

Beat to blend thoroughly and then pour slowly into the scalded milk.

Beat hard to blend and then cook for three minutes. Now beat with egg beater for three minutes and then cool and use.

Italian Dressing

Place in a bowl Three tablespoons of catsup. Bit of garlie, size of pinhead, Four tablespoons of salad oil, Two tablespoons of vinegar, One-half teaspoon of salt, One teaspoon of paprika. Beat to blend and then serve lee cold.

Eggless Mayonnaise Place in a soup plate Two tablespoons of emporated milk.

One-half teaspoon of mustard, One-half teaspoon of paprika. Blend well and then add slowly, beating very hard One-half cup of salad oil. When thick and creamy add Two teaspoons of sugar, One teaspoon of salt. One tablespoon of vinegar. Beat hard to blend.

Polish Mayonnaise Add to the above mayonnaise mixture One-half cup of finely chopped paraley

One teaspoon of onion extract.

Russian Dressing

Make an eggless mayonnaise and then add

Two tablespoons each of grated beet and carrot. One tablespoon of vinegar. One teaspoon of sugar, One teaspoon of paprika. Beat to mix. Use.

Canadian Dressing

Place in a mixing bowl Four tablespoons of catsup. Two tablespoons of grated onion. Two tablespoons of finely minced green pepper,

One tablespoon of Worcestershire

One-half cup of salad oil, Three tablespoons of vinegar. Beat to mix.

French Dressing L'se an all-g'ass pint fruit jar for mind that a salad, and the general use of succulent greens, should be a daily part of the menu.

Mrs. Wilson

Answers Queries

No. 33 My dear Mrs. Wilson:

Will you kindly tell me if there is anything I can do to keep my cakes from falling as soon as I take them out of the oven? I always make sure that there is no draft. I will appreciate whatever information you can give.

(Mrs.) J. M. C. There are three reasons for your cakes falling First, the cake is not sufficiently baked; second, too much sugar; third, batter too thin.

No. 34 My dear Mrs. Wilson: Will preserved peaches spoil if the top peach in the jar is mildewed? I opened one jar and by taking the top peach off, I found the fruit delicious. Do you think it will keep all right? Also, what causes mildew on preserves? Thanking you, I remain, (Mrs.) F. S.

Your jars are not airtight. It is hard to tell just how far the air will enter such jars. No. 35 My dear Mrs. Wilson: I have a recipe which calls for the use of curacao and orange peel. Could you tell me whether there is any difference between the ordinary orange and the cura-as orange? Thanking you in ad-vance for your kind reply, through your valued columns, (Mrs.) J. VanN. Use dried orange peel in the place of curacao. Trimming Touch

An ostrich feather turned non-chalantly downward and backward makes a piquant trimming for the girdle of an evening gown.

blouses at home—in her own room—or for her who travels. There is nothing particularly new in these sets of wash lines and tiny clothes pins, but it is the way this set is boxed and the nice the way this set is boxed and the nice the way this set is boxed and the nice clothes line unwinds that make you wonder for whom you can huy one for Christinas. The box is a little striped gift box, and the holder for the line has sprays of colorful flowers painted on it. The price, surprising to say, is a yery clear and doll subject that I think line way this set is boxed and the nice clothes. In a unwinds that make you wonder for whom you can huy one for the so-called "dolls. Tor dolls are pretty, you know. A girl doesn't necessarily need to be pale-faced. I am proud to say I have only eighty-five cents

The price, surprising to say, is ghty-five cents, while I m on the subject of not loo lazy to spend a little time in And while I'm on the subject of

And while 1 m on the subject of not too lazy to spend a little time in washing, there's one more thing to tell the care of my skin. you. Frequently you will slip into the bathroom and wash out some under. We car or a waist. And quite frequently is not too lazy to spend a little time in the care of my skin. Girls, do you expect people to say you have a beautiful complexion? If not, why do you make up? For when the paint is washed off, your face is just as pale as ever. "Canadian" been spot. Did you know that you can get a little "wash mit" made like a beautiful to get a structure wash head that will fix the term. on which to rub cout a particularly stub-born spot. Did you know that you can be get a little "wash mit" made like a to miniature wash board, that will fit ri ht miniature wash board, that will fit rithi on your hand? You hold it over your left hand? Nou hold it over your left hand? The particular part of the second idea that maybe, when she thought ut it, she was herself living in one ELAINE.

