

MOORE MAY BACK FAUGHT AND RITER

Congressman Moore has made it plain to his supporters that while the next civil service commission will, under the terms of the new charter, be elected by the new Council, he would like to have a hand in determining the appointments.

He has indicated he will have such an opportunity if a "sympathetic" Council is elected next Tuesday. He has also said that if control of Council should rest in the hands of those who are not favorably disposed toward Moore, he will not be a candidate.

Another candidate suggested is Frank M. Riter, who was a civil service commissioner by appointment of the late Mayor Blankenburg. Mr. Riter has been in the city for some time and has been prominently coupled with gossip about the complexion of the commission.

Rating Vote-Getters Interesting in connection with the appointments under the Moore administration is the fact that Mr. Moore is having a statistical record made of the vote-getting power of every ward in the city.
