Forward Playing at Center Responsible for Walloping Handed North Phila. Americans

MEET TRENTON TONIGHT

The all-star North Philadelphia Americans baskethail team received a folk last Saturday evening by Bill Myers's De Neri quintet at Musical Fund Hall, and, unless the highly touted aggregation on the payroll of Frank Poth pulls together, they stand a beautiful chance of losing again this evening when they clash with the Trenton Tigers at Moose Hail, on North Broad street above Master.

For the first ten minutes of the game and in fact right up until near the close of the first half, the Americans had the better of the play, but three field goals in rapid succession, two by Johnny Beckman, turned the tide in favor of De Nori. Beckman, who is a forward, was at center in place of Dehnert, who was injured, and he never played better ball since he became a member of the Eastern League.

Ernie Reich played his first game also and Ray Cross, with all his speed, failed to halt the Gotham lad, who seintillated with a brilliancy that he never displayed in all his previous games here. The De Neri victory was well-earned and clean-cut. The players were fall of pep, while the Americans and foundered around as if they were lost.

Will Be No Changes

Will Be No Changes

Manager Poth said this morning that despite the awful walloping handed his men that there would be no changes in the line-up tonight against Trenton, "I do not expect to win them all," he added. "De Neri played wonderful ball and we never had a chance. We hope to get going against Al Cooper's clan, however.

Preliminary games at Moose Hall have been canceled for the future and, beginning tonight, four acts of star vaudeville will be given instead. Highclass talent has been secured and the first act will be given at 8 o'clock and the basketball game started promptly at

The first week finds Camden and Ger-antown on even terms for the lead. And it so happens that these two teams were the latest to get their line ups together. The Skeeters were waiting on Friedman and Sedran to sign and Germantown secured the franchise when all the best players had been picked

The leaders created the best impres-The leaders created the best impression in their games and displayed the better teamwork. They were the only aggregation to exhibit any real speed, outside of De Neri, in the Saturday night clash. Both Camden and Germantown players passed the ball and depended on teamwork to gain the victory, a missing link among several of the other clubs, particularly the Americans,

When the season gets under way a two when the season gets under way a few weeks there may be other clubs fighting up there for first place, as it must be admitted little or no practice has been had by some of the teams. There is one thing, however, and that