P. S -I also want to say that I have the highest respect of every follow I know. And, oh. yes, I almost forgot the silly person who signed himself room and washing out odd pieces save a few pennies, rice is fifty cents. For names of Shons, address Woman's Page Editor. Phone Walnut 3000

Today's Inquirles What is the meaning of the rose How are veils being used this season? What is a popular pastime for the woman with clever fingers? 4. Describe an attractive toy to be remembered for stockings of Christmas Eve? What is the most popular trim-ming for all kinds of dresses?

How should white washable clothing be prepared for winter storage?

The Question Corner

elothes to

Yesterday's Answers 1. The lily-of-the-valley means "unconscious sweetness." 2. Prevent candles from dripping over the candlestick by freezing them in the leebox for a while just before using them. An ongaged girl should not hav her linens monogrammed with her married initials but with the initials of her malden name. After she is married she uses the other monogram. A novel short sleeve reaches just below the shoulder and has a straight piece, reaching below the blow, fastened in one point at the under-arm sema. A delightful gift for the sick-a-bed child is a surprise box com-posed of packages for every day in the week wrapped in different colors

An unusual place to trim the new hats is underneath the brim

Dear Cynfnia—1 trust in you to print the following facts to "painted dolls": Girls, do you not know, although men go around with you, you are very low in their eyes? And many a girl has brough therself to a low moral standing through so doing. Now, men do not mind a little bit of paint to give some color to a some web giel. But sinks to a very pale girl. But, girls, any way you can do without it. What is the dress of a painted

? A very indecent skirt and one hose swenters under which they do wear a waist, which is very vulgar, s, there is nothing that can take s, there is nothing that can take y what God gave you. So be satis-with that and you will find that young and old men hold a great of respect for you. I know this e a fact, because I am the lady of rally containing five big boys. And I heard from them I am writing on. So, "painted dolls," wash off to you. So, "painted dolls," wash off that mask and be your natural selves. But uphold yourself against Dan B. CONSTANCE.

Cheers for "Buck"

Cheers for "Buck" Dear Cynthia-Will you kindly per-nit me to write Buck a letter? Well, Buck, good for you' Honestly, ou surely win the cake for your letter f last month. Above all. I admire you or teiling just exactly what you mean, know for a fact lots of people talk ist because they don't have to pay for hat they say. Talk's cheap. I have oticed the matter where sirls and powder they don't have to give you

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

READ THIS FIRST

Julia Refuses to Break Her Promise

you suffered, but now I understand swer yes to these invitations. better, and I know. I told mother that I loved Dan." Motto for Senior Clas After Dan Carson has jilted Julia Grant for another woman, he dis-covers that she is, after all, the only one he really loves, and he asks her a second time to marry him. Julia, who has taken up hospital work, has "Lucy !" Julia looked at her sister "Lucy." Julia looked at her sister in amazement tinged with pain. "Yes. I thought she would sympa-thize with me, but she didn't. She wants you to marry Dan, but it isn't because she enres so much for your happiness. She knows it's the easiest way out, that's all " charged more than she realizes, and after she has given Dan her promise, she discovers that she has given her heart to Dr. John Norville, the head that's all.

surgeon at the hospital. She deter-mines, however, to be true to her promise to Dan, and then Lucy, her Julia was silent. She was trying to find a way out of this awful muddle confessing her love for her sister's confessing her love for her sister's finnce.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
WHAT are you going to do, Julia?"
MWHAT are you going to do, Julia?"
Lucy's mind was going up and down. One minute she was glad and relieved that Julia knew the truth; the next her heart was filled with a 'strange foreboding that had its source in the fact that she did not understand Julia, and she had no idea what her sister would do. things to Julia that she had not under-stood before. She had never known that Lucy thought her up in the clouds, certainly she had never made an effort to appear superior: but it was very likely that Dan had thought her so, as well as her family. Of course, the fact that Lucy cared for Dan compli-cated matters terribly. Julia could not we have it cut before the wedding cake have it cut before the wedding

Sale States and the second st an informal party to celebrate my birthday anniversary. I should be very glad to have you join us. I do hope you will be able to come. Please let me know whether you will be there or not. Cordially Cordially.

I hope you will have a fine party, and that every one will be able to an-

Motto for Senior Class

to the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam-Expecting to graduate in June, our class would like to have a motto, not being able to find one to a motto, not being able to hind one to our satisfaction, we hereby apply to you. A CLASS OF 1920. How would one of these do? "Ever Ready," "Fortiler, fideliter, feliciter," "By industry, not by sloth." "Attempt not or carry through," "Industry en-riches," "Consider, then act," "Not for ourselves, but for all."

'Lucy, stop; you mustn't talk that way But it's true, Julia."

To Cut Wedding Cake o the Editor of Woman's Page:

Dear Madam-Kindly reply through our department to the following ques-