

SCHEDULE ARREST TO TEST DRY LAW

Campaign Nears End Moore Predicts Plurality of From 125,000 to 150,000

WESCOTT SEES 75,000 VOTES

With election day only two days off, the three rival candidates for the office of mayor to succeed Mayor Smith today "last hour" statements today in which each looked forward to Tuesday's balloting with confidence.

Saloonkeeper's Prosecution to Establish Precedent for Other Cases

The first arrest in Philadelphia for violation of the dry enforcement act is scheduled for today. The prosecution of the alleged violation is expected to create a precedent for United States officials all over the country.

Deaths of a Day DR. EDWARD S. ZIEBER

Dr. Edward S. Zieber, for thirty-five years a professor of mathematics at local high schools, died yesterday, at his home, 4806 Stratford avenue, of a complication of diseases.

WELL-KNOWN PROFESSOR OF MATHEMATICS DIED YESTERDAY

Dr. Edward S. Zieber, for thirty-five years a professor of mathematics at local high schools, died yesterday, at his home, 4806 Stratford avenue, of a complication of diseases.

Westcott is Optimistic

The statement by Mr. Westcott was as follows: "Immediately after the primaries the feelings which I spoke were made up of the Democratic ticket, and that to support the ticket equal to that of the Republican ticket, which is the only one that I believe in this city."

Predicts Big Turnout

A prediction that the vote cast for the Democratic ticket will be much larger than at any municipal election in the last fifteen years was made today by Mr. Westcott.

George Bader

George Bader, a well known in the Democratic party, was active in the thirty-ninth ward Republican politics, died Thursday night at his home, 2914 South Street.

Republican

Congressman Moore—"Stick it! Tuesday. Our reports and experience justify the prediction that the Republican party will return to a representative basis; that the new administration will start out with united support, and that we will have a triumphant victory."

Democratic

Harry D. Westcott—"I predict that the vote cast for the whole Democratic ticket will be much larger than at any municipal election in the last fifteen years where the Democratic party has not allied itself with some attempt at fusion."

Moore's Present Attitude

Moore's present attitude as with his pre-primary campaign to September 16, his issue was or here, and here, the issue is Moore with Percore in the back.

AUTO THAT SOMERSAULTED, INJURING RIDERS

Two men were injured when the machine shown above skidded on Broad street's wet asphalt last night and overturned at Fairmount avenue. The car was wrecked and its occupants were sent to St. Joseph's Hospital. Both men suffered cuts and bruises.

11 PERSONS HURT IN AUTO WRECKS

Men and Girls Injured When Halloween Party Meets Grief in Camden

FOUR BOYS KNOCKED DOWN

Eleven persons were injured last night in automobile accidents in this city and Camden.

Deaths of a Day DR. EDWARD S. ZIEBER

Dr. Edward S. Zieber, for thirty-five years a professor of mathematics at local high schools, died yesterday, at his home, 4806 Stratford avenue, of a complication of diseases.

W. and J. Head to Preach Here

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Charles Black, who on October 22 was inaugurated president of Washington and Jefferson University, will preach at both services tomorrow in the Arch Street Presbyterian Church.

George Bader

George Bader, a well known in the Democratic party, was active in the thirty-ninth ward Republican politics, died Thursday night at his home, 2914 South Street.

Republican

Congressman Moore—"Stick it! Tuesday. Our reports and experience justify the prediction that the Republican party will return to a representative basis; that the new administration will start out with united support, and that we will have a triumphant victory."

Democratic

Harry D. Westcott—"I predict that the vote cast for the whole Democratic ticket will be much larger than at any municipal election in the last fifteen years where the Democratic party has not allied itself with some attempt at fusion."

Moore's Present Attitude

Moore's present attitude as with his pre-primary campaign to September 16, his issue was or here, and here, the issue is Moore with Percore in the back.

WESCOTT SEES 75,000 VOTES

With election day only two days off, the three rival candidates for the office of mayor to succeed Mayor Smith today "last hour" statements today in which each looked forward to Tuesday's balloting with confidence.

BOTH SIDES SHAKY AS ELECTORS WEARS

Republicans and Democrats Are Frightened in Four States Which Choose Governors

DRY LAW VETO BIG FACTOR

By CLINTON W. GILBERT Washington, Nov. 1.—"What is the situation in your state?" a Republican senator was asked. "How do the Republicans feel about the coming election?"

Moore Aid Asked

By Independents

FRANKFORD BROKER ACCUSED OF THEFT

Chester Ferdinand Hill, Pratt street, Frankford, is under arrest in New York, waiting the arrival of extradition papers from this city.

Appeal Issued for Election of C. F. Hill Arrested After Discovery of Alleged $30,000 Shortage

The appeal follows: "To the Citizens of Philadelphia: There is now offered to the citizens of Philadelphia an opportunity to bring good government to this city by the election of J. Hampton Moore and the whole Republican ticket nominated at the last primaries, who are firmly pledged to carry into effect, in letter and spirit, the new city charter."

ANARCHY SHIP HERE After Thrilling Trip

Continued from Page One "I don't want any money," said the man who was the other, one of the Spaniards made a pass at with a knife, and you can see on the door there where he just missed me and hit the wood. I suppose he was just kidding me. And maybe the chief engineer was fooling with that fireman the time he shot at him, but he was coming aboard. There was a bullet went through the door and there was no picnic on this ship, believe me. It was more like a riot."

WARM BUT NOT UNUSUAL

Temperature at 69 Doesn't Endanger High Mark for November 1 It may be warm today, but the weather must be warmer by nine degrees to smash November 1 record.

POTATOES ARE PLENTIFUL

Prices Lower Than Last Year. With one of the biggest potato crops on record, commission men are finding wholesale prices somewhat lower than last year.

WOMAN MAY HEAD CITY DEPARTMENT

Letter by Moore Lends Color to the Often-Discussed Appointment ASKS FOR SUGGESTIONS

Albert E. Berry He was elected president of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co. at a special meeting of the directors in Washington. Mr. Berry has been divisional manager of the Bell Telephone Co. in Philadelphia since 1908.

STATE LABOR BODY IN STEEL CONCLAVE

500 Delegates Open Two-Day Convention at Pittsburgh in Interest of Walkout

EXULT IN MINERS' STRIKE

Pittsburgh, Nov. 1.—Five hundred delegates of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor met here today to hold a two-day convention in the interest of the steel strike.

TWO CHILDREN INJURED

Both struck by Motortrucks—One Seriously Hurt Motortrucks ran down and seriously injured two small children yesterday.

COL. JAMES D. BELL DEAD

Commander-in-Chief of G. A. R. Had a Fine War Record New York, Nov. 1.—(By A. P.)—Colonel James D. Bell, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, died today at his home in Brooklyn. He was seventy-four years old.

NASHVILLE PRINTERS OUT

Photo-Engraving Process to Be Used in Publishing Tennessee Today Nashville, Nov. 1.—(Photo-engraving of the editorial columns and some advertisements will be used in the Saturday morning issue of the Tennessee in order to get out the paper despite a printers' walkout.

J. E. CALDWELL & Co.

JEWELERS—SILVERSMITHS—STATIONERS CHESTNUT AND JUNIPER STREETS

KEEGREN WATCH

Supreme in quality, finish and performance. J. E. Caldwell & Co. Sole American Agents.