

COUNCIL NOMINEES HOLD OTHER JOBS

Six Will Have to Resign Positions If Elected to Conform With New Charter

TWO ARE IN LEGISLATURE

Six of the Republican nominees for the new council must resign jobs which they now hold, in the event of their election.

The new charter specifies that there shall be no dual officeholding.

One other nominee for the new council, Charles B. Hall, is chief clerk of Select Council. That position automatically ceases with the organization of the new council.

Of the jobs to be vacated by councilmen nominees, the most important is that held by Select Councilman William E. Finley, executive director of the Republican City Committee. Mr. Finley is a mercantile appraiser.

This position, highly prized by practical politicians, pays about $7000 a year in commissions. No successor to Mr. Finley has been mentioned so far in political circles.

It is evident, however, that the new organization will claim the place. The auditor general and city treasurer jointly will name Mr. Finley's successor when he becomes a member of the new council.

Edwin R. Core, thirty-sixth ward, who was nominated in the First district, and Sigmund J. Gans, of the thirty-eighth ward, who was nominated in the Sixth district, are members of the Legislature. They must resign before they become councilmen.

Select Councilman Edouard Bucholz, nominated from the Fifth district, and Selectman Richard J. Weiglin, nominated from the Seventh, are real estate assessors. Robert Patton, who was nominated from the Eighth, is a clerk in the board of revision of taxes.

It develops that twelve of the twenty-one Republican nominees for the new council are members of the present council.

The St. James

THERE'S a certain culinary standard at the St. James—that which can't measure up to it is shown the gate. Somehow we couldn't buy rolls that we thought fit to grace the St. James table. So last week we began baking them ourselves—from a pet recipe of the Chef's. If you like rolls—capital it—come in and taste the St. James sort—baked twice a day, so they're always fresh!
