

Gathering the Oyster Crop in Delaware Bay : Soldier Milkmen : Dispersing Vienna Reds

SEAFOOD EPICURES contend that the most toothsome oysters begin to reach this city during the last week of October, a period they have nominated as National Oyster Week. This Delaware Bay oysterman is busily at work supplying an essential feature of the celebration.

MISS ANNE MORGAN, daughter of the late financier, chatting with her brother-in-law, Herbert Satterlee, after her arrival in New York from overseas war service in France.

ENGLISH SOLDIERS assisting in London's milk distribution in Hyde Park during Britain's recent railway strike.

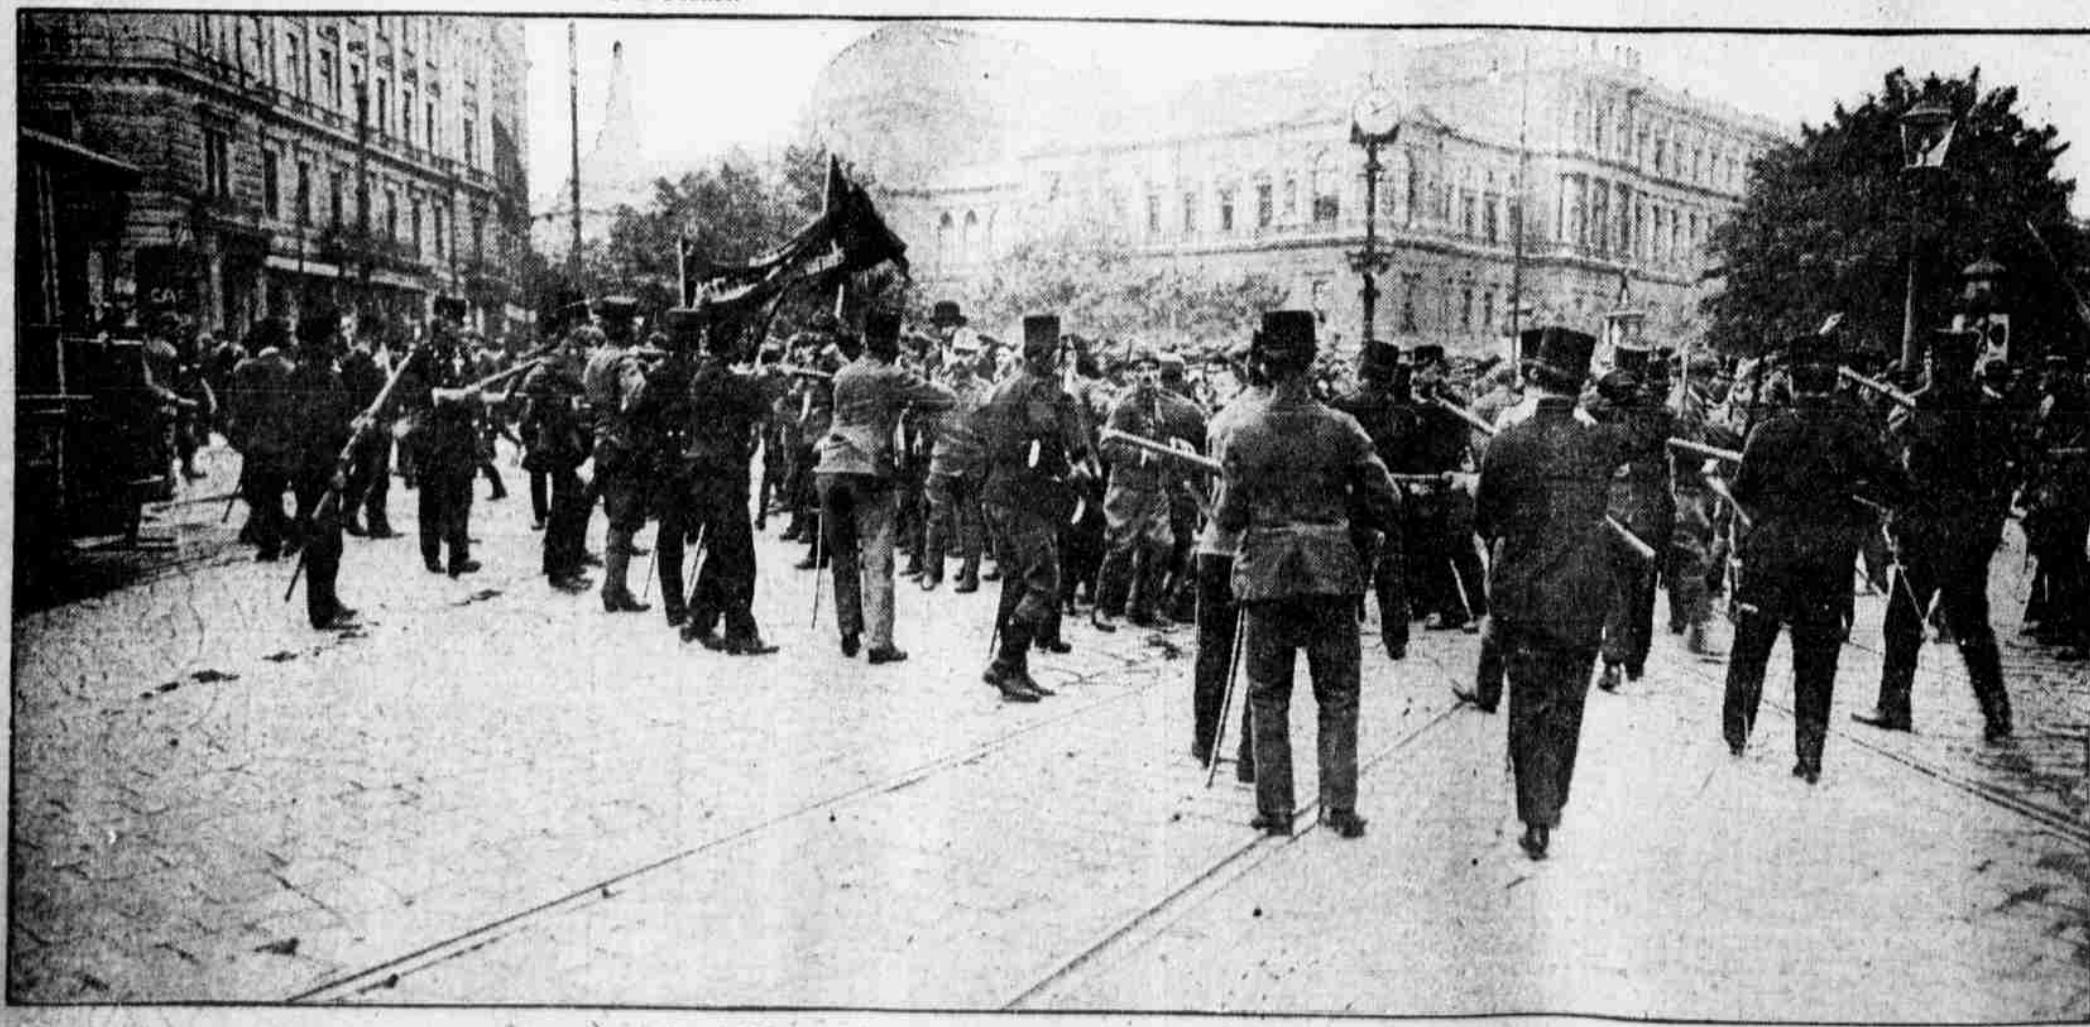

ART STUDENTS on the low wall at Independence Square, sketching the south side of the old State House in its colorful autumnal setting.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS LILLIAN TASSELL, 432 Spruce street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.

THE AUSTRIAN Bolsheviks are still active on occasion in the new republic's capital. In the view, Vienna police are dispersing a Red demonstration with clubs and fixed bayonets.