Plymouth, Nov. 7 .- "Do not think for one minute I am ashamed of my Virginia blood," snapped Lady Astor this afternoon at a woman's meeting when she was asked why she was not spending-her energies in America, where there were as many social evils as here

What do you want me to do, sit at home and hold my hands?" Lady Astor went on. "I married in England, my interests for ten years have been in Plymouth, every drop of blood in my veins is Anglo-Saxon and I am proud of my American birth."

Lady Astor's eyes flashed and she gestured for a moment.

Resuming her speech she declared women would be the ones to bring about the working of the league of nations. "Men tell you they had good times at the front," Lady Astor asserted, "but I do not believe a mother with a son there ever had a good time."

"Men have physical courage," she added, "but they often lack moral courage, and that's the kind of courage most needed today."
