

Young Crusaders of Today Form a Living Cross : State Fish Hatchery : High Girls' Party

Ledger Photo Service.
 PENN CHARTER hammering the Episcopal line in the first Interacademic League contest, Penn Charter carrying off the football honors with a score of 41 to 0.

Ledger Photo Service.
 PUPILS OF the West Philadelphia Girls' High School arrayed in unique costumes in a belated Halloween party in the school gymnasium. From left to right are Freda Sharp, Betty Garde, Dot Meisel and Ethel Merrill.

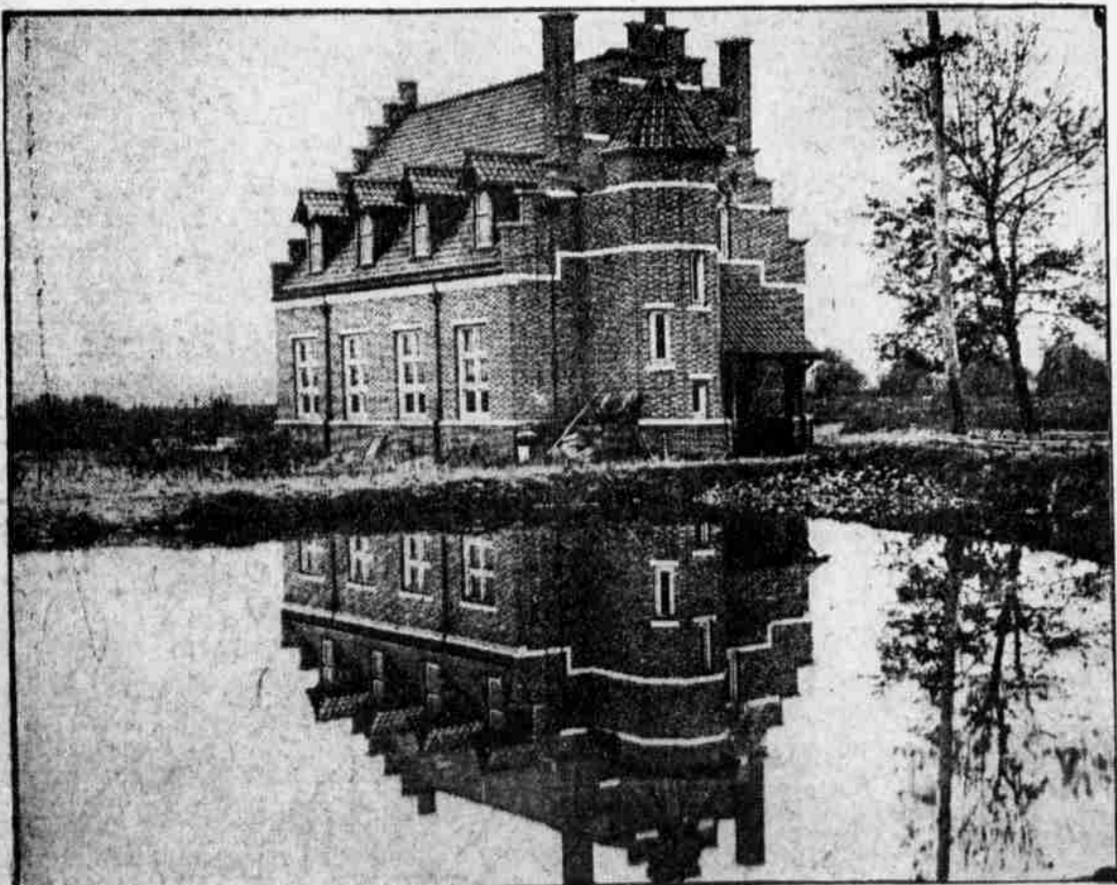

Ledger Photo Service.
 J. R. BERKHOUS, superintendent of the State Fish Hatchery at Torresdale

Ledger Photo Service.
 A CANINE JUMPER, at the right, clearing a hurdle at the Police Dog Training Station, Magnolia, N. J.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

Ledger Photo Service.
 THE STATE FISH HATCHERY at Torresdale. Shad are a specialty of the station, though herring, white fish, Lake Erie blue-gill sunfish and frogs are also grown here for distribution in Pennsylvania waters.

Ledger Photo Service.
 THE TADPOLE POND is the favorite haunt of little Donna Berkhou, four-year-old daughter of the superintendent of the fish hatchery. She will pull fat tadpoles from their lair for visitors and explain how the tails disappear and the legs grow.

MISS SUE MITCHELL, 2535 North Thirtieth street, Philadelphia. Photographs for this back-page feature should be submitted through the mail, addressed to the Beauty Corner, EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER.