Princeton Coach Wants to Beat Harvard, Yale and Opponent for Councils—Orange and Black Begins Work for Crimson Contest Saturday

By SPICK HALL

Staff Correspondent of the Evening Public Aedger

Princeton, N. J., Nev. 4.

COACH BILL ROPER has three goals shead of him—Harvard, Yale and a seat in the Councils chamber of Philadelphia. The question arises, does the moss-covered saying "lucky in love, unlucky at earles," lave a variant in the form "lucky at nolities, unlucky at football?" If it does then the Princeton football is derialfolly outshick, for Bill Roper is certain to be elected to Philadelphia's new-charter council manie body today from the Sixth Senatorial District, Germantown. But if it doesn't the Orange and Black still has a chance to triumph over her old fore.

COACH BILL ROPER has three forth into a dependable punter at even begue la nearly date as next Saturday. When the varsity lined up for its snappy signal drill yesterday all of the snappy signal drill yesterday all of the segulars, who took the lay-off, were in harness. Trimble was back at right half, Garrity at left and Witmer was used at fullback. Lourie was also given a workout during the afternoon but it is doubtful if he starts against Harvard.

The line was reshifted to get what the coaches believe to be the maximum forward strength. Keek took his station at tackle, and Captain McGrain went in at guard. This combination, alongside Callahan, at center, is a powerful one, and one which is very likely to give the Harvard backs all the trouble they care to bump into. Keek, par-
