

While an Overruling Providence Reaches From End to End of-the United States, the eternal decrees allow the governments to be in the hands of men who have to learn that their freedom to act often carries them heedlessly on to great sufferings in which the world is involved through their weaknesses and their ignorances and mistakes and daredevilisms.

While imperfect men may stand at the pilot's wheel, the fact remains that the captain never forsakes the ship.

That great churchman, His Grace, Cardinal Gibbons, once said: "Science, like Martha, is engaged in material pursuits. Religion, like Mary, is kneeling at the feet of our Lord."

Material prosperity, financial readjustments and military successes may turn our heads for a brief moment: but, like Rudyard Kipling's "Ship That Found Itself" in the volume of "A Day's Work," we shall be through with the creaking of the ship's timbers, the clangor of the engine room, the roar of the boiler room and the screeches of the pipes from stem to stern and reach the smooth sailing around the Capes of Good Hope and come to the Ocean of Good Understanding.

General Pershing and General Wood were never growlers or slackers.

Stalwart General Grant at Richmond said to General Lee and his staff: "No, sirs, we will not take your swords or your horses. Go home with them and begin your Spring plowing." -

The United States still stamps its coins, by order of the people, "In God We Trust."

The Golden Eagles of the United States are today the favorite coins the world over.

Let us stand for them, motto and all.

Real Lace Collars Shaped for the New Frocks

For example, there are the prettiest "baby" Irish "points" that will fit either round or square necks. They are $10. Real filet "points," some with Valencienne edging, are $3,50 to $6,50. Among the prettiest of all, however, are the new real Venice collars, made into round or square shapes. Some are most elaborate, ending in a point in the front. They are $15 to $20.

Women who love real lace would be delighted to receive such a gift as one of these collars for Christmas.

We Have Had These Silks Bought for Several Months

The Japanese silks were in hand and the American silks on demand at a price safely agreed upon.

We took them in the other day and priced them with a normal profit-only to find that with all proper charges and a profit added each of thes silks goes on our counters at exactly the price to a penny that the importers and do-mestic weavers are asking todaywith not nearly enough to supply the demand.

We could sell the whole business straight out to garment makers and clear a nice profit-but we pre-fer, as we said, to sell them piccemeal to our retail customers.

The Description of the Four Silks Is as Follows:

36-inch white satin at $2-This is fine 9% and 10 momie-weight Japanese wash satin, with a particularly fine luster, exceedingly soft. It is delightful for dresses, lingeric, shirtwaists and linings.

36-inch Japanese broadcloth at $2-A very heavy white silk with no-luster, excellent for entire dresses, shirtwaists, men's shirts and all kinds of linings. We have found it exceptionally durable.

32-inch Jersey silk at 83-This is the product of the best manufac-turer of this sort of goods in America, and is a favorite silk from coast to coast. It is a jersey effect, but not linit jersey. A silk of wonderful variety in its uses, for men's shirts, women's dresses, blouses, sports costumes, etc.

32-inch American silk broadcloth at $3 -- Another particularly fin domestic product, one we have sold for years and always with perfec satisfaction. Admirably suited for men's shirts, women's dresses, shirtwhists and finings of all sorts.
