The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she saw in the paper that most of the people of Thrace are Hellenic in character, but personally she doesn't believe in judging anybody harshly, and perhaps it's the way they were brought up.

Dear Old Party (to returned soldier who has been issued an artificial leg)—Why, Mr. Fitzpoodleup, I heard as 'ow you'd lost a leg!
Lieutenant Fitzpoodleup—Why, so I have.
D. O. P.—Oh, well, I'm glad to see you ain't lost your foot as well!
