WOULD TAX TREASURY

Millions for salary boosts and new jobs have been asked of Councils' finance committee by city and county department heads. Most of the requests come from county departments controlled by the Vares and not under the direct supervision of the Mayor and Chall Sanda.

Civil Service.

Harry W. Kelly, chief clerk for Re-ceiver of Taxes Kendrick, started the ball rolling last evening when he asked for a general increase in wages for the men of his office and for the creation of a new $4500 place for an assistant This is one of the offices manned by Vare followers and free from Civil Serv-

William J. Betham, deputy of Recorder of Deeds Hazlett, is asking creation of seventy-five new jobs at $1500 a year each in addition to many salary increases. This is another office under Vare control and free from direction from the Mayor's office.

The county commissioners have constituted down by the Legislature to the finance committee. If granted it will provide fat berths at good salaries for many Vare adherents who may loss out as the result of changes due to a change in the city administration.

The commissioners want to increase

Change in the city administration.

The commissioners want to increase their investigating staff by a new supervisor, a depute and six additional children's agents. They are also demanding solary thereases for the Vareland Measures.

And Measures.

Representing the city treasurer.

George W. Morrison, chief clerk, has asked the finance committee to create new jobs in that office and to increase the salary of a number of men now emnoved.

the salary of a number of men now employed.

These demands, coming from county offices on top of the plaus for spending $1,750,000 to $2,000,000 in increases for the police and fivemen, bring the total for increases and new places to a figure millions in advance of any authorization of a similar character ever included in any annual budget.

The municipal departmental budgets, as distinguished from the county offices, will be taken up, it has been announced

WANAMAKER'S

A Bright, Light, Convenient Store, Full of Economies, -Wanamaker's Down Stairs Store

A Collection of 110 Beautiful New Afternoon Dresses $39.50

Dresses of this type are usually found only in the most exclusive shops and at considerably higher prices. They were made by one of the finest dressmakers in the country, a man who is not only a maker of dresses but a maker of modes. The materials, the workmanship, the great care used in the draping and in the small details of finishing all mark these as dresses of high caste.

They are of soft and heavy charmeuse, brocaded crepe de chine, tricolette, crepe meteor and Georgette crepe, in navy blue, black, taupe, reindeer and seal brown. Many are handsomely embroidered with silk or tinsel threads, others are trimmed with thick bands of cascade or with buttons. They are afternoon dresses of dignity and beauty and some can be appropriately used as informal

Satin Dresses at $19.50, $22.50 and $25

Simpler dresses of navy, black or taupe satin combined with Georgette crepe are $19.50.

Satin and charmeuse dresses in navy, black and brown, showing touches of hand embroidery or a fresh vestee of lace, Georgette or tricolette, are $22.50. Charmeuse frocks with embroidered net collars or of satin and embroidered Georgette used in combination are in navy and black. $25.

Velveteen Dresses

for the afternoon occasions of Winter are handsomely embroidered in beads or are trimmed with braid. Some have pretty collars of Georgette crepe. $33,50, $39,50 to $57,50.

Street Frocks Special at $19.50
