Elizabeth. Later they will greet King Albert and Queen Elizabeth. Later they will drive to the Capitol. where a pageant will be presented. The royal party will then drive down Penz-sylvania avenue, circle the Treasury Building, pass the White House, and proceed to the house of Assistant Secre-Building, pass the White House, and proceed to the home of Assistant Secre-tary Long. at 2429 Sixteenth street, N. W. which the royal family will occupy during their stay in Washingregular

KING HOPED TO STAY LONGER IN THIS CITY

Albert Desired to See Baldwin's and Aircraft Fac-tory at Navy Yard King Albert expressed much pleasure before leaving New York this morning about his visit to this city. "I had hoped that we might have been able to stay longer in Philadel-phia." said the king. I would like to see the Baldwin Locomotive Works and the naval aircraft factory at the navy yard, about which we have heard so much in Belgium. "Were it not for the general elec-

King Albert to Join Island Riveters' Gang Kine Albert will join the "rivet ' gang" on his visit to Hog Island his afternoon The Belgian ruler's interest in everything pertaining to the iron and steel industry, for which his own ountry is noted, hus been displayed many times during his tour America. This will be his first appearance as a workman, however. He plans, to get into overalls at Hog Island and handle a riveting "gun." He will drive a rivet in the plates one of the ships now building here.

were unusually dense and as the royal party descended the steps to the train floor there were loud cheers for Belgium and the king and his consort. The prince, smiling, raised his hat and waved it frequently as the cheering continued.

Prince Anxious to See City As he bourded the train the principal was asked about his visit to Philadel phin. "Tell the young people of Philadel-phia." said the prime. "that I send them greetings. I am anxious to see them all because I have heard a lot about your city."

After shaking the hands of the variterson, both of the general scale over to-The army onicers who came over to-day to join the party of the king and queen will accompany them on the rest queen will accompany them on the rest king graciously alded the crown prince ous committee members who had en-

Before he left New York, King Al bert accompanied by Count Guy on the hearth rug that last night after. Nre, special agent of the State De-partment, boarded a navy flying boat piloted by Ensign Frank Lamb, and D'Oultremont of his staff, and J. M. and Brooklyn. When the king boarded the machine he was undecided what course he wished to take and he was given a maximum and Gu bert to take and he was given a map and a telephone set through which he com-municated his instructions to the pilot. The plane arose from the Hudson river opposite the Columbia Yacht ('lub, the up the river and circled over Grant's ## tomb and then darted out across Man hattan and o Long Island. and over Brooklyn and part of

PERSONS IN PROCESSION

With King

triumphal ride to the headquarters of the Belgian relief committee of the this Emergency Aid, at 1524 Walnut street. When King Albert and his party left North Philadelphia station this afternoon the automobiles departed in The source of the section of the secti

2-Her majesty, the queen, Mrs. Thomas B. Smith. 3-His royal highness, Prince Leo-old, Duke of Brabant, Mr. Bayard

Henry 4-His excellency, the Belgian am-bassador, Baron de Cartier de Mar-chienne, Mr. Hagemans,

Belgian national hymn, the Braban-Crowds Cheer

King and Queen Then the band finished playing. The royal party started again for the auto-

A transf and the proceeded inside Then the Belgians came out again to the building, and there was another triumphal ride to the headquarters of the Belgians came out again to the Belgians came out again to the Belgians the set of the bally and the set for a reception. The building to the headquarters of the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of the the Belgians the set of the bally and the set of th The List Makes It Easy to Identify Riders The Deligions came out again to the motors, and there was another

Police Lead Procession

The motorcars occupied by the party nd followed by the committee started and on the procession down Broad street, Both sides of the street were thronged with spectators. A squad of motor-cycle police, followed by the City Troop. the official guard of honor, led the pro-cession, King Albert rode in the first carriage with the Mayor. Following him came the queen and then the crown typical soldier.

entire

The king and his party leave Broad reet station for Washington at 6 streat 'clock this evening.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY FIRST TO GREET KING

Belgian Ruler, Queen and ious to see Philadelphia, the 'cradle of American liberty'-the same liberty which we fought so hard to pro in our own country. 'I have heard a lot of your city and my visit there will be a source of extreme pleasure to us all-par ticularly myself."

New York :

greetings.

