

Two-Day Bride Sues Husband
Mrs. Charles G. Kress, who before her marriage was Esther Higbee, burlesque actress, yesterday made application to the domestic relations branch of the Municipal Court for an order of support against her husband, a student at the University of Pennsylvania. The pair were married last week. Two days later her husband brought suit for the annulment of the marriage, alleging that he was coerced into marrying her.

George K. Crozer Is 80 Years Old

ASCO. ASCO. ASCO. AMERICAN STORES CO. ASCO. ASCO. ASCO.

The Biggest Day Yet—

That's the Record of Our Business for Last Saturday, November 8th

This statement must bring home to the average thinking mind—and who does not think today?—the fact of the important position every American Store occupies in the economic life of every community. Intelligent housekeepers, a clientele that runs into hundreds of thousands, have spoken and their decision is—

"Nowhere Else in the Zones Where Our Stores Are Located Will Your Money Go as Far, Quality Considered, as in an American Store."

The best for the least made possible by our producer to consumer plan, is the answer why our Stores are always busy, why every American Store, as soon as it is opened, becomes a landmark, the very centre around which grows up the business life of every neighborhood or town.
