

SPOOL SEES U. S. GOING REPUBLICAN

Bases Belief on Election Results—Pleased Over Coolidge Success in Massachusetts

BLOW TO RADICALS, HE SAYS

There is no doubt that the country is swinging into Republican times, asserted Governor Sproul today after studying state and municipal election returns from many sections of the United States.

Sproul's Fight Nationalism

Without specifically mentioning the presidency, Mr. Sproul let it be understood he believes a Republican will be the next occupant of the White House.

Sproul said he had not determined on a successor to the late Judge J. Henry Williams of the Superior Court.

Governor Is Delighted by Victory of Moore

Governor Sproul was frankly delighted today over the election of Congressman Moore as Mayor.

To Preside at Cost Conference

Governor Sproul at Harrisburg tomorrow will preside at a conference on the high cost of living.

NATIONAL BLANK BOOKS

IT is near-sighted economy to buy cheap Account Books—records that are used daily and preserved for many years. Only good paper and strong bindings will stand the strain of constant handling.
THE National line of Account Books is the first choice of experienced bookkeepers. These books are good inside and out, all made by skilled workers from time-tested materials.
AN immense range of National Blank Books is always carried in stock at the factory, so that your stationer can secure anything you need in National Account Books without undue delay. Always ask for "Nationals" and see that they have the Eagle Trademark.