Jr., T. S. Paul. E. C. Page and Corporal A. L. Smith. him came the queen and then the clown ' prince. There was no mistaking the king. He made an imposing figure as he stood frequently and acknowledged the cheers of the throngs. Frequently his hand would touch his cap in salute. Again he would lift his hat. The sun had been gracious to the royal party and as it beamed down on the golden hair of the stalwart king, he presented the typical soldier. Becond Platoon Third squad—E. B. Morris, Jr., L. R. Page, Jr., R. McLean, H. H. Smith, C. C. Madeira, H. M. Willcox, H. H. Reed and Corporal P. C. Madeira, Jr. Fourth squad—W. W. Battles, N. Biddle, P. McC. Keating, C. H. Clark, R. E. Thompson, R. Toland, H. N. Platt, E. C. Felton and Corporal S. R. Miller. Second Platoon

Prince Sends Greetings

to Young Philadelphians

The Duke de Brabant, heir apparent to the Belgian throne, who came to this city today with the King and Queen of Belgium, sent this message to the "young people of Philadelphia'' just before he left

"Please express to the young peo ple of Philadelphia my warmest

"Say to them that I am very anx

 Belgian Ruler, Queen and Prince Acknowledge Wel-come Graciously Intermeter were deep lines in his face. Indicating the hardships he had going through in the stand against the Ger-mans. But when he smiled they seemed to have disappearance.
 Third Platoon

 First to greet King Albert and the royal party after they had been welcomed by the Mayor were Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Henry. Mrs. Henry State party proceeded there were to fags. At Lehigh avenue the crowd was unusually dense. It surged into the street and the police had difficulty was unusually dense. It surged into the street and the police had difficulty was unusually dense. It surged into the street and the police had difficulty and Mrs. Bayard Henry. Mrs. Henry
 Third Platoon

Belgian Delegate, After Visiting Vote Overwhelming for Undergraduates to Attend Thurs-Hog Island, Asserts Future day Friends' Service Rests With Industry

BANQUET PLANNED TONIGHT OPPOSE STUDENT PLAN

Haverford College alumni overwhelm "What the world needs now is more ingly favor continuance of Thursday ships. The future of Europe depends upon the number of ships that can be Friends' meeting. In this they take issue with the unbuilt for immediate service. The work being done at the Hog Island shipyard dergraduate student body, which last is of immense value to the world." This was the substance of the ad- the rule of compulsory attendance. dress of Florinens Hankar, head of the Belgian delegates to the international that many of them were not member trade conference at a luncheon today at of the Society of Friends, and that forced attendance of the entire student Hog Island. body, irrespective of religious beliefs,

The luncheon was given to the eightysix Belgian, British, French and Italian resulted more largely in irreverence than business men and bankers who are here edification.

By a vote of 246 to 77, the alumni to study Philadelphia's industries after attending the international conference at Atlantic City. They were the guests of President Matthew C. Brush, of the American International Shipbuilding of the Society of Friends, have indi-Johnson, ornoration Corporation. M. Hankar spoke after he had made a tour of the Hog Island shipyard. Like the other delegates, he expressed him-self enthusiastically about what he saw

More Ships Stimulate Trade

"More ships mean lower freight rates." he said. "and upon lower freight rates, which will stimulate trade, the future of Belgium and of dent body the faculty decided to take tion.

Stimulation of trade between Bel-gium and the United States will help us in liquidating our financial obliga-tions, and the same is true of every other country in Europe."

to He gi Island. There, it is expected, they will greet King Albert of Belgiun this afternoon. Banquet Tonight Tonight there will be a banquet at the Bellevue. Stratford, at which Mayor Smith will preside, and the visitors will meet some of Philadelphia's leading business men. The committee which received the visitors and will have charge of their entertainment is made up as follows: Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce -J. Howell Cummings, Samuel M. Curwen, John H. Mason; Philadel-phia Boarse-Lincoln K. Passmore, Walter Wood, Cyrus Borgner; Phila-delphia Board of Trade-Ernest L. G. Graff, Horace Kolb, C. Herbert Bell; Maule, Franklin Smedley, Robert B. F. Hagar, Dr. Emory R. Johnson, Henry S. Grove. Do of the delegates from France is Eugene Schneider, the Krupp of France, who employs 250,000 men in his vari-ous steel industries and has had but two strikes in his works in the last 100 years. Data the strike of the alumini voted affirmative purchas in the alumini voted affirmative mawers for the mogative and the alumini voted affirmative mawers for the mogative and the alumini voted affirmative answers mum-bered eighty-nine and the negative and the alumini voted affirmative guestion. Coreals and has had but two strikes in his works in the last 100 years. The answers of compulsors affirmative guestion to c

Always conditioned We do not sell you a GLOBE Automati Sprinkler system and then proceed to for-get all about it. Your system is carefully inspected at regular intervals so that it will retain all its original high efficiency.

Let us explain this inspection service. GLOBE AUTOMATIC SPRINKLEP CO.

March petitioned the faculty to rescind In the petition the students set forth THEY PAY FOR THEMSELVES

> Johnson Amendment Beaten in Senate

Vote Came Unexpectedly The vote came unexpectedly during a Democrat, South Dakota:

Continued From Page One

zona ; Beckham, Democrat, Kentucky ; cated that they were not opposed to Kendrick, Democrat, Wyoming; Marcompulsory attendance at the meetings, | tin, Democrat, Virginia; Owen, Demo-And of those who voted the majority crat, Oklahoma; Phelan, Democrat, California; Pittman, Democrat, Nevada; are not Friends. Smith, Democrat, Georgia; Smith,

The faculty's action on the petition presented by the undergraduates has Democrat, South Carolina, and Wolnot yet been announced. Before grant- | cott, Democrat, Delaware. a poll among the alumni on the quesfull in the debate and while several Senators who had intended to speak For this purpose a committee was ap-pointed, made up of members of the board of managers, the faculty, the # Alumni Association and the present stu-dent body.

this morning, the visitors went to the Baldwin Locomotive Works, where they were received by Samuel Vauclain, president of the company, and other of-ficers of the corporation. Then they went to the Commercial Museum. The Belgian delegates were tidd that the idea of opening a Com-mercial Museum here was suggested by a similar undertaking in Belgium. From the museum the delegates went a similar undertaking in Belgium. From the museum the delegates went to the J. G. Brill Car Works and then to Hog Island. There, it is expected. they will greet King Albert of Belgium this afternoon. Although Haverford is a Quaker in Senators who had intended to speak were absent. Senator Hitchcock, the administration leader, had asked that 1:30 p. m. be set for the rollcall, but Republican Leader Lodge said he saw no reason why it should be delayed. After the result had been announced Senators Smith, Georgia; Ashurst, Ari-zona, and Phelan, California, Demo-crats, announced that had they been present they would have voted against present they would have voted against the amendment. Senator Phelan said he would suport a reservation on he would suport a reservation on the same subject. When the Moses amendment also dealing with voting power in the league was taken up, Senator Shields, Demo-crat, Tennessee, offered a substitute. There were indications, however, that a final vote would be reached before adjournment today. Senator Johnson later introduced an-other amendment as a substitute for other amendment as a substitute for the one defeated. Action on it was deferred. Announcing his opposition to the Moses amendment and the Shields sub-stitute, Senator Hitchcock said the Shields proposal virtually bars all British dominions from the league. "If it is adopted it will virtually de-stroy the treaty," he said.

SCHOOL FUND DELAYED

Although 1019 is crowling close on 1920, the state today made its first pay-ment to the city toward the $800,000 which the city should receive for edu-cational purposes during the year. The amount paid to City Treasurer Shoyer was $100,000, leaving a balance due the city for 1919 of $700,000.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

"Were it not for the general elec-tions in Belgium we would all like to stay longer in your beloved America. There is so much to be seen here." Before he left New York, King Al-bert decorated with the Order of the Crown twenty-five policemen who had the metropolis. The policemen lined in the metropolis. The policemen lined up in front of the special train before it left and on the coat of each the king of the formation of the special train before it left and on the coat of each the king pinned a medal.

