

FISH RECIPES—ADVENTURES WITH A PURSE—CYNTHIA'S ADVICE—THE MASCULINE TRAVELER

NEW ENGLAND SEA-FOOD DISHES AS PREPARED BY MRS. M. A. WILSON

Oyster Omelet Is a Delicious Feature for Supper on One of These Autumn Evenings

By MRS. M. A. WILSON. These interesting pictures, showing what to cook and how to do it, are still going on at various theatres throughout the city.

A Clam Bake in the Oven. Wash and thoroughly cleanse one dozen large clams and then place them in the bottom of an iron kettle.

New England Fish Chowder. Mince one-quarter pound of salt pork fine, and then place in a saucepan and add one-half cup of onions, chopped fine.

Salt Fish Chowder, Farragut Style. Soak one package of salt codfish for twenty minutes and then drain and turn into a cloth and squeeze dry. Mince fine.

Oyster Omelet. Chop fine one dozen stewing oysters and then drain free from the liquid and place one tablespoon of butter in a frying pan.

Use the liquid left from cooking oysters as follows: Add to the liquid sufficient oyster juice to measure three-quarters cup and then place in a saucepan and add one-half cup of milk.

Mrs. Wilson Answers Queries. No. 27. My dear Mrs. Wilson: I read many of your helpful talks and among them is the making of fulge and you nearly always advise the use of a candy thermometer.

My dear Mrs. Wilson: The mixture of milk or cream and clam broth is surely a problem. In making a bisque of clam, canned clam broth, how can it be made as smooth as cream and at what period is the thickening added?

Adventures With a Purse. "If you buy your curtains by the yard, instead of by the curtain," we read, "you can buy them more economically."

There is scarcely a woman alive who would not rather have slender, girlish lines and a youthful figure. But, on the other hand, if you have arrived at the point where you refuse to tell your weight, it is a matter for careful dressing.

The Question Corner. Today's Inquiries. 1. What interesting art is taught to Chinese women in the Y. W. C. A. in Foochow, China?

Yesterday's Answers. 1. Penobscot is a woolen material, of a soft rough texture, about the thickness of velours.

Would Meet "Downtown Cop". Dear Cynthia—I have never written to you before, but read your communications most every evening.

THE MAN WHO SITS IN TRAINS AS IF PERFECTLY AT HOME

Is a Rival Pest to the Woman Who Thinks She's Riding Alone—He Doesn't Care Whether He Is or Not

A GREAT deal has been said about the woman who complains with her manner that she is the only person in the car when she rides on train or trolley.

This man enters the car slowly, with dignity, with almost majesty. He strolls through the aisle, stops at a "like" looking seat, squints up at the light just above it, glances down at the seat, steps back upon the toes of other passengers to get a distant view of both light and seat, and finally sits down.

Outer garments which are given careful attention wear so much longer and look so much better than those which are neglected that time used in caring for them is well spent.

White Corn Syrup may be used in place of Sugar, in whole or in part, in making Cranberry Sauce, Pie, Butter and Tarts.
