

PRINCETON WILL TAKE FIELD AGAINST WEST VIRGINIA WITH A TRIMBLE IN THE LINE-UP

PRINCETON FACES SOUTHERN STARS

Coach Roper, While Respecting West Virginia, Is Saving All for Harvard

TRIMBLE WON'T START GAME

Princeton ... left end ... West Virginia ... left end.
McGraw ... left tackle ... Archer ... right guard
Dickinson ... center ... Bailey ... right end
Callahan ... right guard ... Kay ... right tackle
Shattuck ... right end ... Hager ... right guard
Williams ... right end ... Hite ... right guard
Sturges ... quarterback ... King ... right end
Murphy ... fullback ... King ... right halfback
Deshpande ... right halfback ... King ... right halfback
Wells ... fullback ... King ... fullback
Officials—Langdon, C. Williams, head linesman; Reed, head linesman; C. Williams, field judge. Time of periods, 10, 12, 16, 12.

WEST

Spice Hall
 Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger
 Princeton, N. J., Nov. 1.—Princeton's game with the University of West Virginia this afternoon did not attract a great throng of followers such as appeared for the Colgate fray a week ago. In spite of the fact that the mountaineers arrived this morning with a big reputation and a big team, the interest manifest in the game was rather slight, and slight out of all proportion to the chances of the visitors winning.

The Tigers in this afternoon's affair were the underdogs, having been played against Colgate, for the reason that the best team was not in the opening line-up. Coach Roper stated today that he did not intend to take any chances on using up his best material for the sake of trouncing West Virginia.

"This game means nothing to us," said Roper. "Of course we are not going to deliberately lose any game, but what is there in it if we do win? We are playing for our big games, and I do not intend to take chances with the men up front, so I am going to save him and a number of others that went in against Colgate."

"For instance, Trimble was badly bruised in the Colgate game and he is still rather stiff and sore. I would be foolish to put him in a game of the caliber of today's with West Virginia. He is a rather small player and he is easily injured, so I am going to save him and a number of others that went in against Colgate."

"The team that I picked out to play West Virginia is the heaviest that I have yet put on the field, but there are a number of players on it whom I would not use in today's game even if it meant anything."

"Strumblin' is in good condition and I am going to use him at quarterback today. Witmer probably will do most of the punting."

Roper Reticent
 Coach Roper was reticent on the probable outcome of the game. "I don't like to make predictions," he said, "besides I have not given this game as much thought as the ones that are to follow. We do not regard this game as one of importance, consequently I have been looking ahead toward Yale and Harvard."

"I think that the team has been improving steadily, although possibly somewhat slowly. I believe that I have found the right combination after a hard tussle. I think that they will continue to improve up to the time of the big games."

The Princeton team averages 170, eight pounds lighter than the West Virginia eleven. This will be of some advantage to the mountaineers, particularly as the gain last night necessarily will slow up the field in spite of the turf that covers every foot of the playing surface in Palmer Stadium.

McGraw Shifted
 Coach Roper shifted McGraw back to tackle for the game this afternoon and put Dickinson in at left guard. This should be a strong combination, although not as powerful as the Keck-McGraw combination on the left side of the line.

The team played remarkably well on the defense against Colgate and doubtless will be equally as good when the time comes for them to go up against the Yale and Harvard teams.

Fowl Confident
 "I believe we will win," said Fowl this morning, "but you never can tell. I have tried to drive out any overconfidence that my boys may have possessed. I know that we have a good team, and we will have to play all the way."

Although Beedle never has appeared here before as a football coach, Fowl and he are no strangers. They met on New Year's Day, 1917, when Penn was routed by Oregon at Pasadena, Calif. Beedle was coach of the western eleven at that time.

Several of the Quakers who were on the team then were beaten by Oregon this year, eleven and they are anxious to get revenge on Beedle.

"There will be no changes in the Penn backfield. Captain Bell will be the quarterback, Light and Derr the halves and Brumer the fullback."

Hopper To Start

There is only one switch in the line. Bud Hopper will start at left end in place of Ray Miller, but the latter is sure to see service before the game is over. He probably will be the quarterback, Light and Derr the halves and Brumer the fullback.

Another great crowd is expected and it is believed that attendance figures for this season will be shattered again. There were close to 20,000 paid admissions to last Saturday's game against Lafayette and it is believed that close to 25,000 will witness today's entertainment.

Ticker yesterday were as scarce as Columbia half dollars. There are a few in the hands of scalpers, of course, and they will be worth as much as a Liberty Bond, if the demand continues.

State is sending down a large group of rosters. Close to 2500 tickets were sold at the institution to students and at least that many were purchased by State followers in this city.

Will Watch Rodgers

However, if the Princeton forwards play on the defense as they did against Colgate, they will have little to fear of the West Virginia offense, with the exception of Rodgers' end running.

All the West Virginia men are in good condition, except Center Bailey and Quarterback Hite, but Coach McIntyre expects them to play through the entire game and keep up their solid standing.

The West Virginians arrived in Philadelphia from Morgantown at noon, yesterday. They had a light work-out on Franklin Field, but did not practice, putting the night at the Bellevue Stratford after having indulged in a show.

They arrived here, twenty strong, shortly before noon with a full return of coaches, rubbers and adherents.

PENN'S HARRIERS RACE STATE TEAM

Quaker Hill and Dale Runners Contest Against Bill Mar-tin's Squad

This is a regular field day for Penn and Penn State. The two institutions engage in three different athletic battles. The first will be staged this morning between the two cross-country teams.

The hill-and-dale run will be held over the Cobb's creek course of five and a half miles. It is scheduled to start at 10:30 o'clock.

At 1 o'clock the State freshmen and the Red and Blue yearlings will engage in a football battle on Franklin Field, and at 2 o'clock the two varsity teams will clash.

Coach Robertson's harriers finished fifth in the collegiate event at Syracuse last week, but they are expected to do much better today.

It will be a case of brother against brother when Eddie Shields, of Penn, matches speed with his younger brother, Larry, who is one of Bill Martin's protégés.

Chestnut Hill Notes Out

Chestnut Hill's notes out a victory over Penn State, 19 to 18, the game being played at St. Martins.

Schedule of College Football Games for Today

BEZDEK AND A FEW OF HIS STATE STARS

MERCER MAY START YARNALL FOR GARNET

Probably Will Replace Earp at Fullback Against Ursinus Today

No Game Like Water Football, but W. & J. Objects

Washington, Pa., Nov. 1.—Incessant rains of this week following a cloudburst of last Sunday have turned college field into a swamp, making it impossible to play on, and as a consequence Washington and Jefferson and Grove City, by mutual consent, called off their game scheduled for here today.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock. This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date this season is expected to come through with another win.

Frankford A. A. lines up against the strong Ewing A. A. on Community Field, Wakeling and Large streets, Frankford, this afternoon, at 3 o'clock.

This is the first of a series of "cross-city" games for the suburbanites—Holmesburg, Vinemont, Riverside and Lancaster meeting in rapid succession in the succeeding weeks.

Ewing presents the strongest line-up of his long career, and the men are out to get revenge on Frankford for the numerous beatings administered in past years. Jimmy Moore, former Haverford School star, does the punting.

Despite this spirit on the part of the Ewing players, the strong team play that enabled Frankford to outmarch its opponents to date