Thanks Police Guards

Thanks Police Guards Directly behind the king walked the Queen and the Duke of Brabaut, heir to the Belgian throne. As the king fin-ished greeting each of the policemen, he shook their hands and said a word of thanks to each. The same proceed-ing was followed by the queen and the beir apparent. A great crowd gathered at the Wal-dorf-Astoria when the royal party left the hotel.

dorf Astoria when the royal party left the hotel.
Flowers Cover Sidewalk
The entrance to the hotel had been profusely decorated with flags of America. Belgium and the allied nations. Flowers were strewn along the walk leading from the hotel to the limousine that waited for the royal party.
Crowds liker both sides of the street. and when the heroic king, resplendent in his military uniform, accompanied by the queen and followed by the crown prince, reached the sidewalk there was persistent cheering.
About fifty automobiles had lined up
Tabler J. A. L. Anderson, Cooner Shert form, 21-Major Charles J. Biddle. Monstructure form, 22-William H. Wilson, George S. Webster. Paul Thompson. 23-William R. Tucker, James E. Lanor, Dr. E. B. Gleason. 24-Judge John Monaghan. Edwin S. Stuart, George E. Datesman. 25-Alfred E. Burk. William S. Twining, William A. Law. 26-George F. Tyler. Dr. Wilmer Krusen, Frank W. Melvin. 27-Peter J. Hoban, Joseph P. Gaffarey Joseph C. Smith. 28-Representatives of the press.

clain

Presented a Charming Picture in Gray-Met by Mrs. Bayard

Henry, Mrs. Thomas B. Smith and Miss Anne Vauclain

Instead of appearing in white on her visit here as many expected she would, Queen Elizabeth, of Belgium, wore a gray silk dress, a blue satin dolman with a wide gray fur collar.

The blue of the dolman was perfectly matched with the queen's eyes.

On the front of her dress was a diamond pin bearing a Red Cross out-lined in rubies. A string of pearls about the neck of Albert's consort completed

The neck of Albert's consort completed the charming picture. Queen Elizabeth was greeted by Mrs. Bayard Henry, Mrs. Thomas R. Smith and Miss Anne Vauchin. Mrs. Henry wore a black silk dress, a black scal fur and had two Belgian decorations, one the medal of Elizabeth, presented her last winter: the other the order of the crown, bestowed last May. Only one other woman in this country has the Belgian order of the crown. The Mayor's wife was attired in a brown strisolatte, embroidesed with gold thered. She had a small brown and the main wore a blue tailored suit. A specific and carried a hencer sum.

11-Lieutenant of Cavalry Goffinet. officer of ordnance to his majesty; C. heads the Belgian relief committee in C. Harrison. 12-Lieutenant Colonel Nolf, physi-cian to their majenties; Dr. W. W. this city. She had been previously decorated by the king for her great service to Belgium. Mr. Henry then accompanied the young duke. Then the other members of the com-mittee were introduced to the royal party. The king and queen and the Keen. 13-Pol Le Tellier, secretary of the Belgian embassy; Samuel M. Vauclain.

16-Major General William M.

heir apparent acknowledged the greet-ings graciously. All were smiling. Frequently the king would look out 16—Major General William M.
 Wright, U. S. A.
 17—Rear Admiral Andrew T. Long,
 U. S. N.; William Potter,
 18—Lefferson Gaffery, secretary of embassy of the United States; Samuel over the station, his eyes caught by fluttering Belgian flags that flew to the breezes from homes opposite the sta embassy of the United Rea. 10-Colonel Patterson, U. S. A., aide to Major General Wright; Joseph E. tion. When the formality incidents to the introductions were ended, a little girl. dressed in red, white and blue, edged her way to the king. In her hand she held a photograph of a soldier in uni-

Widener, 20-E. T. Bell, confidential stenog-rapher: A. E. Anderson, Colonel Shelden Potter

The king, smiling took the photo-graph and glanced at the soldier. "He's one of three brothers who went to the front and fought against the Ger

Here's a Tip on What vearing?

to her ankles.

white veil today.

day :

the Queen Is Wearing

What's the Queen of Belgium

she left New York for this city to-form. "Please, King Albert." said the little girl. "accept this picture of my brother, a soldier in the American army who was killed on the battlefields of Bel

King Accepts Photo

The troopers who reported this borning to serve in the escore were: First Sergeant B. W. Frazier.

First Platoon

First squad-H, P. Neilson, R. P. Frazier, G. H. Frazier, R. Tilghman, W. W. McFadden, C. N. Taylor, F. E. Newbold and Corporal Cooper Howell. Second squad-W. A. Cochran, E. Thayer, T. McK. Downs, L. Godfrey,

King Albert Hoped to Stay Much Longer in This City

in Philadelphia. "I hoped that I might have been able to stay in Philadelphia a little longer." said the king.

