'Students' at Christian University Extension Discuss World Problems

DUAL GOVERNMENT URGED

Atlantic City, Nov. 6 .- What the re ation of the church toward present day industrial and social problems and isues should be was the feature of today's sessions of the "school" for prominent Protestant elergymen and aymen which the interchurch world oventent is conducting here.

The "students," more than 100 to umber, and representatives of more than a dozen of the more evangelical FIREMEN OPPOSE WAGE BILL denominations associated in the interchurch organization, will go out from Object to Captuins Benefitting at this place as the "faculty" of a national Christian extension university which