"I would liked to have seen the Baldwin Locomotive Works and the naval aircraft factory, at the Philadelphia Navy Yard, about which we have heard a lot in Bel-which we have have bedre with pleasure "But I anticipate with pleasure my visit to Independence Hall and the great shipyard at Hog Island. "Were it not for the general elec-tions in Belgium we would have liked very much to stay longer in America. There is so much to be was unusually dense. It surged into the street and the police had difficulty in keeping order. At Columbia avenue there was an-other dense throng. A young woman in the crowd threw a bunch of figures at the king's automobile. The King saw them and smiled. But there was no waiting to pick them up from the street. A temporary stop would have halted the entire procession and, well, there were

Will Be Received in Library and Later Attend Hockey

Game

Upon the arrival of Queen Elizabeth at Bryn Mawr College at 3:45 o'clock this afternoon, the party will drive to the library, where Miss Helen Taft and members of the faculty and staff will give her a reception. Miss Taft will deliver a short informal address of welcome, and a large bouquet of American Beauty roses will be given to the queen by the undergraduates. From the library the party will pro before the departure of the party. U G. I. Pays State Tax of $279,654 The United Gas Improvement Co., of the city paid a tax of $279,654 The United Gas Improvement Co., of

sonal escort of the king, queen and RED CROSS WORKERS

PAY HONOR TO KING

Lanes of Uniformed Women Receive Albert's Party

A short course in self-confidence, self-evelopment, public speaking. Every ueeday afternoon for one hour from · Today Tuesday afternoon for one hour from I o'clock to 4. Opens October 25th. / Call, write or phone Spruce 3218 for NEFF COLLEGE Chestaut St.

A lane of Red Cross workers in uniform greeted the royal party when they arrived at the Red Cross head

A faile of the deformer with the second of the second of the chapter. The second former of t

The United Gas Improvement Co., of this city, paid a tax of $279,654 to the state of Pennsylvania today. Many other heavy state taxes were also paid today, as the close of the fiscal year is within five weeks.

FOR WOMEN Afterno

J. E. CALDWELL & CO. JEWELERS - SILVERSMITHS - STATIONERS

CHESTNUT AND JUNIPER STREETS

GUARD RINGS

DIAMONDS, SAPPHIRES, EM-ERALDS, RUBIES AND BLACK ONYX AFFORD MATERIALS FOR VARIED COMBINATIONS OF COLOR.

and she disapleared, smiling, into the crowd. -Others, not in the receiving party, who greeted the king, were Mrs. L. T. Banks, of 5652 Martin street, who is a niece of General Bianchard, of the Bel-gian army, and Mrs. Percy Sanderson, a Belgian girl, who was married to an American soldier from this city. Theoroyal party, headed by the king and the Mayor, then started toward the station platform leading to the driveway that enters directly from the street.

Here's the costume she wore when driveway that enters directly from the street. On the lawn outside the station the police band was lined up. At sight of the kins, followed closely by the queen and the young prince, the band started the Belgian national anthem. The king stood at attention, as did the prince. The queen, too, stood mo-tionless. The king was in his full uni-form as commander in-chief of the Bel-gian army. With his band raised to his cap he made a notable figure. A gown of silver satin, gray in tone, over which was thrown care-lessly a cloak of blue, similar in cut to an open cape. It extended almost

The cloak was collared with silver fox. Her hat was of blue straw, the same color as her dress. It has two wings, one extending over each ear. The queen did not wear her familian

Play Bergian Hymn

There was, during the playing of the anthem, an impressive silence over the great crowd that gathered about the station. Hats were dodud. Fings were the three women greeted her. She countered briefly in Franch with Mr. Hieles as she walked along Tears in King's Eyes Those nearest the king noticed tears in his ergs. He handed the picture to Queen Elizabeth, who smiled at the girl. Then he said: "I shall always keep this picture as one of my fondest mementoes." Then he patted the girl on the head and she disappeared, smiling, into the crowd.

procession and, well, there we others further down the street.

CITY TROOP ESCORTS

ROYAL BELGIAN PARTY

Guard for Visitors

The First City Troop assembled at 10 o'clock this morning at the armory in Twenty-third street, near Chestnut, and left at 11 o'clock for North Philadelphia Station, to serve as escort to The troop was under command of the King and Queen of Belgium.

King Albert said today he re-gretted he "couldn't stay longer"